The Burden Of Memory:

Poems Bernard Miall, 1899 Communities of Memory William James Booth, 2018-07-05 Memory has fueled merciless violent strife and it has been at the core of reconciliation and reconstruction It has been used to justify great crimes and yet it is central to the pursuit of justice In these and more everyday ways we live surrounded by memory individual and social in our habits our names the places where we live street names libraries archives and our citizenship institutions and laws Still we wonder what to make of memory and its gifts though sometimes we are hardly even certain that they are gifts Of the many chambers in this vast palace I mean to ask particularly after the place of memory in politics in the identity of political communities and in their practices of doing justice from the Preface W James Booth seeks to understand the place of memory in the identity ethics and practices of justice of political communities Identity is he believes a particular kind of continuity across time one central to the possibility of agency and responsibility and memory plays a central role in grounding that continuity Memory identity takes two forms a habitlike form the deep presence of the past that is part of a life led in common and a more fragile vulnerable form in which memory struggles to preserve identity through time notably in bearing witness a form of memory work deeply bound up with the identity of political communities Booth argues that memory holds a defining place in determining how justice is administered Memory is tied to the very possibility of an ethical community one responsible for its own past able to make commitments for the future and driven to seek justice Underneath and motivating the politics of memory understood as contests over the writing of history over memorials museums and canons he writes there lies an intertwining

The Construction of Memory in Interwar France Daniel J. Sherman, 1999 The contrast between battlefield and home front soldier and civilian was the basis for memory and collective gratitude Postwar commemoration however also grew directly out of the long and agonized search for the remains of hundreds of thousands of missing soldiers and the sometimes contentious debates over where to bury them For this reason the local monument with its inscribed list of names and its functional resemblance to tombstones emerged as the focal point of commemorative practice Sherman traces every step in the process of monument building as he analyzes commemoration s competing goals to pay tribute to the dead to console the bereaved and to incorporate mourners individual memories into a larger political discourse Pub description

The Country of Memory Hue-Tam Ho Tai,2001-10 Hue Tam Ho Tai s masterful collection of essays that explore how the past is being remade in contemporary Vietnam constitutes a welcome addition to the study of the larger problem of engineering memory especially in political cultures where the identity of the nation state is in a considerable state of flux This book also suggests that the commemorative fever that is sweeping Vietnam is about more than Vietnam s history It also has a great deal to do with the problems premodern cultures presented to those who promoted the creation of contemporary states In this regard both Vietnam and this book offer all scholars of nationalism and remembering in the West a fascinating perspective on their own nations John Bodnar Chancellors Professor of History at Indiana University from the Foreword generation may weigh on children and grandchildren contain much of interest Yet if we unpack the ghostly the eerie and the spectral in transgenerational hauntings if we allow for the suffering or the disturbed to forge social links such contacts may enable breaking into reconnections and afterlives One only needs to think of the near epidemic of rape in South Africa to sense violent hypermasculinity erupting as madness mediated by a history of brutal racialised reduction But it is also important to move beyond the brutalities and madness to consider the individual and collective refigurations surfacing out of layers of catastrophe Nancy Rose Hunt Conference Keynote Address Beyond Trauma Notes on a Word a Frame and a Diagnostic Category Historical Trauma and Memory Living with the Haunting Power of the Past is based on essays presented at a conference with the same name which was held in Kigali Rwanda in April 2019 The book gives readers front row seats as an interdisciplinary group of scholars from law psychology history the arts anthropology theology and philosophy address the complex matrix of the emotional legacies of historical trauma cultural legacies people interacting with their social and political environment and the interplay of these factors in different post conflict societies The Ravine of Memory Shay A. Pilnik, 2025-03-15 The Nazis and their collaborators buried over 100 000 victims at Babyn Yar a ravine in modern day Ukraine Most of the individuals were Jewish making this area one of the most infamous mass murder sites in history The Ravine of Memory starts when the travesty ends telling the story of the ravine s memory and forgetting in Soviet literature and culture in Russian as well as in Yiddish This book challenges the prevailing binary conceptions of Babyn Yar as exclusively a Holocaust or a Great Patriotic War story It is neither the exclusive product of Soviet censorship nor individual dissidents Babyn Yar is more than a physical space where untold horrors took place Symbolically it is the ultimate meeting point of so many disparate threads of Soviet culture the state and the artist the Jew and the non Jew and the Holocaust and the Great Patriotic War Ultimately it is a place that reveals the frailty and courage of those who bear witness to atrocity
