Language and Institutional Identity in the Post-Apartheid South African Higher Education Leketi Makalela, 2022-03-21

This book examines the intersections between education identity formation and language in post apartheid South Africa with specific attention to higher education It does so against the backdrop of the core argument that the sector plays a critical role in shaping re producing and perpetuating sectoral class sub national and national identities which in turn in the peculiar South African setting are almost invariably analogous with the historical fault lines determined and dictated by language as a marker of ethnic and racial identity The chapters in the book grapple with the nuances related to these intersections in the understanding that higher education language policies overt and or covert largely structure institutional cultures or what has been described as curriculum in higher education institutions Together the chapters examine the roles played by higher education by language policies and by the intersections of these policies and ethnolinguistic identities in either constructing and perpetuating or deconstructing ethnolinguistic identities upon which the sector was founded The introductory chapter lays out the background to the entire book with an emphasis on the policy and practice perspectives on the intersections The middle chapters describe the so called White Universities Black Universities and Middle Man Minorities Universities The final chapter maps out future directions of the discourses on language and identity formation in South Africa s higher education

Turning and Turning Judith February, 2018-08-01 South Africans often are deeply polarised in our perspectives of the present and the past Our ways of seeing are fraught with division and we fail to understand the complexities when we do not see what lies beneath the surface There is no denying that the Jacob Zuma presidency took a significant toll on South Africa exacerbating tensions and exposing the deep fractures that already exist in our society along the lines of race class and even ethnicity The Zuma years were marked by cases of corruption and state capture unprecedented in their brazenness and increased social protests many of which were accompanied by violence aggressive public discourse lack of respect for reason and an often disturbing resistance to meaningful engagement Importantly those years also placed enormous pressure on our democratic institutions many of which still bear the scars and challenged the sovereignty of the Constitution itself As an analyst and governance specialist at the Institute for Democracy in South Africa IDASA for twelve years February has had a unique perch Turning and turning is a snapshot of her IDASA years and the issues tackled which included work on the arms deal and its corrosive impact on democratic institutions IDASA s party funding campaign which February helped lead as well as work on accountability and transparency Combining analytical insight with personal observations and experience February highlights the complex process of building a strong democratic society and the difficulties of living in a constitutional democracy marked by soaring levels of inequality There is a need to reflect on and learn from the country s democratic journey if citizens are to shape our democracy effectively and to fulfill the promise of the Constitution for all South Africans

Madzivhandila,Mzukisi Qobo,2024-07-08 There is a national emergency and it has become more pronounced as South Africa faces challenges of Ethical leadership in both the private and public sector Recently the Zondo Commission Public Investment Corporation PIC Commission and Courts of Law released reports that cast light on the conduct of public officials There have also been several reports by the Special Investigating Unit SIU dealing with the same matter This phenomenon is not only unique to South Africa Reports of multinational companies that have been implicated in unethical and corrupt abound These include corporate scandals such as those of Enron WorldCom Nortel and AIG These malfeasances have demonstrated abundantly that corporate leaders are not immune to unethical behaviour Bedi Alpasla Naidoo 2012a What this showed is that the issue of ethics is important in the public sector Joining the Dots Jonathan Ancer,Chris Whitfield,2021-09-21 PRAVIN GORDHAN has been at the centre of many of the political storms that have torn through South Africa s political landscape He has been investigated by the Hawks fired as finance minister accused of running a rogue unit at SARS and come up against the public protector to name a few

Seasoned journalists Jonathan Aker and Chris Whitfield take a magnifying glass to someone at the centre of this tumultuous period to try to understand the man behind the public image. They go back to Durban in 1949 when Gordhan was born, tracing the significant events and influences that shaped his life and prompted him to become involved in politics as a pharmacy student. The authors interview former fellow activists to build a picture of the role Gordhan played in the struggle, including his detention and torture. It was during this time that he worked closely with Jacob Zuma, the man who would become president and Gordhan's nemesis, and on the back of a bogus intelligence report fire him as finance minister. The book examines why President Cyril Ramaphosa's right hand man has been dragged into major controversies and made enemies such as public protector Busisiwe Mkhwebane, Julius Malema, and many of those associated with corruption. Joining the Dots is an in-depth, insightful, gripping and satisfying read about a man who found the courage to stand up to the dark forces of state capture.
