Fisher, 2025-04-24 Emotional Harmony is about learning how to choose one's attitude not simply as a conscious behavioral choice but as a hardwired neurological response to any given set of circumstances Life is messy and many people particularly those with addiction and codependency problems were never given the tools to negotiate that messiness Since Kent Fisher and Michelle Rappaport opened their therapeutic practice almost twenty years ago they have seen thousands of people who have spent their whole lives emotionally deregulated responding to life with either aggression or passivity Their job is to teach these people how to live within the emotional regulated space of choice and repair Drawing on their private practice reconstruction experiences and the research of Patrick Carnes Dan Siegel Sharon Stanley and others Kent and Michelle have developed a process of repair and renegotiation of the past and a harmonious way to respond to the present With the SomEx model change happens through 5 simple actions that evolve through the therapeutic relationship For therapist and client alike Emotional Harmony is the first book to merge the science of somatic therapies with the real world applications of experiential healing By integrating the left brain's meaning making and rationalization of our life experience with the right hemisphere's somatic processing of trauma and its consequences we move from that messy life story into the deep repair that is emotional harmony

Beating Burnout in Congregations Lynne M. Baab, 2003-08-01 I can only shake my head in the face of the irony that all too often the very place where we look for life and health the very place where we expect to nurture and deepen a loving relationship with God can cause so many to experience the exact opposite So remarks author Lynne Baab in this timely and discerning examination of burnout in congregations What is burnout What causes congregation volunteers to burn out Why is unpaid service sometimes life giving and other times just another frantic commitment How can congregations become oases of peace and nurture while still carrying out their mission and ministry How can we recognize holy moments in the presence of God if we are moving so fast that life passes by us in a blur How can leaders make congregations healthy places to serve After reflecting on these important questions and dozens of interviews with congregation volunteers Baab suggests We must not fear burnout instead we need to do a better job coming alongside people as they experience burnout and help them figure out what they are learning
