An Economy is Not a Society Dennis Glover, 2015-08-01 In modern Australia productivity is all that matters our leaders tell us Economic growth above all else But is this really what we the people want Does it make our lives and our communities better If the high priests of economics want the credit for Australia's economic growth over the last three decades they must also wear the blame for the social destruction that has accompanied it the devastation of once prosperous industrial centres and the suburbs they sustained as factories closed and workers were forced to abandon their trades The social costs of this economic modernisation have been immense but today are virtually ignored The fracturing of communities continues apace An Economy Is Not a Society is a passionate and personal Jaccuse against the people whose abandonment of moral policy making has ripped the guts out of Australia's old industrial communities robbed the country of manufacturing knowhow reversed our national ethos of egalitarianism and broken the sense of common purpose that once existed between rulers and ruled Those in power Dennis Glover argues must abandon the idea that a better society is purely about offering individuals more dollars in their pockets What we desperately need is a conversation about the lives working conditions jobs and communities we want for ourselves and our families and we need to choose a future that is designed to benefit all the

Australian people not just some Dennis Glover is the son and brother of Dandenong factory workers He grew up in Doveton before studying at Monash University and King s College Cambridge where he was awarded a PhD in history He has worked for two decades as an academic newspaper columnist political adviser and speechwriter to Labor leaders and senior ministers

Culinary Discourses in Asian-Australian Writing Astrid Schwegler-Castañer, 2025-03-24 Besides nourishing us food can be used metaphorically to help us understand the complex and abstract concepts through which we negotiate our position in the world we talk about digesting ideas ruminating on a problem or swallowing an insult Building on this premise the book offers a detailed analysis of culinary imagery in twenty first century works from Asian Australian authors like Hsu Ming Teo Alice Pung Simone Lazaroo and Shaun Tan Food is used to embody the abstractions that underlie racial inequalities and conflicts questioning the superficiality of Australia s official multiculturalism and its reproduction of racial and cultural privileges At the same time the analysis highlights the power of these fictional narratives to envision alternative worlds in the hope of gaining common ground for human understanding and solidarity

Quarterly Essay 66 The Long Goodbye Anna Krien, 2017-06-13 The Great Barrier Reef is dying Extreme weather is becoming all too familiar Yet when it comes to action on climate change division and paralysis rule the land In this vivid urgent essay Anna Krien explores the psychology and politics of a warming world She visits the frontlines of Australia s climate wars the Reef the Galilee and Bowen basins South Australia She investigates the Adani mine with its toxic politics and controversial economics Talking to power workers and scientists lobbyists and activists she considers where climate change is taking us and where effective action is to be found This was Turnbull s moment and the Liberal Party s too Not just the Snowy 2 0 but the whole thing an ailing and dysfunctional grid a complex issue something for the adults to take responsibility for But instead of leadership Australians got politics as usual Cheap shots culture war baiting bad and good ideas lobbed like hot potatoes and lost in the trash talk of low grade politics After the ten day policy spree Turnbull resumed his poker face continuing with his grim role of negotiating with the vipers in his nest Anna Krien The Long Goodbye Do Oysters Get Bored? Rozanna Lilley, 2018 A baby cries a mother exits leaving her family behind a child finally begins to talk a father stops breathing Rozanna Lilley is a social anthropologist autism researcher and Oscar's mum Oscar is on the autism spectrum which means he has a particular way of being in the world and understanding the lives of those around him As Rozanna and her husband Neil navigate Oscar's childhood the author reflects upon her own childhood and adolescence spent in a libertarian self consciously bohemian household first in Perth and then in Sydney presided over by her parents the writers Dorothy Hewett and Merv Lilley Through personal essays Lilley works through the ongoing repercussions of childhood trauma and captures Oscar's rich inner world as revealed through his vivid fantasy life and curious observations Do Oysters Get Bored is a shimmering examination of an eccentric family the complexities of care and the toll of grief in middle age A set of poems serve as a counterpoint to the essays in this directly charming and surprisingly funny account of daily life Subject Memoir Literature Autism Poetry Something Special, Something Rare Black Inc., 2015-03-31 Something Special Something Rare presents outstanding short fiction by Australia's finest female writers These are tales of love secrets doubt and torment the everyday and the extraordinary A sleepy town is gripped by delusory grief after the movie being filmed there wraps and leaves A lingering heartbreak is replayed on Facebook An ordinary family walks a shaky line between hopelessness and redemption Brilliant shocking and profound these tales will leave you reeling in ways that only a great short story can Kate Grenville Mandy Sayer Penni Russon Favel Parrett Tegan Bennett Daylight Sonya Hartnett Isabelle Li Gillian Essex Brenda Walker Gillian Mears Fiona MacFarlane Joan London Karen Hitchcock Charlotte Wood Tara June Winch Cate Kennedy Alice Pung Anna Krien Delia Falconer Rebekah Clarkson This collection is a fantastic line up of some of Australia's best writers who simply happen to be women the themes explored are as wide ranging and eclectic as the writers Sunday Age All the stories here justify that use of out standing in the collection's subtitle If pushed to choose one standout for me it is Favel Parrett's Lebanon which in its three pages manages to convey more emotion than some stories do in 300 This beautiful meditation on loss and belonging evokes the Australian tyranny of distance and is a fine example what the short story form can achieve The Australian Perfect fodder for a Sunday arvo on the couch these charming funny touching short stories from well known Australian female writers are what winter was made for Cosmopolitan A wonderful selection the strength of the collection is that it doesn't define the Australian woman writer as a particular situation and includes writers from various social and cultural backgrounds Artshub Performances of Capitalism, Crises and Resistance Marilena Zaroulia, Philip Hager, 2015-07-27 Discussing crises through diverse examples including the UK's National Theatre public art installations Occupy LSX repatriation ceremonies and performances of the everyday this book asks how performance captures and resists what is considered politically ideologically culturally or socially inside or outside Europe The Fireflies of Autumn Moreno Giovannoni, 2018-07-02 San Ginese is a village where God lingers in people's minds and many dream of California Argentina or Australia Some leave only to return feeling disheartened wishing they had never come back some never leave and forever wish they had The Fireflies of Autumn takes us to the olive groves and piazzas of this little known Tuscan village There we meet Bucchione who was haunted by the Angel of Sadness Lo Zena his neighbour with whom he feuded for forty years Tommaso the Killer the Adulteress the Dead Boy and many others These are tales of war and migration feasts and misfortunes of a people and their place over the course of the twentieth century I have never read a migrant tale so original so breathtaking in scope or so magical I have not since stopped thinking about the characters in San Ginese ALICE PUNG Astonishing in the seductiveness and uniqueness of its storytelling I read it greedily not wanting to leave San Ginese and return to the real world CHRISTOS TSIOLKAS The Best

