

THE BOY IN THE STRIPED PYJAMAS

CHAPTER NINE (FULL LESSON)

Education in Nazi Germany

The Nazis took education of young people very seriously and used it as a tool for their long-term success. They wanted to make sure that children and teenagers grew up unquestioningly supporting the ideals of the Nazi Party.

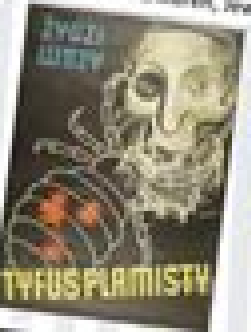

Design a Curriculum

Consider on your reasons for adding this subject to your curriculum. Why is this the chosen subject in your country? Why is this the chosen subject at school? Make sure it includes the most persuasive techniques to convince them.

Use some of these persuasive techniques:

- Repetition (repeating the word at the beginning of words)
- Hyperbole (extreme exaggeration)
- Rhetorical question (asking a question for effect)
- Repetition
- Emotive language (language that creates an emotional effect)

Look closely at this poster:
What is the message it is trying to portray?
How do you think different people would have reacted to it: children, Jewish people, Nazi supporters?

This is an anti-Semitic poster from Nazi-occupied Poland in 1942.
It says "Jews - sucking louse - typhus".

Holocaust Cinema Complete Rich Brownstein, 2021-09-17 Holocaust movies have become an important segment of world cinema and the de facto Holocaust education for many One quarter of all American produced Holocaust related feature films have won or been nominated for at least one Oscar In fact from 1945 through 1991 half of all American Holocaust features were nominated Yet most Holocaust movies have fallen through the cracks and few have been commercially successful This book explores these trends and many others with a comprehensive guide to hundreds of films and made for television movies From Anne Frank to Schindler's List to Jojo Rabbit more than 400 films are examined from a range of perspectives historical chronological thematic sociological geographical and individual The filmmakers are contextualized including Charlie Chaplin Sidney Lumet Steven Spielberg Quentin Tarantino and Roman Polanski Recommendations and reviews of the 50 best Holocaust films are included along with an educational guide a detailed listing of all films covered and a four part index glossary

Think Higher Feel Deeper Mark Gudgel, 2021 Approaching the Holocaust in your classroom can be a difficult often daunting task This practical guide for English and social studies teachers features lessons learned from the author's 17 years of experience teaching the subject in public schools as well as his work with the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum Using anecdotes and empirical data Gudgel offers advice for teaching the Holocaust in a way that is nuanced socially responsible and historically accurate He provides guidance on common challenges and questions teachers will encounter such as correcting misconceptions using films and discussing genocide with secondary students While World War II grows ever more distant in the past the lessons of the Holocaust are perhaps more relevant today than ever before It may never be easy to teach about the Holocaust but it can be done in ways that make it edifying and empowering rather than causing despair This approach is as important for educators as it is for their students Book Features Uses a conversational tone with classroom examples and actionable teaching advice Designed to make a difficult topic more accessible for teachers at all levels of experience Helps teachers think about best practices through a lens of inquiry pedagogy and personal experience Focuses on what the author believes would have been most helpful when he began teaching about the Holocaust

Researching Interpretive Talk Around Literary Narrative Texts John Gordon, 2020-08-25 Drawing on a multidisciplinary approach integrating insights from conversation analysis narrative analysis and narratology this book theorizes teaching around narrative prose in each level of education with a focus on a new framework of Pedagogic Literary Narration which emphasizes the practice of shared novel reading and the importance of the role of the teacher in mediating this practice With insights taken from a comprehensive set of transcripts taken from actual classrooms the volume focuses on the convention in native tongue literary study in which teachers and students read a novel shared over lessons combining periods of reading aloud with those of questioning and discussion In so doing Gordon seeks to extend existing methodologies from literary and social science research toward informing teaching practice in literary pedagogy and address the need for a theorization of literary pedagogy which considers the interrelationship between text in print and text through talk Transcripts are supported with comprehensive analyses to help further explicate the research methodology and provide guidance on implementing it in the classroom This book is a valuable resource for scholars in language and education literary studies narrative inquiry and education research
