Racist Regimes, Forced Labour and Death Colin Clarke, 2024-07-05 This book compares the systems of exploitative race relations associated with two racist regimes slavery in the British colonial Caribbean and forced labour in the Holocaust in Germany and the Nazi occupied lands in Europe Although each system was introduced by expansionist European powers through racist enslavement transportation dehumanisation and the destruction of human life the construction and operation of sugar plantations by African and Creole slave labour for the export of tropical products in the period 1650 to 1838 was different from the mass murder of Jewish and Gypsy civilians with the intention of creating a forced labour regime and colonial style ethnic cleansing during the Second World War Though differentiated in time and place the four principal common denominators that make feasible the detailed comparison of British Caribbean slavery and the Holocaust in Europe are racism colonialism occupation slavery forced labour and death Juxtaposition of these two companion studies will reveal comparisons and contrasts previously unexplored in the field of race relations under colonialism and the Holocaust The book will be of interest to scholars and students of the social sciences and history particularly those with an engagement with slavery and forced labour the sociology of race and racism and Holocaust studies

Transitional Justice and the Historical Abuses of Church and State James Gallen, 2023-03-30 In this book James Gallen provides an in depth evaluation of the responses of Western States and churches to their historical abuses from a transitional justice perspective Using a comparative lens this book examines the application of transitional justice to address and redress the past in Ireland Australia Canada the United States and United Kingdom It evaluates the use of public inquiries and truth commissions litigation reparations apologies and reconciliation in each context to address these abuses Significantly this novel analysis considers how power and public emotions influence and often impede transitional justice s ability to address historical structural injustices In addressing historical abuses power fails to be redistributed and national and religious myths are not reconsidered leading Gallen to conclude that the existing transitional justice efforts of states and churches remain an unrepentant form of justice This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core Crime Fiction in the Caribbean Lucy Evans, 2024-09-18 Crime Fiction in the Caribbean Reframing Crime and Justice is the first academic book to focus on crime fiction by anglophone Caribbean writers It explores how contemporary writers experiment with the crime genre in order to convey contextualize and comment on crime and justice in Caribbean countries Lucy Evans reads crime fiction as a versatile mode of writing that can be politically engaged and that in a Caribbean context can expose power structures embedded in the region s multi layered history of colonial conquest genocide of Indigenous populations plantation agriculture transatlantic slavery and indentured labour This book covers fiction set in Trinidad and Tobago Jamaica Guyana Barbados Grenada and Haiti discussing novels by Elizabeth Nunez Jacob Ross Marlon James Harischandra Khemraj Esther Figueroa Edwidge Danticat Cherie Jones and several others Evans considers how fiction by anglophone Caribbean writers not only reflects upon the social realities of crime and crime control in the Caribbean but also at times contests or complicates scholarly popular and legal perspectives She argues that through their engagement with the crime genre these writers raise pressing questions about what constitutes crime and justice in a Caribbean context and about accountability Looking beyond the traditional focus of crime fiction and criminology on individual acts of wrongdoing their fiction highlights systemic social harms rooted in the region s colonial past Reading crime fiction through the lens of criminological research

Crime Fiction in the Caribbean brings the study of literary writing into scholarly debate on crime in the Caribbean At the same time it extends the global turn in crime fiction studies focusing on a region that has been sidelined even in studies which examine the genre's international dimensions Perspectives on the right to development Carol C Ngang, Serges Djouyou Kamga, Vusi Gumede, 2018-01-01 The last couple of decades has not only witnessed an increased convergence between human rights and development but also a significant shift towards rights based approaches to development including especially responsiveness to the fact that development in itself is a human right guaranteed to be enjoyed by all peoples This edited volume of peer reviewed papers constitutes the first product resulting from the annual international conference series on the right to development organised by the Centre for Human Rights University of Pretoria and the Thabo Mbeki African Leadership Institute at the University of South Africa It explores the complex nature of the right to development from a diversified perspective including from a conceptual thematic country and regional points of view Conceived with the purpose to overshadow dominant economic growth approaches to development the perspectives on the right to development articulated in this publication seek to locate the developmentalist discourse within the framework of accountability and people centred development programming necessitating appropriate policy formulation to ensure the constant improvement in human well being The book is written with the aim to reach out to researchers academics practitioners and policy makers who desire an in depth understanding of the right to development as it applies universally

