The Regional Law of Refugee Protection in Africa

Marina Sharpe, 2018-07-18 This book analyses the legal framework for refugee protection in Africa including both refugee and human rights law as well as treaty and institutional elements The regime is addressed in two parts Part One analyses the relevant treaties the 1951 Convention relating to the Status of Refugees the 1969 Organization of African Unity Convention Governing the Specific Aspects of Refugee Problems in Africa and the 1981 African Charter on Human and Peoples Rights The latter two regional instruments are examined in depth This includes the first fulsome account of the African Refugee Conventions drafting an interpretation of its unique refugee definition and original analysis of the relationships between the three treaties Significant attention is devoted to the systemic relationship between the international and the regional refugee treaties and to the discrete relationships of conflict and complementary relationships between the two refugee instruments as well as to the relationships between the African Refugee Convention and African Charter Part Two focuses on the institutional architecture supporting the treaty framework The Organization of African Unity is addressed in a historical sense and the contemporary roles of the African Union the African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights and the current and contemplated African human rights courts are examined This book is the first devoted to the legal framework for refugee protection in Africa

Nadira: We Belong To The Earth Nadira Omarjee, 2023-05-31 This book illustrates the ways in which the personal is political in the advancement of decolonising scholarship It explores the intimacies of coloniality entrenched in the narcissism of coloniality enabling the system through extraction subjugation and violence Pushing back against the narcissism of coloniality which is framed by the master slave dialectic or internalised oppression requires uhuru and ubuntu which are agentic strategies employed in reclaiming ontology and epistemology Uhuru insists on a decolonisation of self whereas ubuntu is determined by African radical communitarianism demanding new ways of knowing and seeing whilst re-examining epistemicides of the enslaved indentured and colonised Fanonian theory is used as a framework for understanding the colonial authority's management of the colonised determining the unhappiness quintessential in the colonial condition Freirian concepts of conscientisation and criticality are used as a form of resistance disrupting the system of racial capitalism and the coloniality of gender Subsequently flipping the classroom to resist the coloniality of knowledge allows scholars to connect with community encouraging engaged scholarship from the personal political perspective making the classroom a radical space for addressing trauma and healing whilst bridging art activism and scholarship Therefore the classroom is situated against the blind spots of the banking model with male dominated decolonial work silencing the feminist perspective Consequently uhuru and ubuntu promote voice agency and resistance as a pedagogical praxis paramount for the development of a decolonial feminist pedagogy
