Haim Gouri

The Of Deals English Edition:

The Chocolate Deal Haim Gouri, 1999 A tale of two Jewish friends who meet unexpectedly in a European city that captures the real and remembered experiences of these men and how they resolve their feelings after the Holocaust The Deal of a Lifetime and Other Stories Fredrik Backman, 2019-06-18 In this short story enhanced with beautiful illustrations the bestselling author of A Man Called Ove and Beartown delivers an insightful and poignant tale about finding out what is truly important in life A father and a son are seeing each other for the first time in years The father has a story to share before it's too late He tells his son about a courageous little girl lying in a hospital bed a few miles away She's a smart kid smart enough to know that she won't beat cancer by drawing with crayons all day but it seems to make the adults happy so she keeps doing it As he talks about this plucky little girl the father also reveals more about himself his triumphs in business his failures as a parent his past regrets his hopes for the future Now on a cold winter's night the father has been given an unexpected chance to do something remarkable that could change the destiny of a little girl he hardly knows But before he can make the deal of a lifetime he must find out what his own life has actually been worth and only his son can reveal that answer With humor and compassion Fredrik Backman's The Deal of a Lifetime reminds us that life is a fleeting gift and our legacy rests in how we share that gift with others

The Emergence of Islam, 2nd Edition Gabriel Said Reynolds, 2023-04-11 Now in an updated second edition Gabriel Said Reynolds tells the story of Islam in this brief illustrated survey beginning with Muhammad's early life and rise to power then tracing the origins and development of the Qur'an juxtaposed with biblical literature and concluding with an overview of modern and fundamentalist narratives of the origin of Islam Reynolds offers a fascinating look at the structure and meaning of the Qur'an revealing the ways in which biblical language is used to advance the Qur'an's religious meaning Reynolds analysis identifies the motives that shaped each narrative Islamic Jewish and Christian The book's conclusion yields a rich understanding of diverse interpretations of Islam's emergence suggesting that its emergence is itself ever developing Forum, 1966 International Press Correspondence, 1926 Guide to Geographical Books and Appliances Hugh Robert Mill, 1910 The Diaries of Franz Kafka Franz Kafka, 2024-09-03 A NEW YORK TIMES BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR An essential new translation of the author's complete uncensored diaries a revelation of the idiosyncrasies and rough edges of one of the twentieth century's most influential writers An invaluable addition to Kafka's oeuvre The New York Times An essential new translation of Franz Kafka's complete uncensored diaries a revelation of the idiosyncrasies and rough edges of one of the twentieth century's most important influential and visionary writers Dating from 1909 to 1923 Franz Kafka's Diaries contains a broad array of writing including accounts of daily events assorted reflections and observations literary sketches drafts of letters records of dreams and unrevised texts of stories This volume makes available for the first time in English a comprehensive reconstruction of Kafka's handwritten diary entries and provides substantial new content restoring all the material omitted from previous publications notably names of people and undisguised details about them a number of literary writings and passages of a sexual nature some of them with homoerotic overtones By faithfully reproducing the diaries distinctive and often surprisingly unpolished writing as it appeared in Kafka's notebooks translator Ross Benjamin brings to light not only the author's use of the diaries for literary invention and unsparing self examination but also their value as a work of genius in and of themselves A Place Called Nunavut Karin Irma Margot van Dam, Kim van Dam, 2008 In 1999 Nunavut Territory was created in the Canadian Arctic The area is about 50 times as large as the Netherlands and is inhabited by a population of 30 000 85% of the population is Inuit the indigenous people in this area The central questions in this research project are what place or regional identities are being ascribed to Nunavut by different groups of people from within and from outside the region and how do these identities work In the process of the formation of the region the territorial Government of Nunavut is an important actor in producing a regional identity that is based on the cultural identity of the Inuit the Inuit Homeland This official regional identity creates a symbolic unity that is important in linking people to the region and through which the land the history and the people are united in a new territorial membership However there is no reason to assume that there is only one regional identity for Nunavut Different individuals or groups of people from within and from outside the region such as the people who live in one of the 25 communities and those who work for the multinational mining corporations or as tourist operators are also involved in the production and reproduction of identities for Nunavut They represent Nunavut for example as a place to live a resource region a wilderness or as a sustainable place Nunavut Government also links these alternative identities to the area because as a government they are not only interested in protecting Inuit culture but also aim to modernize the economy in order to enhance prosperity and well being As such the place identities are hybrid and identities that before were produced only by external actors are now also being produced by internal actors and vice versa Less Translated Languages Albert Branchadell, Lovell Margaret West, 2005 This is the first collection of articles devoted entirely to less translated languages a term that brings together well known widely used languages such as Arabic or Chinese and long neglected minority languages with power as the key word at play It starts with some views on English the dominant language in Translation as elsewhere considers the role of translation for minority languages both a source of inequality and a means to overcome it takes a look at translation from less translated major languages and cultures and ends up with a closer look at translation into Catalan a paradigmatic case of less translated language in a final section that includes a vindication of six prominent Catalan translators Combining sound theoretical insight and accurate analysis of relevant case studies the contributors to this collection make a convincing case for a more thorough examination of less translated languages within the field of Translation Studies The Electrician ,1905 Selling Rights Lynette Owen, 2019-07-31 Selling Rights has firmly established itself as the leading guide to all aspects of rights sales and co publications throughout the world The eighth edition is substantially updated to illustrate the changes in rights in relation to new technologies and legal developments in the UK and the rest of the world This fully revised and updated edition includes coverage of the full range of potential rights from English language territorial rights through to serial rights permissions rights for the reading impaired translation rights dramatization and documentary rights electronic and multimedia rights more detailed coverage of Open Access the aftermath of recent reviews and revisions to copyright in the UK and elsewhere updated coverage of book fairs a major update of the chapter on audio rights an updated chapter on collective licensing via reproduction rights organizations the impact of new electronic hardware e readers tablets smartphones the distinction between sales and licences the rights implications of acquisitions mergers and disposals updates on serial rights new appendices listing countries belonging to the international copyright conventions and absentee countries Selling Rights is an essential reference tool and an accessible and illuminating guide to current and future issues for rights professionals and students of publishing The Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1889 British Medical Journal ,1925 Therapeutic Gazette ,1917 Modern Catholic Concerns Peter Mazurek, 2019-10-14 Does God exist This book considers the main arguments for and against this proposition from the Five Ways of St Thomas Aquinas to the Teleological Argument and the Argument from the Existence of Evil with a preliminary outline of the factors helpful to assessing the arguments in layman s language Is Jesus divine This book reviews selected biblical evidence for and against this proposition with an assessment of the persuasive value of this evidence including a comparison of modern evidentiary standards with those at the time the Gospels were written What is the mission of the Catholic Church its authority and authenticity taking into consideration the Reformation denominations Also covered are some controversial issues such as the Church and Money and adult access to official Church teachings What are the modern Christian concerns about issues such as abortion euthanasia cloning stem cell
