Contemporary British Novel Since 2000 James Acheson,2017-01-17 Focuses on the novels published since 2000 by twenty major British novelistsThe Contemporary British Novel Since 2000 is divided into five parts with the first part examining the work of four particularly well known and highly regarded twenty first century writers Ian McEwan David Mitchell Hilary Mantel and Zadie Smith It is with reference to each of these novelists in turn that the terms arealist apostmodernist ahistorical and apostcolonialist fiction are introduced while in the remaining four parts other novelists are discussed and the meaning of the terms amplified From the start it is emphasised that these terms and others often mean different things to different novelists and that the complexity of their novels often obliges us to discuss their work with reference to more than one of the terms Also discusses the works of Maggie O'Farrell Sarah Hall A L Kennedy Alan Warner Ali Smith Kazuo Ishiguro Kate Atkinson Salman Rushdie Adam Foulds Sarah Waters James Robertson Mohsin Hamid Andrea Levy and Aminatta Forna

The Poetics of Empowerment in David Mitchell's Novels Eva-Maria Windberger, 2023-07-17 The Poetics of Empowerment in David Mitchell's Novels combines the investigation of David Mitchell's novels with the introduction of a new critical concept to literary studies empowerment Aiming to situate and establish empowerment firmly within the context of literary studies it offers the first framework and definition for reading fictional texts with the lens of empowerment and applies it in the analysis of discourse the fictional characters and the role of the reader in Mitchell's novels Drawing on narratological analysis cognitive approaches to literature and reader response theory it features close readings of Cloud Atlas 2004 Black Swan Green 2006 and The Thousand Autumns of Jacob de Zoet 2010 and dissects the author's strategies poetics and agenda of empowering fiction This book argues for an inherent indissoluble connection between empowerment and the telling of stories and demonstrates how literary studies can benefit from a serious engagement with empowerment and how such an engagement can stimulate new responses to fiction and put literary studies in conversation with other disciplines

Law, Fiction and Activism in a Time of Climate Change Nicole Rogers, 2019-08-14 The book examines the narratives of climate change which have developed and which are currently evolving in three areas law fiction and activism Narratives of climate change generated by litigants judges writers of fiction and activists are having and will have a profound effect on the way we respond to the climate change crisis Acknowledging the prevalence of unreliable narrators this book explores the reliability and significance of different forms of climate narrative The author analyses overlapping themes and points of intersection considering the recurrent motif of the trickster the prominence of the child the significance and ongoing viability of the rights discourse and the increasingly prevalent emergency framing with its multiple implications for law's empire She asks how law fiction and activism measure up as textual and performative fora for telling the story of climate change and anticipating a climate changed future And in addition how can they help foster transformative narratives which empower us to confront the climate change crisis This highly topical cross disciplinary work will be of interest to anyone concerned about the growing climate emergency and makes a valuable contribution to climate law environmental law the environmental humanities and ecocriticism Legends and Liars Julia Knight,2015-10-06 Legends and Liars is the second book in the Duelist s trilogy a fast paced adventure from one of the most exciting new talents in fantasy Vocho and Kacha are brother and sister and between them they ve got quite a reputation They were once know for the finest swordplay in the city of Reyes The only problem is ever since they were thrown out of the Duelist s Guild for accidentally killing a man they were sworn to protect it seems everyone wants them dead Including a dark magician whose plans they recently thwarted Now Vocho and Kacha are in the midst of an uneasy truce not sure whether to trust each other or anyone else for that matter What s more the sinister magician is rumored to have returned Now he knows who was behind the failure of his last plan he s determined to put a stop to Vocho and Kacha permanently And this time the flash of steel may not be enough to save them Horror and Religion Eleanor Beal,Jon Greenaway,2019-07-15 Horror and Religion provides new readings of contemporary horror fiction in conjuncture with debates in religious studies and theology It gives a broad analysis of a wide range of contemporary and historical horror texts in a new interdisciplinary way This study establishes the importance of discussing theology and contemporary horror fiction in present scholarship Invoking Hope Phillip E. Wegner,2020-06-30 An appeal for the importance of theory utopia and close consideration of our contemporary dark times What does any particular theory allow us to do What is the value of doing so And who benefits In Invoking Hope Phillip E Wegner argues for the undiminished importance of the practices of theory utopia and a deep and critical reading of our current situation of what Bertolt Brecht refers to as finsteren Zeiten or dark times Invoking Hope was written in response to three events that occurred in 2016 the five hundredth anniversary of the publication of Thomas More s Utopia the one hundredth anniversary of the founding text in theory Ferdinand de Saussure s Course in General Linguistics and the rise of the right wing populism that culminated in the election of Donald Trump Wegner offers original readings of major interventions in theory alongside dazzling utopian imaginaries developed from classical Greece to our global present from Theodor Adorno Ernst Bloch Alain Badiou Jacques Derrida Fredric Jameson Sarah Ahmed Susan Buck Morss and Jacques Lacan to such works as Plato s Republic W E B Du Bois s John Brown Isak Dinesen s Babette s Feast Kim Stanley Robinson s 2312 and more Wegner comments on an expansive array of modernist and contemporary literature film theory and popular culture With Invoking Hope Wegner provides an innovative lens for considering the rise of right wing populism and the current crisis in democracy He discusses challenges in the humanities and higher education and develops strategies of creative critical reading and hope against the grain of current trends in scholarship Transmedia Character Studies Tobias Kunz,Lukas R.A. Wilde,2023-03-31 Transmedia Character Studies

provides a range of methodological tools and foundational vocabulary for the analysis of characters across and between various forms of multimodal interactive and even non narrative or non fictional media This highly innovative work offers new perspectives on how to interrelate production discourses media texts and reception discourses and how to select a suitable research corpus for the discussion of characters whose serial appearances stretch across years decades or even centuries Each chapter starts from a different notion of how fictional characters can be considered tracing character theories and models to approach character representations from perspectives developed in various disciplines and fields This book will enable graduate students and scholars of transmedia studies film television comics studies video game studies popular culture studies fandom studies narratology and creative industries to conduct comprehensive media conscious analyses of characters across a variety of media

Critical Modesty in Contemporary Fiction Thom Dancer, 2021 From climate catastrophe to pandemics and economic crises the problems facing humanity are dizzyingly complex and increasingly planetary in scale Critical Modesty in Contemporary Fiction argues for contemporary fiction s capacity to help those who may feel despair at the enormity of such problems not as one might think through the ambitious search for grand solutions but rather by inculcating a temperament of modesty This new temperament of critical modesty locates the fight for freedom and human dignity within the limited and compromised conditions in which we find ourselves Through readings of Ian McEwan Zadie Smith J M Coetzee and David Mitchell this volume shows how contemporary works of literature model modesty as a critical temperament Exploring modest forms of entangled human agency that represent an alternative to the novel of the large scale that have been most closely associated with the Anthropocene it makes the surprising yet compelling case that precisely by adopting a modest stance the novel actually has the potential to play a more important socio cultural role In doing so the book offers an engaging response to the debate over critical and surface readings bringing novels into the conversation and arguing for a fictional mode that is both critical and modest reminding us how much we are already engaged with the world implicated and compromised before we start developing theories writing stories or acting within it
