Carr, 2011-10-12 In The Formation of the Hebrew Bible David Carr rethinks both the methods and historical orientation points for research into the growth of the Hebrew Bible into its present form Building on his prior work Writing on the Tablet of the Heart Oxford 2005 he explores both the possibilities and limits of reconstruction of pre stages of the Bible The method he advocates is a methodologically modest investigation of those pre stages utilizing criteria and models derived from his survey of documented examples of textual revision in the Ancient Near East The result is a new picture of the formation of the Hebrew Bible with insights on the initial emergence of Hebrew literary textuality the development of the first Hexateuch and the final formation of the Hebrew Bible Where some have advocated dating the bulk of the Hebrew Bible in a single period whether relatively early Neo Assyrian or late Persian or Hellenistic Carr uncovers specific evidence that the Hebrew Bible contains texts dating across Israelite history even the early pre exilic period 10th 9th centuries He traces the impact of Neo Assyrian imperialism on eighth and seventh century Israelite textuality He uses studies of collective trauma to identify marks of the reshaping and collection of traditions in response to the destruction of Jerusalem and Babylonian exile He develops a picture of varied Priestly reshaping of narrative and prophetic traditions in the Second Temple period including the move toward eschatological and apocalyptic themes and genres And he uses manuscript evidence from Qumran and the Septuagint to find clues to the final literary shaping of the proto Masoretic text likely under the Hasmonean monarchy Edom, Israel's Brother and Antagonist Bert Dicou, 1994-02-01 The subject of the present book is the theme of Edom in the Old Testament In the four long oracles against Edom Isa 34 Jer 49 7 22 Ezek 35 Obadiah this nation serves as Israel's antagonist and the representative of the enemy nations Edom also appears in the book of Genesis Jacob's brother Esau is the patriarch of the Edomites and Esau himself is called Edom as well Gen 25 36 Although there is no such negative estimation of Edom as in the prophecies here too Edom represents the nations and serves as Israel's opponent This study discusses the origin and development of Edom's exceptional role It extensively analyses the connections between Obadiah the only one of the four major oracles in which like in Genesis Edom is called Israel's brother the other oracles and Genesis It sketches the literary history of these texts and discusses the possible historical background of the conceptions they share Can the similarities in Edom's role be explained by assuming the same historical background for the two sets of texts If so why do the major oracles against Edom present an extremely negative and the Jacob Esau stories a relatively positive picture of Edom The Enemy You Fear Fears You John Adebola, 2025-10-01 Inspired by divine revelation this book equips believers to recognize and overcome the devil's influence in their lives families and society What sets it apart from other spiritual warfare books including many bestsellers is its unique and powerful exposition of a single often overlooked verse Psalm 8 2 Instead of leaning on the familiar framework of Ephesians 6 where Apostle Paul discusses the armor of God this book draws practical eye opening lessons from the lives of Jacob Joseph Gideon Samson David Jesus and others It not only exposes the devil s methods of operation and his warfare against both believers and unbelievers it also delivers a rare insight a clear explanation of why the devil often succeeds At the heart of this revelation is a simple yet profound truth God has ordained power in the mouths of his people Believers spoken words carry divine authority an effortless weapon to silence the enemy and destroy his works This is more than a guide to spiritual warfare It is a call to walk in the victory that is already in your mouth

Cruz, 2017-12-19 As a historian of a different making Francisco seeks to capture the heart of his past and that of spirituality through lifetime memories from boyhood days in Shanghai and Macau to day dreams as a young man in Hong Kong from new family life in San Francisco as a naturalized citizen to rebirth of mind through a number of pilgrimages to Fatima Medjugorje and Moscow with his extended family Together with his spiritual partner and second wife of 30 years Terry he witnessed the crowning of the Blessed Virgin Mary at the Red Square in Moscow for the 75th Anniversary of the Fatima Apparition in Portugal As just two amongst one thousand plus of God s children from bishops to priests theologians brothers sisters youths and other laypersons that were there that day they joined together at the 1992 World Youth Congress in Moscow to share a very special message with the world about the need for change It was a message of WARNING as prophesized by the Blessed Virgin the Mother of God on Sunday the 13th of May in the year 1917 But more importantly it was also a call for love and spiritual renewal There has been no phenomenon like it ever before recorded but the miracle of the sun in Fatima continues to shine bright even at the darkest of times and is the hope behind this book Many of history's greatest thinkers have wrestled with the question of belief and non belief in God through their literary circles and often simply by the way they have lived their lives 1 Is there a God and 2 Why would He care about me Those are profound and universal questions considered in the first two books of this family story and revisited here in this third encounter in trilogy Though it might seem unlikely that any new arguments can be raised from either side between Science and Theology on Christendom ultimately each reader needs to ask through his or her own voice of Faith this question of GOD and His existence It is at that spiritual juncture of question and answer that mankind may decide which path to follow As seminarian students Terry and Francis took three years of theology at St Patrick Seminary University in Menlo Park under the Diaconate Formation Program with the hopes of Francisco becoming a deacon with the Class of 2006 Though God had other plans for Francisco both husband and wife humbly served at the Cathedral of St Mary of the Assumption in San Francisco and at St Bruno Church of the San Francisco Archdiocese for three decades This soulful dialogue is for anyone seeking out answers about Judeo Christian ethics and the belief that GOD reveals all in time