Critical Perspectives on Culture and Globalisation Njogu, Kimani, Adem, Seifudein, 2017-08-08 In 1996 President Nelson Mandela described Professor Ali A Mazrui 1933 2014 as an outstanding educationist and freedom fighter In 2002 the former UN Secretary General Kofi Annan referred to Professor Mazrui as Africa's gift to the world Author of more than 35 books and hundreds of articles Professor Mazrui was an African scholar who had treated with uncommon verve and flair a wide range of themes that included globalization the triple heritage peace and social justice This volume engages with some of those themes that excited his mind for over six decades The multidisciplinary essays seek to underline the highlights of Mazrui's intellectual journey and attest to the fact that he was public intellectual par excellence Indeed in 2005 he was named one of the top 100 public intellectuals in the world This book is a product of a symposium held from 15 to 17 July 2016 in Nairobi Kenya The symposium was jointly organized by the Twaweza Communications Nairobi Kenya and the Institute of Global Cultural Studies State University of New York at Binghamton which Ali Mazrui created and presided over as the Albert Schweitzer Professor in the Humanities from 1991 to 2014 Britain's History and Memory of Transatlantic

Slavery Katie Donington, Ryan Hanley, Jessica Moody, 2016 This collection brings together local case studies of Britain's history and memory of transatlantic slavery and abolition including the role of individuals and families regional identity narratives sites of memory and forgetting and the financial architectural and social legacies of slave ownership Cultural Rights and Wrongs in Transitional Justice Colin Luoma, 2025-09-09 Cultural Rights and Wrongs in Transitional Justice provides the first in depth analysis of culture and cultural rights in the field of transitional justice. It takes stock of the role of cultural rights with respect to the field's historical marginalization of culture. Cultural rights remain a significant blind spot in the relevant research one that has yet to be consistently incorporated into transitional justice practice or considered in academic theory. This book traces the marginalization of cultural rights to how the transitional justice field originated and evolved. Certain biases, assumptions and preoccupations were cemented in a dominant model of justice in times of transition especially as it relates to the concepts of transition justice and violence. Conventional notions have greatly restricted transitional justice from respecting cultural rights and addressing their violations. Cultural Rights and Wrongs in Transitional Justice challenges the dogmatic approaches inherent in the dominant model and retheorizes these core concepts in ways that enable and encourage a more robust engagement with cultural rights without sacrificing the raison d'être of the transitional justice project. It argues that transitional justice unmoored from its initial conceptual boundaries has the flexibility to respect and address large scale cultural rights violations and accommodate local and Indigenous cultures. This flexibility allows the field to account for underlying cultural violence and empower cultural interventions in the wake of mass harm. This has the potential to strengthen the normative value of cultural rights, address root causes of violent conflict, respond to survivor priorities and shape more meaningful long term reforms.

The Black Atlantic's triple burden Adekeye Adebajo, 2025-06-10. This volume demonstrates the continuities of five centuries of European slavery and colonialism in Africa, the Caribbean and the Americas, examining calls for reparations in all three regions for crimes against humanity. Authored by eminent scholars largely based in these areas, it contributes to transforming educational curricula globally. This collection is a comprehensive multidisciplinary work and enables cross regional comparisons to be drawn, ensuring that important global events are read from diverse perspectives. The volume is aimed at subject area experts as well as students in diverse areas of the humanities and beyond who seek a sound introductory reference book to these important historical subjects to which they are often not exposed. The authors thus represent a multi disciplinary group encompassing diverse fields such as history, international relations, politics, economics, sociology, anthropology, literature and languages. The book introduces readers to foreign language historical sources often inaccessible to an English speaking audience on these pivotal topics.

