The Boy From Aleppo Who Painted The War:

Boy From Aleppo Who Painted The War Sumia Sukkar, 2014-12-09 This is a powerful and deeply moving novel chronicling the Syrian War through the eyes of 14 year old Adam who has Asperger Syndrome It has been adapted into a BBC Radio 4 play I have the urge to paint and I can already see the painting in my head horrible and beautiful all at the same time A gifted artist Adam expresses the intimate sufferings of his family as they struggle through the Syrian conflict by painting with whatever materials he can find Having been dependent on his family all his life he must now cope with separation and loss including the fates of his devoted sister and brothers who are all caught up in the acceleration of events and forced to live out the consequences both of their own choices and those made for them The frightening and unpredictable changes not only for Adam s family but also for a once beautiful city and a whole nation are unfolded with compassion wit and imaginative force through a spectrum of shifting colors moods and atmospheres The novel blends political events emotional drive and Arabian tradition through a unique perspective whilst reminding the reader that what human beings really need is dignity security and love An outstanding debut novel BBC Front Row A moving first novel written with an insider s knowledge of the land and its people The Times This outstanding novel is a must read for anyone who hopes to understand the beauty and character that exists within a country torn apart by war To superimpose the experience of Asperger s upon the experience of war is Sukkar s great achievement and brings a heart breaking clarity to the suffering the strength and the hopes of ordinary people caught up in political mayhem The Booktrust

The Boy with Two Hearts Hamed Amiri, 2022-10-13 You know I honestly believe he has two hearts A heart that fails him of course But another that keeps him going a heart that won t be beaten A story of hope from Afghanistan to Wales Herat Afghanistan 2000 A young mother makes a speech demanding freedom for Afghan women angering local Taliban leaders who issue a warrant for her execution With no choice but to run the Amiri family embark on a long and terrifying journey out of Afghanistan and across Europe with the UK as their ultimate goal Thrown into an unfamiliar world of fake passports and untrustworthy handlers the Amiris must learn how to live with nothing and avoid capture at all costs But with their eldest son Hussein s life threatening heart condition growing steadily worse the journey soon becomes a race against time Will they beat the odds and reach the UK in time for Hussein to receive the surgery he so badly needs The Boy with Two Hearts is the story of a family in danger and a love letter to the NHS This extraordinary true story reveals the courage and humanity behind each refugee story showing that hope and a sense of home can be found in the most unlikely places This edition was published to coincide with the production at the National Theatre in London in October 2022

Rulers of Literary Playgrounds Justyna Deszcz-Tryhubczak, Irena Kalla, 2020-10-29 Rulers of Literary Playgrounds Politics of Intergenerational Play in Children s Literature offers multifaceted reflection on interdependences between children and adults as they engage in play in literary texts and in real life This volume brings together international children s literature scholars who each look at children s texts as key vehicles of intergenerational play reflecting ideologies of childhood and as objects with which children and adults interact physically emotionally and cognitively Each chapter applies a distinct theoretical approach to selected children s texts including individual and social play constructive play or play deprivation This collection of essays constitutes a timely voice in the current discussion about the importance of children s play and adults contribution to it vis vis the increasing limitations of opportunities for children s playful time in contemporary societies

Mass Atrocities, the Responsibility to Protect and the Future of Human Rights Simon Adams, 2021-01-26 This book ambitiously weaves together history and politics to explain all of the major situations where mass atrocities have occurred or been prevented over the 15 years since the Responsibility to Protect (R2P) was adopted at the 2005 UN World Summit. The author provides a history of human rights mass atrocities and the principle of the R2P from the perspective of someone whose day job has been to work with the UN Security Council, various governments and civil society to help ensure the international community does not fail those who face the threat of genocide, war crimes and crimes against humanity today. It examines the implementation of the controversial principle of R2P since 2011 and how we end the politics of impunity, indifference and inaction once and for all. Using case studies from Iraq, Syria, Myanmar and Libya, the book offers a unique perspective regarding how we make never again a living principle rather than a cliché and how we end the politics of impunity, indifference and inaction once and for all. It will be of especial interest to scholars, students and policymakers working in the fields of international politics or concerned about human rights atrocities, the United Nations and international justice in the world today.

Attacks on the Press Committee to Protect Journalists (CPJ), 2013-02-04 The world's most comprehensive guide to international press freedom. From Aleppo to Zacatecas, Beijing to Brasília, the past decade has seen a sharp rise in the number of journalist imprisonments, assassinations and disappearances worldwide. Caught between warlords and religious extremists, corrupt police and drug cartels and hemmed in by increasingly oppressive censorship laws, journalists have never been at such peril nor asked to pay such a high price for the ethical practice of their profession. Begun as a simple typewritten list in 1986, Attacks on the Press has grown to become the definitive annual assessment of press freedoms globally. Compiled by the Committee to Protect Journalists, it provides up to the minute analyses of media conditions, press freedom violations and emerging threats to journalists in every corner of the world. In this 2013 edition, you will find front-line reports and analytical essays by CPJ experts covering an array of topics of critical importance to journalists, including journalist casualties at the front lines of conflicts in Syria, Nigeria, Somalia, Afghanistan and other global hot spots; the curtailment of Internet freedoms across Southeast Asia with an emphasis on the draconian measures now in place in Vietnam, Malaysia and Thailand; the status of investigations into the disappearances of 35 journalists worldwide and why more than half of those disappeared went missing in Mexico and Russia; the rise in journalist imprisonments globally; the spate of new anti-terrorism laws that made it possible and the example set by the U S government in the wake of 9 11 The state of journalistic freedoms in Iran since the Green Movement and the practice of summary imprisonment of Iranian journalists How the rise of mobile Internet technology and social media has engendered new dangers for journalists from both insurgent groups and the governments they are fighting In addition to being an invaluable source of timely information and guidance for media professionals Attacks on the Press gives voice to journalists globally providing them with a platform for direct advocacy with governments and a seat in discussions at the UN OAS EU AU and other official bodies Michelin Green Guide Germany
