Write Yourself In Eric Tipler, 2024-06-11 Write authentic memorable college essays that will help you get into the right school for you with this guidebook from a veteran college admissions expert Every spring over one million high school juniors embark on an annual rite of passage applying to college And with college admission rates at an all time low getting into a competitive school is now tougher than ever At the top schools a strong transcript and great test scores will get your application noticed but it s your essays and the personal story that they highlight that will get you admitted But often students don t know where to start Teens fret over topics because they don t know what college admissions officers are looking for They bend over backwards to write what they think colleges want to read instead of telling their authentic story which is what admissions officers actually want in a way that will resonate with their readers They also struggle because college essays which are narrative first person and introspective require a different set of skills from academic expository writing they ve been learning for years in the classroom Seasoned college admissions expert and educator Eric Tipler has seen this firsthand Teens and their parents spend countless anxiety filled hours crafting and refining essays that are often lackluster In Write Yourself In Tipler meets students where they are and provides comprehensive actionable advice in a warm and conversational tone He demonstrates how to craft a winning essay one that is authentic vulnerable and demonstrative of qualities like personal growth and emotional maturity Instead of formulas Write Yourself In gives students step by step processes for brainstorming outlining writing and revising essays It encourages them to seek out feedback at key points in the process something Tipler has found to be vital to helping students produce their best writing Further the book includes sidebars that teach essential components of good storytelling a secret weapon in the admissions process In addition to the admissions essay Write Yourself In also covers the most common supplemental essays on topics like community diversity openness to others viewpoints and why their school is a good fit for the student scholarship essays as well as scholarship essays Tipler includes sections that address current topics like the widespread use of ChatGPT and the discussion of race in the admissions essay a facet of the student s application that will have newfound importance given the Supreme Court decision on affirmative action Written with both the parent and teen in mind Write Yourself In is the go to handbook for writing a great college essay

Becoming Great Universities Richard J. Light,Allison Jegla,2024-08-06 Becoming Great Universities arose from co author Richard J Light s visits over the past twenty years to more than 250 campuses and his conversations with presidents administrators faculty and students Light and co author Allison Jegla have distilled the topics arising from these conversations into the ten chapters that frame their book with emphasis on the prospect of promoting a culture of continuous innovation for creating value for students This book is precisely about the university s teaching and student development mission not research The overwhelming evidence in the higher education literature asserts that it is on the teaching and education side that our colleges and universities are most challenged and therefore that is where the greatest improvements can and must be made Light and Jegla s message to higher education leaders is that improving performance depends to a great extent on their purposeful development of the institution s culture as a community and on leveraging this culture through the encouragement of constructive working relationships across all sectors of campus including administration staff faculty and students Their chapters cover the following topics how to help students from under resourced backgrounds how to encourage students to invest their time and talents beneficially how to attract students from non traditional backgrounds to campus how to improve learning outcomes through innovative teaching how to assess learning how to productively elicit student opinions ideas and advice how to facilitate constructive interaction among students from differing backgrounds how to build opportunities for lifelong learning and how to inspire students to think globally Throughout their book Light and Jegla emphasize practical lessons for promoting measures of innovation on each front With a broad spectrum of institutions in mind the authors present dozens of no cost or low cost actionable initiatives that faculty university leaders and even students can implement always in the spirit of working toward their campus s sustained improvement over time

Another Throat Ryan Sharp, 2024-10-25 The early twenty first century has seen a sharp rise in Black US poets employing the mask of persona often including and interrogating archival materials as they do so While some have observed this rise and noted its connection to historical figures Ryan Sharp explores it more deeply as a project based historical and poetic practice Sharp examines its sustained use of historical persona and capacity for conjuring Black speakers as a countermeasure against the archival silencing and misrepresentation of Black voices and histories a tactic he theorizes as poetic fabulation through the poetry of Elizabeth Alexander Cornelius Eady Adrian Matejka Patricia Smith Natasha Trethewey and Frank X Walker This poetic practice is not only about looking back but about critically and creatively re imagining the past to expand the possibilities for Black presents and futures Through his argument Sharp demonstrates how the unique aesthetic and rhetorical license afforded to poetry along with the interiority of persona empowers such historically minded projects to be concurrently invested in the curation of Black narratives and identities
