Zothique Clark Ashton Smith:

Zothique Clark A. Smith, 1970-05-01 Zothique Clark Ashton Smith, 2022-07-12 Zothique a mythical land of the far future is Clark Ashton Smith's most carefully worked out fantasy realm and many of his most celebrated stories are set in this evocative world of languid decadence strangeness and sexuality Beginning with The Empire of the Necromancers 1932 and extending all the way to the short play The Dead Will Cuckold You 1956 Smith fashioned Zothique in tale after tale each adding new elements to the locale As we read the Zothique tales we see how the imminent extinguishing of the sun has caused civilization to collapse Paradoxically society has reverted to a kind of primitivism with the return of royalty superstition and sorcery This scenario allowed Smith to engage in tongue in cheek archaism of both language and setting Some of the most poignant stories he ever wrote stories that fused fantasy and the supernatural with a sense of aching loss and tragedy are set in Zothique including The Dark Eidolon and Xeethra Other tales such as The Weaver of the Vault and Necromancy in Naat focus morbidly on death Eroticism is the focus of The Witchcraft of Ulua and Morthylla while The Voyage of King Euvoran is grimly humorous And The Last Hieroglyph is a fitting capstone to the series in its depiction of the ultimate destruction of the realm Of all his story cycles Zothique allowed Clark Ashton Smith the widest scope for his imagination This volume presents his expression of that imagination in prose fiction drama and poetry All the texts have been scrupulously edited by leading Smith scholar Ron Hilger and features a new introduction by Donald Sidney Fryer The Building Imaginary Worlds Mark J.P. Wolf, 2014-03-14 Mark J P Wolf's study of imaginary worlds theorizes world building within and across media including literature comics film radio television board games video games the Internet and more Building Imaginary Worlds departs from prior approaches to imaginary worlds that focused mainly on narrative medium or genre and instead considers imaginary worlds as dynamic entities in and of themselves Wolf argues that imaginary worlds which are often transnarrative transmedial and transauthorial in nature are compelling objects of inquiry for Media Studies Chapters touch on a theoretical analysis of how world building extends beyond storytelling the engagement of the audience and the way worlds are conceptualized and experienced a history of imaginary worlds that follows their development over three millennia from the fictional islands of Homer's Odyssey to the present internarrative theory examining how narratives set in the same world can interact and relate to one another an examination of transmedial growth and adaptation and what happens when worlds make the jump between media an analysis of the transauthorial nature of imaginary worlds the resulting concentric circles of authorship and related topics of canonicity participatory worlds and subcreation's relationship with divine Creation Building Imaginary Worlds also provides the scholar of imaginary worlds with a glossary of terms and a detailed timeline that spans three millennia and more than 1 400 imaginary worlds listing their names creators and the works in which they first appeared
