The Blank Slate:

The Blank Slate Steven Pinker, 2003-08-26 A brilliant inquiry into the origins of human nature from the author of Rationality The Better Angels of Our Nature and Enlightenment Now Sweeping erudite sharply argued and fun to read also highly persuasive Time Finalist for the Pulitzer Prize Updated with a new afterword One of the world's leading experts on language and the mind explores the idea of human nature and its moral emotional and political colorings With characteristic wit lucidity and insight Pinker argues that the dogma that the mind has no innate traits a doctrine held by many intellectuals during the past century denies our common humanity and our individual preferences replaces objective analyses of social problems with feel good slogans and distorts our understanding of politics violence parenting and the arts Injecting calm and rationality into debates that are notorious for ax grinding and mud slinging Pinker shows the importance of an honest acknowledgment of human nature based on science and common sense The Blank Slate Steven Pinker, 2005 Blank Slate Lia McIntosh, Jasmine Smothers, Rodney Thomas Smothers, 2019-03-19 The church must get unstuck from its current context in order to address the context of younger generations otherwise it will not be relevant to younger people and will die with the older generations As an example a letter from the Younger Generations to Baby Boomers Dear Baby Boomers Thank you for all you've done but I don't want your church I want you our relationship our engagement but not your church structure and outdated assumptions Signed The Younger Generations Blank Slate guides leaders to envision and actually design the future church The authors start by describing each generational group currently living in the US helping readers understand the varied context of people in every age group Next they explore five innovative secular organizations drawing sharp lessons for the church The last section includes a seven step process for ministry leaders to engage current and upcoming generations This book with questions for individual and group reflection in each chapter is a powerful planning tool for ministry teams In a time when so many of us want a blueprint for how to do ministry in a rapidly changing world McIntosh Smothers and Smothers hand us a pencil and tell us to draw it ourselves God has entrusted us to be the designers and visionaries for a new way Blank Slate is the guide that you and your team need to design a new future together Jacob Armstrong pastor Providence Church Mt Juliet TN The Blank Slate Steven Pinker, 2002-10-01 Banishes the fears that a biological understanding of human nature threatens humane values The Blank Slate Steven Pinker, 2002 What is the truth about human nature Are we each born a blank slate upon which experience is written Steven Pinker here argues that our usual explanations of human behaviour stated most clearly in the human sciences of psychology ethics and politics tend to deny what is now undeniable the role of an inherited human nature Differences in personality or achievement whether seen among races ethnic groups sexes or individuals are routinely explained away as due not to differences in innate constitution but differences in experience This work argues otherwise The Blank Slate Steven Pinker, 2002 Web Application Design Patterns Pawan Vora, 2009-03-12 Ever notice that in spite of their pervasiveness designing web applications is still challenging While their benefits motivate their creation there are no well established guidelines for design This often results in inconsistent behaviors and appearances even among web applications created by the same company Design patterns for web applications similar in concept to those for web sites and software design offer an effective solution In Web Application Design Patterns Pawan Vora documents design patterns for web applications by not only identifying design solutions for user interaction problems but also by examining the rationale for their effectiveness and by presenting how they should be applied Design interfaces faster with a better rationale for the solutions you choose Learn from over more than 100 patterns with extensive annotation on use and extension Take a short cut into understanding the industry with more than 500 full color screenshots

Power, Discrimination, and Privilege in Individuals and Institutions Sonya Faber,Monnica T. Williams,Matthew D. Skinta,Bia Labate,2024-04-01 Individuals and systems are rife with prejudices leading to discrimination and inequities Examples of this include rejection of stigmatized groups e g Black Americans Indigenous people in Canada Roma peoples in Europe structural racism e g inequitable distribution of resources for public schools disenfranchisement of women employees e g the glass ceiling barriers to higher education e.g. biased admissions requirements, heterosexism, economic oppression and colonization. When we take a closer look, we find the core of the problem is imbalance in the distribution of power and its misuse.

Key Contested Issues in Criminology and Criminal Justice Anthony Walsh, 2025-09-24. This book addresses the key issues within criminology and criminal justice that are strongly contested among scholars in the field. Covering 18 different themes, the book identifies the ways in which different issues are contested and demonstrates how biopsychosocial concepts and methods can inform most of them. It is divided into four broad sections. The first section examines philosophical issues such as the value of philosophy in criminology, criminal justice, the role of ideology in our disciplines, and the issues of human nature and free will versus determinism. The second section explains the biopsychosocial perspective that provides the framework used in exploring the various issues. It explores the possibility of integrating the natural sciences with criminology, behavioral and molecular genetics, evolutionary theory, and neuroscience. It also considers issues related to child maltreatment, brain development, and the role of rationality vis-à-vis emotion in decision making. The third section examines crime causation and contains chapters on social learning versus control theories, radical critical theories, the relationship between intelligence and criminal behavior, issues of socioeconomic status (SES), poverty, and crime, and whether religion is a barrier or bridge to antisocial behavior. The final section looks at four issues in criminal justice: the police, abolition, the movement, the nature of punishment and its justifications by the criminal justice system, and issues in sentencing and the death penalty. Key Contested Issues in Criminology and Criminal Justice will be of value to students and scholars in criminology and criminal justice as well as to criminal justice practitioners.

Like Children Camille Owens, 2024-07-30. A history of childhood that revises the story of manhood, race, and human hierarchy in America. In Defense of Human Rights Ari Kohen, 2007-03-06. This book establishes a defence of human rights that can be shared by both non-religious and religious people.

Angela Carter and Western Philosophy Heidi Yeandle, 2016-12-10. This book unearths Carter's deconstruction of the male-dominated discipline of Western thought. Revealing the extensive philosophical research that underpins Carter's intertextual work, this book offers new readings of her fiction in relation to a range of philosophical texts and ideas. By re-examining Carter's writing with reference to the archived collection of her notes that has recently become available at the British Library, Angela Carter and Western Philosophy puts forward new interpretations of Carter's writing practices. With chapters examining her allusions to Plato, Hobbes, and Rousseau, Descartes, Locke, and Hume, Wittgenstein, and Ryle, as well as Kant and Schlegel, this book illuminates Carter's engagement with different areas of Western thought and discusses how this shapes her portrayal of reality, identity, civilisation, and morality. Angela Carter and Western Philosophy will be of interest to researchers, lecturers, and students working on contemporary women's writing, philosophy, and literature, and intertextual literary practices.
