University Durban Application Forms For 2015:

International Climate Change Law Daniel Bodansky, Jutta Brunnée, Lavanya Rajamani, 2017-06-08 This textbook by three experts in the field provides a comprehensive overview of international climate change law. Climate change is one of the fundamental challenges facing the world today and is the cause of significant international concern. In response, states have created an international climate regime. The treaties that comprise the regime: the 1992 United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change, the 1997 Kyoto Protocol, and the 2015 Paris Agreement, establish a system of governance to address climate change and its impacts. This book provides a clear analytical guide to the climate regime as well as other relevant international legal rules. The book begins by locating international climate change law within the broader context of international law and international environmental law. It considers the evolution of the international climate change regime and the process of law making that has led to it. It examines the key provisions of the Framework Convention, the Kyoto Protocol, and the Paris Agreement. It analyses the principles and obligations that underpin the climate regime as well as the elaborate institutional and governance architecture that has been created at successive international conferences to develop commitments and promote transparency and compliance. The final two chapters address the polycentric nature of international climate change law as well as the intersections of international climate change law with other areas of international regulation. This book is an essential introduction to international climate change law for students, scholars, and negotiators.

Food Science and Technology Oluwatosin Ademola Ijabadeniyi, 2020-12-07 Food Science and Technology Trends and Future Prospects presents different aspects of food science, i.e. food microbiology, food chemistry, nutrition, process engineering, that should be applied for selection, preservation, processing, packaging, and distribution of quality food. The authors focus on the fundamental aspects of food and also highlight emerging technology and innovations that are changing the food industry. The chapters are written by leading researchers, lecturers, and experts in food chemistry, food microbiology, biotechnology, nutrition, and management. This book is valuable for researchers and students in food science and technology, and it is also useful for food industry professionals, food entrepreneurs, and farmers.

Advances in Engineering Materials, Structures and Systems: Innovations, Mechanics and Applications Alphose Zingoni, 2019-08-21 Advances in Engineering Materials, Structures and Systems: Innovations, Mechanics and Applications comprises 411 papers that were presented at SEMC 2019, the Seventh International Conference on Structural Engineering, Mechanics, and Computation, held in Cape Town, South Africa, from 2 to 4 September 2019. The subject matter reflects the broad scope of SEMC conferences and covers a wide variety of engineering materials, both traditional and innovative, and many types of structures. The many topics featured in these Proceedings can be classified into six broad categories that deal with: i) the mechanics of materials and fluids, elasticity, plasticity, flow through porous media, fluid dynamics, fracture, fatigue, damage, delamination, corrosion, bond, creep, shrinkage, etc.; ii) the mechanics of structures and systems, structural dynamics, vibration, seismic response, soil

 Rinos Mwanaka,Felix Rodriguez,2017-02-03 This project come out from our need to harness voices in Africa and Latin America giving these voices an opportunity to converse argue synthesize agree and share ideas on the craft of writing on life on being and on thinking for the benefit of all It was also an opportunity to create literary friendships and contacts between these two great regions Generally Latin America and Africa still have a lot of stories to share among themselves and with the rest of the world There are still very strong untapped storytelling traditions in these continents The stories in this volume are selected from an amazing range of entries to a call for contributions to an anthology on experimentation It is hoped this robust selection will serve a wide variety of tastes in both Spanish and English and that the book will open dialogue and the sharing of ideas between the two regions and the whole world This is an invaluable contribution on many fronts Political Values and Narratives of Resistance Fiona Anciano,Joanna Wheeler,2021-03-23 This book brings together multidisciplinary perspectives to explore how political values and acts of resistance impact the delivery of social justice in post colonial states Everyday life in post colonial states such as South Africa and Zimbabwe is characterized by injustices that have both a historical and contemporary nature From fishers in Cape Town accused of poaching to residents of Bulawayo demanding access to water this book focuses on the relationship between the state and groups that have been historically oppressed due to being on the margins of the political economic and social system It draws on empirical research from 12 scholars looking at cases in Brazil India South Africa and Zimbabwe Chapters explore questions such as what citizens especially those from marginalized groups want from the state The book looks at the political values of citizens and how these are formed in the process of engaging with the state and through everyday injustices It also asks why and how citizens resist the state with examples of protest as well as less visible forms of resistance reflecting complex histories and power relations Finally the book explores how narratives and counter narratives reveal the nature of political values and perceptions of what is just Taken together these elements show the evolution of post colonial social contracts Examining important themes in political science anthropology sociology and urban geography this book will appeal to scholars and students interested in political values justice social movements and resistance Peace as Nonviolence Egon

