Subcommittee on Communications, Technology, and the Internet, 2011 Children Today, 1996 Home and Work Christena E. Nippert-Eng, 2008-07-22 Do you put family photos on your desk at work Are your home and work keys on the same chain Do you keep one all purpose calendar for listing home and work events Do you have separate telephone books for colleagues and friends In Home and Work Christena Nippert Eng examines the intricacies and implications of how we draw the line between home and work Arguing that relationships between the two realms range from those that are highly integrating to those that are highly segmenting Nippert Eng examines the ways people sculpt the boundaries between home and work With remarkable sensitivity to the symbolic value of objects and actions Nippert Eng explores the meaning of clothing wallets lunches and vacations and the places and ways in which we engage our family friends and co workers Commuting habits are also revealing showing how we make the transition between home and work selves though ritualized behavior like hellos and goodbyes the consumption of food the way we dress our choices of routes to and from work and our listening working and sleeping habits during these journeys The ways each of us manages time space and people not only reflect but reinforce lives that are more integrating or segmenting at any given time In clarifying what we take for granted this book will leave you thinking in different ways about your life and work [Rebecca's Journal.
