A Transdisciplinary Approach to Chinese and Japanese Language Teaching Nobuko Chikamatsu, Li Jin, 2023-03-31 A Transdisciplinary Approach to Chinese and Japanese Language Teaching illustrates how the transdisciplinary approach to second language acquisition SLA centers around collaboration to provide a learning conducive environment with rich semiotic resources for second foreign language learners The volume consists of 14 chapters from leading experts in SLA and Chinese and Japanese language educators from Canada China Japan the United Kingdom and the United States of America As a first work of its kind the contributions feature both theoretical interpretations of transdisciplinary concepts that can apply to Chinese Japanese as a second language learning and case studies showcasing how college level Chinese and Japanese language educators design and implement pedagogical projects in collaboration with partners across languages disciplines communities and borders by adopting a transdisciplinary perspective to analyze students learning outcomes This book will benefit researchers administrators educators and teacher educators in higher education with an interest in world language education and interdisciplinary and project based teaching

A Handbook of English Renaissance Literary Studies John Lee, 2017-11-06 Provides a detailed map of contemporary critical theory in Renaissance and Early Modern English literary studies beyond Shakespeare A Handbook of English Renaissance Literary Studies is a groundbreaking guide to the contemporary engagement with critical theory within the larger disciplinary area of Renaissance and Early Modern studies Comprising commissioned contributions from leading international scholars it provides an overview of literary theory beyond Shakespeare focusing on most major figures as well as some lesser known writers of the period This book represents an important first step in bridging the divide between the abundance of titles which explore applications of theory in Shakespeare studies and the relative lack of such texts concerning English Literary Renaissance studies as a whole which includes major figures such as Marlowe Jonson Donne and Milton The tripartite structure offers a map of the critical landscape so that students can appreciate the breadth of the work being done along with an exploration of the ways in which the treatments of or approaches to key issues have changed over time Handbook of English Renaissance Literary Studies is must reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students of early modern and Renaissance English literature as well as their instructors and advisors Divided into three main sections Conditions of Subjectivity Spaces Places and Forms and Practices and Theories A Handbook of English Renaissance Literary Studies Provides an overview of theoretical work and the theoretical informed competencies which are central to the teaching of English Renaissance literary studies beyond Shakespeare Provides a map of the critical landscape of the field to provide students with an opportunity to appreciate the breadth of the work done Features newly commissioned essays in representative subject areas to offer a clear picture of the contemporary theoretically engaged work in the field Explores the ways in which the treatments of or approaches to key issues have changed over time Offers examples of the ways in which the practice of a theoretically engaged criticism may enrich the personal and professional lives of critics and the culture in which such critical practice takes place

Empowering Women Through Microfinance in Developing Countries Alhassan, Yahaya, Nwagbara, Uzoechi, 2023-10-25
Empowering Women Through Microfinance in Developing Countries is a book that explores how microfinance can be used to empower women in developing countries. It provides theoretical and empirical insights from industry experts, experienced researchers, and policymakers on the problems, processes, and prospects of using microfinance as a catalyst for women's empowerment in the developing world. The book covers a range of topics including the impact of microfinance interventions on women's empowerment, financial inclusion, and women's entrepreneurship; poverty reduction among women and small and medium-sized enterprise growth. This book addresses the lack of understanding about how microfinance can be used to empower women in developing countries. The insights provided in this book will be valuable for researchers, students, microfinance institutions, policymakers, state institutions, managers, non-governmental organizations, and financial institutions looking to expand their product portfolio and outreach. The book also provides policy directions and rethinking of practice in using microfinance as a strategy for eliminating barriers to women's empowerment in developing countries. Italian

Women and the City Janet Levarie Smarr, Daria Valentini, 2003. Studies of the city and of women's experiences of the city have focused primarily on modern times, especially as modernism was defined in large part by urban life. Italy, however, has a long history of urban-centered culture, and women have been a vocal part of that culture since the Renaissance. This volume therefore looks at the art and literature of both earlier and more modern periods to investigate the meanings of the city for Italian women, the intensely gendered meanings for both sexes of those city spaces that excluded women, and the conditions that permitted a limited permeability of gendered boundaries. Two aspects to the combination of women and city are salient to these investigations. One involves their metaphorical relationship. Urbs citta ville, the words for city, tend to be grammatically feminine, and a long tradition of representation associates the city with a woman. Women, especially writers, could exploit, modify, or resist the prevailing uses of such metaphors. The second aspect of connection involves social realities. What was or is the relation of the female city with the real women who inhabit it? What kind of site has it provided for women seeking a satisfying life for themselves? How has art and literature by men and by women represented the relationship of female persons or characters to urban spaces. Family Life Education With Diverse Populations Sharon M.

Ballard, Alan C. Taylor, 2012. Family Life Education with Diverse Populations is a T2 for courses in Family Life Education, Family Studies, and Social Work. Students often go through the additional certification of becoming Family Life Educators (FLEs). As a family life educator, the student will help educate families in and outside the traditional classroom environment on how to strengthen relationships in the home and foster positive individual, couple, and family development. Such education comprises many topics, including marriage education, parenting skills, anger management, and strategies in adjusting to divorce. This book takes the content delivered in courses on FLE a step further by examining and presenting key strategies for working with diverse populations Diverse is defined broadly in terms of race and ethnicity but also by setting such as military families rural families families with loved ones in prison and more The book is unique in defining the group and presenting their strengths and then prescribing treatments and strategies for working with each group In addition the book takes an evidence based practice approach and demonstrates proven strategies in working with the populations listed above Sharon M Ballard Ph D CFLE CFCS is an Associate Professor in the Department of Child Development and Family Relations at East Carolina University Alan C Taylor Ph D CFLE is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Child Development and Family Relations at East Carolina University
