University Of Minnesota Essay Prompt 2014:

Romanticism and Speculative Realism Chris Washington, Anne C. McCarthy, 2019-01-24 Romanticism and Speculative Realism features a range of scholars working at the intersection of literary poetics and philosophy It considers how the writing of the Romantic era reconceptualizes the human imagination the natural world and the language that correlates them in radical ways that can advance current speculative debates concerning new ontologies and new materialisms In their wide ranging examinations of canonical and non canonical romantic writers the scholars gathered here rethink the connections between the human and non human world to envision speculative modes of social being and ecological politics Spanning historical and national frameworks from historical romanticism to contemporary post romantic ecology and from British and German romanticism to global modernity these essays examine life in all its varied forms in and beyond the Anthropocene

Games and Play in HCI Kathrin Gerling, Ioanna Iacovides, Marc Herrlich, Z. O. Toups, 2021-08-03 The Literature of Waste S. Morrison, 2015-06-03 Tracing material and metaphoric waste through the Western canon ranging from Beowulf to Samuel Beckett Susan Signe Morrison disrupts traditional perceptions of waste to better understand how we theorize manage and are implicated in what is discarded and seen as garbage Engaging a wide range of disciplines Morrison addresses how the materiality of waste has been sedimented into a variety of toxic metaphors If scholars can read waste as possessing dynamic agency how might that change the ethics of refuse ing and ostracizing wasted humans A major contribution to the growing field of Waste Studies this comparative and theoretically innovative book confronts the reader with the ethical urgency present in waste literature itself From Suffragette to Homesteader Emily van der Meulen, 2018-10-10T00:00:00Z From Suffragette to Homesteader opens a unique window into the past Central to this book is a powerful memoir written in 1952 by Ethel Marie Sentance as an anniversary present for her husband Clarence The memoir begins in 1883 and details Ethel s early life in a small English village Frustrated with women s social and political inequality Ethel became a suffragette in her early twenties She participated in meetings and rallies sold suffrage newspapers and was eventually jailed for breaking a window at a protest In 1912 her life changed considerably when she married and relocated to the Saskatchewan prairies to become a homesteader and settler Surrounding Ethel s memoir are chapters by leading historians and life writing scholars that provide further analysis and context exploring topics within and beyond those written about by Ethel Together the chapters in this book tell a compelling story of early and mid twentieth century social justice advocacy women s and feminist histories struggles for gender equality and the farmworker and homesteader experience At the same time the book is also a story of imperialism and the British Empire race and class and settler colonialism How Film Histories Were Made Malte Hagener, Yvonne Zimmermann, 2025-10-01 This book is specifically dedicated to film history s own history It provides insights into the fabrication of film histories and the discourses on their materials and methods in the past in order to better understand and reconsider film history today The interventions unpack unspoken assumptions and hidden agendas that determine film historiography until today also with the aim to act as a critical reflection on the potential future orientation of the field The edited volume proposes a transnational entangled and culturally diverse approach towards an archaeology of film history while paying specific attention to persons objects infrastructures regions institutional fields and events hitherto overlooked It explores past and ongoing processes of doing undoing and redoing film history Thereby in a self reflective gesture it also draws attention to our own work as film historians

Queer
Anxieties of Young Adult Literature and Culture Derritt Mason, 2020-12-28 Selected as the Children's Literature Association's 2023 Honor Book Young adult literature featuring LGBTQ characters is booming In the 1980s and 1990s only a handful of such titles were published every year Recently these numbers have soared to over one hundred annual releases Queer characters are also appearing more frequently in film on television and in video games This explosion of queer representation however has prompted new forms of longstanding cultural anxieties about adolescent sexuality What makes for a good coming out story Will increased queer representation in young people's media teach adolescents the right lessons and help queer teens live better happier lives What if these stories harm young people instead of helping them In Queer Anxieties of Young Adult Literature and Culture Derritt Mason considers these questions through a range of popular media including an assortment of young adult books Caper in the Castro the first ever queer video game online fan communities and popular television series Glee and Big Mouth Mason argues themes that generate the most anxiety about adolescent culture queer visibility risk taking HIV AIDS dystopia and horror and the promise that It Gets Better and the threat that it might not challenge us to rethink how we read and engage with young people's media Instead of imagining queer young adult literature as a subgenre defined by its visibly queer characters Mason proposes that we see queer YA as a body of transmedia texts with blurry boundaries one that coheres around affect specifically anxiety instead of content

Performance Studies in Canada Laura Levin, Marlis Schweitzer, 2017-06-01 Since its inception as an institutionalized discipline in the United States during the 1980s performance studies has focused on the interdisciplinary analysis of a broad spectrum of cultural behaviours including theatre dance folklore popular entertainments performance art protests cultural rituals and the performance of self in everyday life Performance Studies in Canada brings together a diverse group of scholars to explore the national emergence of performance studies as a field in Canada To date no systematic attempt has been made to consider how this methodology is being taught applied and rethought in Canadian contexts and Canadian performance studies scholarship remains largely unacknowledged within international discussions about the discipline This collection fills this gap by identifying multiple origins of performance studies scholarship in the country and highlighting significant works of performance theory and history that are rooted in Canadian culture Essays illustrate how specific institutional conditions and cultural investments Indigenous francophone multicultural and more produce alternative articulations of performance and reveal national identity as a performative construct A state of the art work on the state of the field Performance Studies in Canada foregrounds national and global performance knowledge to invigorate the discipline around the world

Practising Immanence David A. G. Clarke, 2023-11-28 Practising Immanence Living with Theory and Environmental Education makes creative contributions to both qualitative inquiry and environmental education by exploring how each of these ideas seep and fuse into one another creating a space where methodology becomes pedagogy and where each of these is already always environmental indivisible with life Clarke's energising and innovative approach offers a challenge to conventional research practices and shows ways in which inquiry can be done differently Drawing on new materialisms affect theory and the practical philosophy of Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari the book details the PhD journey of the author merging stories and theory and stories of theory in the production of eight haecceities a philosophical concept which prioritises the thisness of a thing or event This move allows a novel methodological approach whereby the haecceities act as sites of variation on the events of the book the self as unstable and posthuman the environment as everything immanent rather than as an overly romantic or a green version of nature and the tensions that these moves create for ethical orientations in education inquiry and life in the Anthropocene Practising Immanence brings theory to life through a diffractively critical style and a unique approach to environmental pedagogic practice This radical and vitalising book will be of interest to those inspired to explore environmental problems and inquiry with each other and to those drawn to creative relational narrative embodied and post qualitative approaches to research
