Social Work in Social Change Nicci Earle, 2008 This study forms part of a series of studies on professions and professional education being conducted by the HSRC's research programme on Education Science Skills Development It follows a pilot study on medical doctors published in 2006 entitled Doctors in a Divided Society The profession and education of medical practitioners in South Africa Like the other studies in the series this study involved developing an understanding of the professional milieu and professional labour market of social workers As the implementers of government social policy social work professionals have been at the forefront of grappling with the practicalities of the changes in focus approach and methods of social security and social service delivery since 1994 It examines developments in the education and training of social workers within the democratic dispensation the most significant of which is the development of a national standardised Bachelor of Social Work degree The study also reveals that the dominant profile in student enrolment and graduation statistics has changed from white female to African female and that enrolment has increased significantly However the study also shows that graduation trends have been negative and losses due to emigration are an additional concern Given the scarcity of these professionals against the demand for their services understanding the factors that contribute to this picture are critical to effective intervention

This Week in South Africa, 1995 Multinationals on the Periphery G. Benito, R. Narula, 2007-10-26 Multinational enterprises do not regard all locations as being equivalent Smaller economies and less developed countries are not as attractive because of a limited market size or lack of proximity to other locations This book focuses on how multinational activity to and from peripheral economies differs from their activity in core economies

Planning and Transformation Philip Harrison, Alison Todes, Vanessa Watson, 2007-09-12 Planning and Transformation provides a comprehensive view of planning under political transition in South Africa offering an accessible resource for both students and researchers in an international and a local audience In the years after the 1994 transition to democracy in South Africa planners believed they would be able to successfully promote a vision of integrated equitable and sustainable cities and counter the spatial distortions created by apartheid This book covers the experience of the planning community the extent to which their aims were achieved and the hindering factors Although some of the factors affecting planning have been context specific the nature of South Africa's transition and its relationship to global dynamics have meant that many of the issues confronting planners in other parts of the world are echoed here Issues of governance integration market competitiveness sustainability democracy and values are significant and the particular nature of the South African experience lends new insights to thinking on these questions exploring the possibilities of achievement in the planning field

Nutrition and Sustainable Development Goal 10: Reduced Inequalities, 2nd edition Emmanuel Cohen, Norbert

Amougou, Nobuo Nishi, Yuxuan Gu, Nur Indrawaty Lipoeto, 2025-03-03 Building on the Millennium Development Goals the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) are the cornerstone of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development billed by the UN as an agenda of unprecedented scope and significance. These seventeen goals are conceived as integrated, indivisible, and as balancing the economic, social, and environmental dimensions of sustainable development. To be achieved by 2030, the goals are organized around five core pillars: people, planet, prosperity, peace, and partnership. As a member of the SDGs Publishers Compact Frontiers is committed to advocating the themes represented by the SDGs and accelerating progress to achieve them. Nutrition sits at the heart of the SDGs. In addition to achieving Zero Hunger (SDG2), improvements in nutrition are critical to both achieve and reap the benefits of all seventeen global goals. With good nutrition comes improved health and wellbeing (SDG3), enhanced educational and work productivity (SDGs 4 and 8), less poverty (SDG1) and reduced inequalities (SDGs 5 and 10). And with stronger and more sustainable environments, communities, and technologies (SDGs 6, 7, 9, 11, 17), improved food security and nutrition will follow. As part of an innovative collection showcasing nutrition in the context of the SDGs, this Research Topic will focus on Sustainable Development Goal 10: Reduced Inequalities. We welcome Original Research, Review, and Perspective articles covering topics including but not limited to: Sociocultural aspects of health and wellbeing; Socio-ecological profiles of food consumption in urban populations; Diversity of socio-ecological profiles of food consumption in specific populations; Assessing the frequency of socio-ecological profiles of food consumption oriented to local and alternative food productions; Sociodemographic characteristics of consumers using local food productions; Barriers: social, economic, geographic, and cultural relative to dietary strategies mobilising local food productions; Relationships between soil microbial diversity and practices in alternative agriculture; Food quality and the corresponding influence on human health and human microbiota diversity; Assessing the real and the perceived impact of the effects of food in alternative agriculture on health.