Spiegel,George Mutalemwa,Cheng Liu,Lester R. Ending Gender-Based Violence Hannah E. Britton,2020-04-16 South African women s still increasing presence in local provincial and national institutions has inspired sweeping legislation aimed at advancing women s rights and opportunity Yet the country remains plagued by sexual assault rape and intimate partner violence Hannah E Britton examines the reasons gendered violence persists in relationship to social inequalities even after women assume political power Venturing into South African communities Britton invites service providers religious and traditional leaders police officers and medical professionals to address gender based violence in their own words Britton finds the recent turn toward carceral solutions with a focus on arrests and prosecutions fails to address the complexities of the problem and looks at how changing specific community dynamics can defuse interpersonal violence She also examines how place and space affect the implementation of policy and suggests practical ways policymakers can support street level workers Clear eyed and revealing Ending Gender Based Violence offers needed tools for breaking cycles of brutality and inequality around the world ECEL 2019 18th

European Conference on e-Learning Rikke Ørngreen,Bente Meyer,Mie Buhl ,2019-11-07 Sport, Events, Tourism and Regeneration Nicholas Wise,John Harris,2017-02-17 Investments in sport events and tourism in cities and wider regions are part of nascent regeneration strategies linked to transitioning economic bases and place images While it is important to consider physical regeneration there is a range of subsequent benefits and opportunities brought about through regeneration that considers social impacts communities and how investments and developments influence how people interact in transformed spaces This book brings together a collection focusing on the diverse range of approaches and perspectives of regeneration Twelve chapters outline and bring together critical perspectives of regeneration from scholars in different parts of the world This collection critically assesses some of the key factors impacting upon regeneration initiatives in relation to sport events and tourism By doing so this book assesses if new opportunities have arisen from developments increasing the demands and needs of locals and tourists or if transformations result in exclusion thus challenging who regeneration is for This book will be valuable reading for students and academics interested in tourism studies events planning sport and leisure studies or development studies as well as the wider social sciences Valuing Development, Environment and Conservation Sarah Bracking,Aurora Fredriksen,Sian Sullivan,Philip Woodhouse,2018-10-17 Policy makers are increasingly trying to assign economic values to areas such as ecologies the atmosphere even human lives These new values assigned to areas previously considered outside of economic systems often act to qualify alter or replace former non pecuniary values Valuing Development Environment and Conservation looks to explore the complex interdependencies contradictions and trade offs that can take place between economic values and the social environmental political and ethical systems that inform non monetary valuation processes Using rich empirical material the book explores the processes of valuation their components calculative technologies and outcomes in different social ecological and conservation domains The book gives reasons for why economic calculation tends to dominate in practice but also presents new insights on how the disobedient materiality of things and the ingenuity of human and non human agencies can combine and frustrate the dominant economic models within calculative processes This book highlights the tension between on the one hand a dominant model that emphasises technical and universalising criteria and on the other hand valuation practice in specific local contexts which is more likely to negotiate criteria that are plural incommensurable and political This book is perfect for researchers and students within development studies environment geography politics sociology and anthropology who are looking for new insights into how processes of valuation take place in the 21st century and with what consequential outcomes Contemporary Perspectives on Art and International Development Polly Stupples,Katerina Teaiwa,2016-10-26 Visual artists craftspeople musicians and performers have been supported by the development community for at least twenty years yet there has been little grounded and critical research into the practices and politics of that support This new Routledge book remedies that omission and brings together varied perspectives from artists policy makers and researchers working in the Pacific Africa Latin America and Europe to explore the challenges and opportunities of supporting the arts in the development context The book offers a series of grounded analyses which cover strategies for the sustainability of arts enterprises innovative evaluation methods theoretical engagements with questions of art agency and social change artists entanglements with legal and structural frameworks processes of cultural mapping and the artist donor interface The creative economy is increasingly recognized as a driver of development and this book also investigates the contribution made by the arts to the processes of international development and considers how those processes can best be supported by development agencies Contemporary Perspectives on Art and International Development gives scholars of
