Transforming Research Excellence McLean, Robert ,Tijssen, Robert,Wallace, Matthew L.,Kraemer-Mbula,

Erika, 2020-01-18 Modern day science is under great pressure A potent mix of increasing expectations limited resources tensions between competition and cooperation and the need for evidence based funding is creating major change in how science is conducted and perceived Amidst this perfect storm is the allure of research excellence a concept that drives decisions made by universities and funders and defines scientists research strategies and career trajectories But what is excellent science And how to recognise it After decades of inquiry and debate there is still no satisfactory answer Are we asking the wrong question Is reality more complex and excellence in science more elusive than many are willing to admit And how should excellence be defined in different parts of the world particularly in lower income countries of the Global South where science is expected to contribute to pressing development issues despite often scarce resources Many wonder whether the Global South is importing with or without consenting the flawed tools for research evaluation from North America and Europe that are not fit for purpose This book takes a critical view of these issues touching on conceptual issues and practical problems that inevitably emerge when excellence is at the center of science systems Emerging from the capacity building work of the Science Granting Councils Initiative in sub Saharan Africa it speaks to scholars as well as to managers and funders of research around the world Confronting sticky problems and uncomfortable truths the chapters contain insights and recommendations that point towards new solutions both for the Global South and the Global North Women and Global Health Leadership Rosemary Morgan,Kate Hawkins,Roopa Dhatt,Mehr Manzoor,Sulzhan Bali,Cheryl Overs,2022-02-19 Women represent the majority of people working to improve health outcomes in communities non governmental and multilateral organizations both as paid and unpaid health and social care workers So why is it that when it comes to leadership positions we have a governance system that privileges men and what can we do to redress the imbalance This ground breaking collection explores the leadership roles that women hold in global health teasing out the routes women have taken to leadership the challenges they have faced and what has facilitated their journey It brings to the fore the stories of women on the frontlines of this struggle from around the world highlighting and complementing these stories with theoretical and analytical explorations of the structures and systems that help or hinder the process Among the topics explored Gendered Institutions in Global Health Gender Peace and Health Promoting Human Security with Women s Leadership Academic Journal Publishing A Pathway to Global Health Leadership Women in Health Systems Leadership Demystifying the Labyrinth Women s Leadership in Global Health Evolution Will Not Bring Equality The book is a rallying call to arms to redress gender inequality and celebrate the many ways in which women are taking the lead in supporting the health of their communities internationally Women and Global Health Leadership is a must read for those working in or studying global health It is also a primer that aims to support other women in their efforts and struggles to succeed in a highly unfair and unequal world The book will engage ministers of health policy makers practitioners academicians students researchers healthcare workers health service managers and members of multilateral organizations By highlighting key barriers and facilitators to women in global health leadership organizations can use this book to help inform the development of institutional policies and procedures to support women in leadership positions across academic health workforce and global health governance systems It also can be used within postgraduate courses focusing on the global health workforce leadership and management and women s studies Higher Education Financing in East and Southern Africa Pundy Pillay,2010-07-12 This nine country study of higher education financing in Africa includes three East African states Kenya Tanzania and Uganda five countries in southern Africa Botswana Lesotho Mozambique Namibia and South Africa and an Indian Ocean island state Mauritius Higher Education Financing in East and Southern Africa explores trends in financing policies paying particular attention to the nature and extent of public sector funding of higher education the growth of private financing including both household financing and the growth of private higher education institutions and the changing mix of financing instruments that these countries are developing in response to public sector financial constraints This unique collection of African country case studies draws attention to the remaining challenges around the financing of higher education in Africa but also identifies good practices lessons and common themes

Advancing Africa's Sustainable Development Alain L. Fymat, 2018-11-14 While many African countries lag behind the rest of the industrialised world in scientific and medical research and development the situation is progressively improving This is why the Society for the Advancement of Science in Africa was established to contribute to economic advancement and sustainability through science research education and innovation This book provides a selection of papers from the Advancement of Science in Africa s fourth annual conference The conference was held under the overarching theme of science technology and innovation in Africa with several important sub themes including but not limited to improving health research and disease surveillance education collaborating in research responding to epidemic diseases with high mortality in Africa and promoting women s interest in science careers The collection illustrates how although the chapter contributors come from various countries and universities representing their own academic research they all share a common interest in advancing science technology and innovation in Africa
