The Broken Harp Identity And Language In Modern Ireland:

The Broken Harp Tomas Siomoin, 2014-12-12 Biologist by training journalist and author by vocation Tomas Mac Siomoin takes a provocative look at 21st century Irish society with The Broken Harp Using the insights of modern biology social psychology sociolinguistics and historical analysis he explains contemporary Irishness in terms that are both original and compelling

Trauma, Memory and Silence of the Irish Woman in Contemporary Literature Madalina Armie, Veronica Membrive, 2023-01-30 This volume studies the manifestations of female trauma through the exploration of multiple wounds inflicted on both body and mind Caruth 1996 3 and the soul of Irish women from Northern Ireland and the Republic within a contemporary context and in literary works written at the turn of the twenty first century and beyond These artistic manifestations connect tradition and modernity debunk myths break the silence with the exposure of uncomfortable realities dismantle stereotypes and reflect reality with precision Women's issues and female experiences depicted in contemporary fiction may provide an explanation for past and present gender dynamics revealing a pathway for further renegotiation of gender roles and the achievement of equilibrium and equality between sexes These works might help to seal and heal wounds both old and new and offer solutions to the quandaries of tomorrow

New Perspectives on Conflict and Ireland in the Nineteenth Century Paul Huddie, Cathal Billings, Arlene Crampsie, 2025-07-07 Conflict is a well trod theme in the study of nineteenth century Ireland and the Irish While this is especially clear in the more traditional fields of politics religion and the military conflict was equally manifest in every arena of Irish people's lives both in Ireland and abroad including in areas such as gender class culture and identity in domestic or personal spaces institutional life education and medicine Yet despite a broad and multi disciplinary historiography this is the first book to focus solely on this rich theme New Perspectives on Conflict and Ireland in the Nineteenth Century brings together a group of scholars based around the world and in multiple disciplines who engage with the manifestations representations and histories of conflict pertaining to Ireland and Irish people throughout the long nineteenth century

The Irish Short Story at the Turn of the Twenty-First Century Madalina Armie, 2022-12-30 In the mid 1990s Ireland was experiencing the best of times The Celtic Tiger seemed to instil in the national consciousness that poverty was a problem of the past The impressive economic performance ensured that the Republic occupied one of the top positions among the world's economic powers During the boom dissident voices continuously criticised what they considered to be a mirage identifying the precariousness of its structures and foretelling its eventual crash The 2008 recession proved them right Throughout this time the Irish contemporary short story expressed distrust Enabled by its capacity to reflect change with immediacy and dexterity the short story saw through the smokescreen created by the Celtic Tiger discourse of well being It reinterpreted and captured the worst and the best of the country and became a bridge connecting tradition and modernity The major objective of this book is to analyse the interactions between fiction and reality during this period in Ireland by studying the short stories written by old and emergent voices published between the birth of the Celtic Tiger in 1995 up to its immediate aftermath in 2013

Routledge International Handbook of Irish Studies Renée Fox, Mike Cronin, Brian Ó Conchubhair, 2020-12-30 Routledge International Handbook of Irish Studies begins with the reversal in Irish fortunes after the 2008 global economic crash The chapters included address not only changes in post Celtic Tiger Ireland but also changes in disciplinary approaches to Irish Studies that the last decade of political economic and cultural unrest have stimulated Since 2008 Irish Studies has been directly and indirectly influenced by the crash and its reverberations through the economy political landscape and social framework of Ireland and beyond Approaching Irish pasts presents and futures through interdisciplinary and theoretically capacious lenses the chapters in this volume reflect the myriad ways Irish Studies has responded to the economic precarity in the Republic renewed instability in the North the complex European politics of Brexit global climate and pandemic crises and the intense social change in Ireland catalyzed by all of these Just as Irish society has had to dramatically reconceive its economic and global identity after the crash Irish Studies has had to shift its theoretical modes and its objects of analysis in order to keep pace with these changes and upheavals This book captures the dynamic ways the discipline has evolved since 2008 exploring how the age of austerity and renewal has transformed both Ireland and scholarly approaches to understanding Ireland It will appeal to students and scholars of Irish studies sociology cultural studies history literature economics and political science Chapter 3 5 and 15 of this book is available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Immersion Education Pádraig Ó Duibhir, 2018-05-01 The body of research in this volume offers a detailed account of the success of young immersion learners of Irish in becoming competent speakers of the minority language Taking account of in class and out of class factors it examines the variety of Irish spoken by the pupils the extent to which the Irish spoken deviates from native speaker norms the degree to which pupils are aware of and attempt to acquire a native like variety and the extent to which issues of identity and motivation are involved The results highlight the limitations of an immersion system in generating active and accurate users of the language outside the immersion setting and will help immersion educators to gain a greater understanding of how young immersion learners learn and acquire the target language The findings are placed in the context of other one way immersion programmes internationally with a particular focus on minority language settings and make an important contribution not only to our understanding of the Irish issues but how the Irish situation can be placed in a broader scholarly and socio political context

The Changing World of Outdoor Learning in Europe Peter Becker, Barbara Humberstone, Chris Loynes, Jochem Schirp, 2018-06-12 The Changing World of Outdoor Learning in Europe sets out to provide a comprehensive analysis of the economical and political changes that have occurred in European outdoor culture in the preceding two decades from a diverse range of perspectives including institutional theoretical national and educational views The book looks at how outdoor education has been transformed into an increasingly global field where established and influenced practices have been introduced into modernising and democratising nations With contributions from the members of the board of the European Institute of Outdoor Adventure Education and Experiential Learning and representatives of the networks that stand behind it this unique book provides thorough factual analyses and examinations of outdoor learning that have never been presented before The book contains contributions from across Europe with authors from the UK Germany Finland Sweden Slovenia Poland Norway and the Czech Republic Chapters within the volume by non European authors provide another perspective on the European story in a wider context As a whole the book will stimulate the ongoing debate about the nature function and organisation of outdoor education around the globe The Changing World of Outdoor Learning in Europe will be of great interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of outdoor education leadership and recreation and outdoor sport environmental and leisure studies It should also be essential reading for those involved in outdoor organisations in Europe and worldwide

The Irish Language in Ireland Diarmait Mac Giolla Chríost, 2004-03 This book comprises the first complete treatment of the Irish language in social context throughout the whole of Ireland with a particular focus on contemporary society The possibilities and limitations of the craft of language planning for the revival of the Irish language are outlined and the book also situates the language issue in the context of current debates on the geography history and politics of the nature of Irish identity A comprehensive multidisciplinary approach is adopted throughout The Irish Review ,2001 The Banner of Israel ,1894 The Burlington Magazine for Connoisseurs ,1922 The Burlington Magazine Robert Edward Dell, Charles John Holmes, Harold Child, Lionel Cust, Roger Fry, 1922 The Spectator ,1859 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art The Burlington Magazine for Connoisseurs ,1968

Bibliographic Index ,1991 TŁS, the Times Literary Supplement ,1990 Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1994 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1997-04 The Irish Language in Northern Ireland Camille C. O'Reilly, 2016-07-27 A topical and authoritative investigation of the Irish language and identity in Northern Ireland The phrase our own language has come to symbolize the importance of the Irish language to Irish identity for many Nationalists in Northern Ireland However different interests compete to have their version of the meaning and importance of the Irish language accepted This book investigates the role of the Irish language movement in the social construction of competing versions of Irish political and cultural identity in Northern Ireland arguing that for some Nationalists the Irish language has become an alternative point of political access and expression Index to Theses with Abstracts Accepted for Higher Degrees by the Universities of Great Britain and Ireland and the Council for National Academic Awards ,2006
