The Buried Giant English Edition:

The Cambridge Companion to Kazuo Ishiguro Andrew Bennett, 2023-03-23 A lively accessible and authoritative introduction to the work of Kazuo Ishiguro one of the leading novelists of our time

National Medievalism in the Twenty-first Century Matthias D. Berger, 2023 How ideas and ideals of an imagined protean national Middle Ages have once again become a convergence point for anxieties about politics history and cultural identity in our time and why After a period of abeyance the link forged in the nineteenth century between the Middle Ages and national identity is increasingly being reclaimed with numerous groups and individuals mining an imagined medieval past to present ideas and ideals of modern nationhood Today's national medievalism asserts itself at the interface of culture and politics in literature and television programming in journalism and heritage tourism and in the way political actors of various stripes use a deep past that supposedly proves the nation's steady exceptionalism in a hectic globalised world This book traces these ongoing developments in Switzerland and Britain two countries where the medieval past has recently been much invoked in negotiations of national identity independence and Euroscepticism Through comparative analysis it explores examples of reemerging stories of national exceptionalism stories that ironically echo those of other nations The author analyses depictions of Robert the Bruce and Wilhelm Tell medievalism in the discourse surrounding Brexit as well as at the Welsh Senedd novels like Paul Kingsnorth's The Wake community based art such as the Great Tapestry of Scotland and elaborate public commemorations of Swiss victories and defeats in battle Basing his critical readings in current theories of cultural memory heritage and nationalism the author explores how the protean national Middle Ages have once again become a convergence point for anxieties about politics history and cultural identity in our time and why

Multiculturalism, Multilingualism and the Self: Literature and Culture Studies Jacek Mydla, Małgorzata Poks, Leszek Drong, 2017-07-31 This edited collection explores the conjunction of multiculturalism and the self in literature and culture studies and brings together essays by prominent researchers interested in literature and culture whose critical perspectives inform discussions of specific examples of multicultural contexts in which individuals and communities strive to maintain their identities The book is divided into two major parts the first of which comprises literary representations of multiculturalism and discussions of its impasses and impacts in fictional circumstances In turn the second part primarily focuses on culture at large and real life consequences Taken together the two complementary parts offer an illuminating and well rounded overview of representations of multiculturalism in literature and contemporary culture from a variety of critical perspectives

Contemporary British Novel Since 2000 James Acheson, 2017-01-17 Focuses on the novels published since 2000 by twenty major British novelists The Contemporary British Novel Since 2000 is divided into five parts with the first part examining the work of four particularly well known and highly regarded twenty first century writers Ian McEwan David Mitchell Hilary Mantel and Zadie Smith It is with reference to each of these novelists in turn that the terms are listed apostmodernist ahistorical and apostcolonialist fiction are introduced while in the remaining four parts other novelists are discussed and the meaning of the terms amplified From the start it is emphasised that these terms and others often mean different things to different novelists and that the complexity of their novels often obliges us to discuss their work with reference to more than one of the terms Also discusses the works of Maggie O'Farrell Sarah Hall A L Kennedy Alan Warner Ali Smith Kazuo Ishiguro Kate Atkinson Salman Rushdie Adam Foulds Sarah Waters James Robertson Mohsin Hamid Andrea Levy and Aminatta Forna Kazuo Ishiguro Kristian Shaw, Peter Sloane, 2024-03-13 A comprehensive collection of newly commissioned essays from world leading Kazuo Ishiguro scholars which offers chapters on each of the novels including the first publication on Klara and the Sun 2021 short fictions and screenplays Kazuo Ishiguro Twenty First Century Fictions offers a critical reappraisal of the 2017 Nobel Laureate while also uncovering important new thematic and stylistic insights collected by J. Jacobs Joseph Jacobs, 1898 Complicity and the Politics of Representation Cornelia Wächter, Robert Wirth, 2019-03-18 This book explores the concept of complicity with regard to the politics of representation Over the past decades complicity critique has evolved and become integral to literary and cultural studies Nonetheless the concept of complicity remains fundamentally underresearched Addressing topical and exigent concerns such as white supremacy war and displacement child abuse and mentalism this timely volume explores how producers texts consumers and critics can either intentionally or unwittingly become complicit in the creation and perpetuation of social harm and how the structures supporting such complicities can be resisted The contributors aim to raise awareness and lay the groundwork for a utopian radical unfolding that enables not just non complicity i e the refusal to be complicit but anti complicity the active and collective resistance to social harm