Faulkner, 2016-05-03 Tracing the complex yet intimate relationship between a present day national obsession with childhood and a colonial past with which Australia as a nation has not adequately come to terms Young and Free draws on philosophy literature film and testimony The result is a demonstration of how anxiety about childhood has become a screen for more fundamental and intractable issues that vex Australian social and political life Joanne Faulkner argues that by interpreting these anxieties in their relation to settler colonial Australia s unresolved conflict with Aboriginal people new ways of conceiving of Australian community may be opened The book engages with philosophical and literary characterizations of childhood from Locke and Rousseau to Freud Bergson Benjamin Agamben Lacan Rancière and Halbwachs The author s psychoanalytic approach is supplemented by an engagement with contemporary political philosophy that informs Faulkner s critique of the concepts of the subject sovereignty and knowledge resulting in a speculative postcolonial model of the subject Cover artist credit Lyndsay Bird Mpetyane Artwork title Ahakeye Bush Plum The Rise of the Australian Neurohumanities Jean-François Vernay, 2021-04-11 This exciting one of a kind volume brings together new contributions by geographically diverse authors who range from early career researchers to well established scholars in the field It unprecedentedly showcases a wide variety of the latest research at the intersection of Australian literary studies and cognitive literary studies in a single volume It takes Australian fiction on the leading edge by paving the way for a new direction in Australian literary criticism

Islands, Identity and the Literary Imagination Elizabeth McMahon, 2016-07-09 Australia is the planet's sole island continent This book argues that the uniqueness of this geography has shaped Australian history and culture including its literature Further it shows how the fluctuating definition of the island continent throws new light on the relationship between islands and continents in the mapping of modernity The book links the historical and geographical conditions of islands with their potent role in the imaginaries of European colonisation It prisms apart the tangled web of geography fantasy desire and writing that has framed the Western understanding of islands both their real and material conditions and their symbolic power from antiquity into globalised modernity The book also traces how this spatial imaginary has shaped the modern man who is imagined as being the island's mirror The inter relationship of the island fantasy colonial expansion and the literary construction of place and history created a new man the dislocated and alienated subject of post colonial modernity This book looks at the contradictory images of islands from the allure of the desert island as a paradise where the world can be made anew to their roles as prisons as these ideas are made concrete at moments of British colonialism It also considers alternatives to viewing islands as objects of possession in the archipelagic visions of island theorists and writers It compares the European understandings of the first and last of the new worlds the Caribbean archipelago and the Australian island continent to calibrate the different ways these disparate geographies unified and fractured the concept of the planetary globe In particular it examines the role of the island in this process specifically its capacity to figure a graspable globe in the mind The book draws on the colonial archive and ranges across Australian literature from the first novel written and published in Australia by a convict on the island of Tasmania to both the ancient dreaming and the burgeoning literature of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders in the twenty first century It discusses Australian literature in an international context drawing on the long traditions of literary islands across a range of cultures The book's approach is theoretical and engages with contemporary philosophy which uses the island and the archipelago as a key metaphor It is also historicist and includes considerable original historical research