Reparations for Slavery in International Law Katarina Schwarz, 2022. From the transatlantic slave trade to the maangamizi. The maangamizi and the making of international law. Adjudicating the past: the impact of time on reparability. Towards a theory of reparatory justice. Expanding understandings of reparatory justice through multiple modalities of redress. The causal chains connecting historical enslavement and contemporary redress. Reparatory justice in transition.

Global Displacements Marion Werner, 2015-12-14. Challenging the main ways we debate globalization. Global Displacements reveals how uneven geographies of capitalist development shape and are shaped by the aspirations and everyday struggles of people in the global South. Makes an original contribution to the study of globalization by bringing together critical development and feminist theoretical approaches Opens up new avenues for the analysis of global production as a long term development strategy Contributes novel theoretical insights drawn from the everyday experiences of disinvestment and precarious work on people's lives and their communities Represents the first analysis of increasing uneven development among countries in the Caribbean Calls for more rigorous studies of long accepted notions of the geographies of inequality and poverty in the global South

Scammer's Yard Jovan Scott Lewis, 2020-10-27 Tells the story of Jamaican scammers who use crime to gain autonomy opportunity and repair There is romance in stealing from the rich to give to the poor but how does that change when those perceived rich are elderly white North Americans and the poor are young Black Jamaicans In this innovative ethnography Jovan Scott Lewis tells the story of Omar Junior and Dwayne Young and poor they strive to make a living in Montego Bay where call centers and tourism are the two main industries in the struggling economy Their experience of grinding poverty and drastically limited opportunity leads them to conclude that scamming is the best means of gaining wealth and advancement Otherwise they are doomed to live in sufferation an inescapable poverty that breeds misery frustration and vexation In the Jamaican lottery scam run by these men targets are told they have qualified for a large loan or award if they pay taxes or transfer fees When the fees are paid the award never arrives netting the scammers tens of thousands of U S dollars Through interviews historical sources song lyrics and court testimonies Lewis examines how these scammers justify their deceit discovering an ethical narrative that reformulates ideas of crime and transgression and their relationship to race justice and debt Scammer's Yard describes how these young men seeking to overcome inequality and achieve autonomy come to view crime as a form of liberation Their logic raises unsettling questions about a world economy that relegates postcolonial populations to deprivation even while expecting them to follow the rules of capitalism that exacerbate their dispossession In this groundbreaking account Lewis asks whether true reparation for the legacy of colonialism is to be found only through radical even criminal means

Reflections on the Future of Human Rights Gentian Zyberi, Johan Karlsson Schaffer, Carola Lingaas, Eduardo Sánchez Madrigal, 2023-07-31 This book aims to prospectively conjecture about what the coming decades may hold for human rights The authors in this volume discern where current trends are likely to lead and try to make sense of the future they herald Human rights as a legal political and social practice have experienced significant achievements and successes some notable setbacks and failures and numerous unprecedented and unforeseen events and developments Sceptics even claim that the idea of human rights has failed to deliver on its radical promise of emancipation The chapters in this volume deal with ways to reimagine the existing human rights framework the future of the African human rights system the place of human rights in economic policy making reparations for chattel slavery and the right to free education for all children The thematic and disciplinary breadth of contributions makes this book a resource for scholars practitioners and students alike In analysing and critically discussing matters of climate change right to a healthy environment preventing disasters and building resilience and resource management it provides timely and important contributions However the book does not limit itself to discussing current day challenges it also covers issues concerning the regulation of artificial intelligence and algorithmic decision making as well as potential paths in the future relationship between the African and the European Human Rights Court Reflections on the Future of Human Rights will be beneficial to students scholars and researchers interested in international law human rights and politics Overall the book is suitable for anyone interested in human rights and their evolution in theory and practice The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Nordic Journal of Human Rights