Kazuo Ishiguro Against World Literature Chris Holmes,2024-11-14 A study of how Kazuo Ishiguro s novels respond to and represent the world through characters that are profoundly limited in their understanding of the systems that bind them How has a writer known principally for his contained domestic novels come to represent the most dynamic elements of world literature In Kazuo Ishiguro Against World Literature Chris Holmes expands our understanding of how world literature engages with the most pressing crises of the 20th and 21st centuries by examining Ishiguro s fascination with characters who are profoundly constrained in their ability to understand global systems to which they are subject Rather than following the established pattern of so called global novels which crisscross the planet exhibiting a knowing cosmopolitanism Ishiguro s fictional engagement with the world comes principally in the form of characters who are cut off from the global systems that abuse them By examining the ways in which Ishiguro foregrounds the in process thinking of those who fail to comprehend their place in the flow of politics culture and ideas Holmes positions Ishiguro as the great chronicler of everyday lives and as such prepares a mode of reading world literature that questions the assumptions for how we live and think with others when each of us is deeply limited

Isles Kazuo Ishiguro's Gestural Poetics Peter Sloane, 2021-05-06 Through readings of Ishiguro's repurposing of key elements of realism and modernism his interest in childhood imagination and sketching interrogation of aesthetics and ethics his fascination with architecture and the absent home and his expressionist use of imaginary space and place Kazuo Ishiguro's Gestural Poetics examines the manner in which Ishiguro's fictions approach but never quite reveal the ineffable inexpressible essence of his narrators emotionally fraught worlds Reformulating Martin Heidegger's suggestion that the essence of world can only be indicated as the essence of world can only be gestured towards Sloane argues that while Ishiguro's novels and short stories are profoundly sensitive to the limitations of literary form their narrators are to varying degrees equally keenly attuned to the failures of language itself In order to communicate something of the emotional worlds of characters adrift in various uncertainties while also commenting on the expressive possibilities of fiction and the mimetic arts more widely Ishiguro appropriates a range of metaphors which enable both author and character to gesture towards the undisclosable essences of fiction and being

White before whiteness in the late Middle Ages Wan-Chuan Kao, 2024-01-09 This groundbreaking book analyses premodern whiteness as operations of fragility precarity and racialicity across bodily and nonsomatic figurations It argues that while whiteness participates in the history of racialisation in the late medieval West it does not denote skin tone alone The before of whiteness presupposing essence and teleology is less a retro futuristic temporisation one that simultaneously looks backward and faces forward than a discursive figuration of how white becomes whiteness Fragility delineates the limits of ruling ideologies in performances of mourning as self defence against perceived threats to subjectivity and desire precarity registers the ruptures within normative values by foregrounding the unmarked vulnerability of the body politic and the violence of cultural aestheticisation and racialicity attends to the politics of recognition and the technologies of enfleshment at the systemic edge of life and nonlife

Brexlit Kristian Shaw, 2021-07-29 Britain's vote to leave the European Union in the summer of 2016 came as a shock to many observers But writers had long been exploring anxieties and fractures in British society from Euroscepticism to immigration to devolution to post truth narratives that came to the fore in the Brexit campaign and its aftermath Reading these tensions back into contemporary British writing Kristian Shaw coins the term Brexlit to deliver the first in depth study of how writers engaged with these issues before and after the referendum result Examining the work of over a hundred British authors including Julian Barnes Jonathan Coe Kazuo Ishiguro and Ali Smith as well as popular fiction by Andrew Marr and Stanley Johnson Brexlit explores how a new and urgent genre of post Brexit fiction is beginning to emerge
