The Bonds Of Love Revisited:

The Bonds of Love, Revisited Eyal Rozmarin, 2016-03-17 Jessica Benjamin is one of the most important and influential psychoanalysts of the last 4 decades. She is one of the founders of relational psychoanalysis, a movement that has by now expanded over the globe and was also one of the first to introduce feminism and gender studies into psychoanalytic thought. Jessica Benjamin is the most known and quoted representative of these two movements within world psychoanalysis and beyond in philosophy, gender women's studies and cultural studies department everywhere. The publication of her book Bonds of Love 1989 was nothing short of a revolution. Psychoanalysis was until then a field immune to a changing world, to the unrest of the 60s, to the feminist and queer liberation movements, to the new philosophies of the Frankfurt School in Germany and post structuralism in France. The book was a game changer. It called psychoanalysis to doubt its most basic premises on the human condition. It read Freud through a feminist framework and through Hegel, forever tipping our perspective on infancy, gender and the interplay of power and dependence that drives human relationships from the start. This volume marks the 25th anniversary of Benjamin's work. Pulling together 15 international scholars, it looks back on the book's first impact as well as on its continued relevance to psychoanalysis and gender studies today. Chapters offer theoretical deliberations and elaborations of the book's original themes as well as reflecting on it from more intimate angles as a source of personal and professional inspiration for feminists and clinicians around the world. This book was originally published as a special issue of Studies in Gender and Sexuality.

Bevilacqua, Mariano Longo, Michael Hviid Jacobsen, 2024-11-27 Love and Sexuality in Social Theory considers the role that love and sexuality play in private and public life Drawing on both classical and contemporary social theory this book presents both theoretical and empirical studies of love and sexuality as social factors from the earliest reconstructions of modern emotional life to the most recent analyses of liquid love With attention to the consequences that passions and desires have both on morals and behaviour it departs from the analysis of society in terms of the division of labour and utilitarian mechanisms to consider how a society based on performances values human energy and emotional behaviour in a contradictory way This book therefore presents and discusses classic authors from Georg Simmel and Pitirim Sorokin to Marianne Weber and Simone De Beauvoir through the work of Erving Goffman and ending with contemporary authors such as Michel Foucault Anthony Giddens Zygmunt Bauman Ulrich Beck and Eva Illouz By presenting love as the social foundation of altruism an essential element in modern conceptions of subjectivity and a force shaping intimacy and contemporary social life this book will appeal to scholars of sociology particularly those interested in social theory and the sociology of emotions

Just Love Ann Mongoven, 2009-07-13 Once upon a time civic virtue described an ethic of political involvement for all citizens As American democracy evolved however the public and private spheres separated The latter became domesticated and disengaged from public life by an ideology based on gender and a disinterested love of neighbor Private passion was to be isolated from public reason private love from public justice But it need not be so Drawing on examples of ordinary heroes Ann Mongoven argues for a transformed civic virtue that articulates just love passionate care for fellow citizens as such By connecting theory to practice Mongoven dramatizes the challenges raised through tangible political examples and lets ordinary heroes suggest the path toward civic renewal

Look Back in Anger Norgard Klages, 1995 Using a feminist psychoanalytical approach including Nancy Chodorow and Jessica Benjamin s theories on child development this work investigates the nature of mother child and father child relationships in autobiographical writings of the last two decades It also investigates how family structures are influenced by the impact of the Holocaust and the discourse of mourning

Self and Nonself Carlos López-Larrea, 2012-03-07 In 1960 Sir Frank Macfarlane Burnet received the Noble Prize in Physiology and Medicine He titled his Nobel Lecture Immunological Recognition of Self emphasizing the central argument of immunological tolerance in How does the vertebrate organism recognize self from nonself in this the immunological sense and how did the capacity evolve The concept of self is linked to the concept of biological self identity All organisms from bacteria to higher animals possess recognition systems to defend themselves from nonself Even in the context of the limited number of metazoan phyla that have been studied in detail we can now describe many of the alternative mechanism of immune recognition that have emerged at varying points in phylogeny Two different arms the innate and adaptive immune system have emerged at different moments in evolution and they are conceptually different The ultimate goals of immune biology include reconstructing the molecular networks underlying immune processes
