We support the army and the air force, but we don't support the Navy. We're really interested in civil engineering, mathematics, and other things, people in other sciences, in agriculture, in medicine." The "Volunteer" movement is small, but the age of 18 has helped leaders to take action in the "Volunteer" effort. The public reaction to the Council's involvement in the Gulf War brought about a number of people who are nonprofessionals who are not in the military service. And the movement is growing. "We're going to have more and more people," says the man.
