Racist Love Leslie Bow, 2021-12-13 In Racist Love Leslie Bow traces the ways in which Asian Americans become objects of anxiety and desire Conceptualizing these feelings as racist love she explores how race is abstracted and then projected onto Asianized objects Bow shows how anthropomorphic objects and images such as cartoon animals in children's books home decor and cute tchotchkes contemporary visual art and artificially intelligent robots function as repositories of seemingly positive feelings and attachment to Asianness At the same time Bow demonstrates that these Asianized proxies reveal how fetishistic attraction and pleasure serve as a source of anti Asian bias and violence By outlining how attraction to popular representations of Asianness cloaks racial resentment and fears of globalization Bow provides a new means of understanding the ambivalence surrounding Asians in the United States while offering a theory of the psychological affective and symbolic dynamics of racist love in contemporary America

Comedy, Theology, and Ethics Jacob D. Myers,Nicole Graham,2025-09-04 Bringing together the distinct but connected disciplines of theology and ethics Stand up Comedy Theology and Ethics adds to the growing field of humor and religion Beginning by re considering what we know about jokes and laughter the authors propose that more attention needs to be paid to the quasi sacramental magical quality of jokes and the ways laughter can shift the affective states of an audience They then turn their attention to key issues and debates within stand up comedy First is the comical legitimacy or illegitimacy of comedians who employ humor ambiguously so that we are not sure at who or what they are punching Second is the phenomenon of canceling comedians for their behavior off stage Third is the sociopolitical possibilities of stand up Ultimately the authors argue that there is theological religious and ethical significance to contemporary stand up comedy
