Tropentag 2022 - International Research on Food Security, Natural Resource Management and Rural Development Eric Tielkes, 2022-09-09 Tropentag is the largest interdisciplinary conference in Europe focused on development oriented research in the fields of tropical and subtropical agriculture food security natural resource management and rural development Tropentag takes place annually even though the past two years were particularly challenging while the conference had to be organised as an online only event One of the lessons that we learnt from the virtual conferences is that yes it is possible to organise it that way but that it is much better to meet and talk in person We are thus very happy that this year two years after what was initially planned we are able to organise the Tropentag 2022 conference at the campus of the Czech University of Life Sciences Prague Czech Republic and thrilled that we will again meet all face to face during the 14-16 September venue. However, some of you, due to various reasons, who could not come to Prague, you can still participate at this year's Tropentag as all plenary and oral scientific sessions are streamed via the Whova platform and we also organise several online poster sessions.

Regional Sustainability - South Africa 2015
Students of the 2015 Field Study Program, 2015-06-21. This book is a compilation of the research essays and proposals written by students who participated in the Field Studies in Regional Sustainability Program in South Africa in January-February 2015. Each section focuses on a particular problem identified in the context of the Mpumalanga lowveld and the contributions attempt to address these issues by linking policy frameworks with strategies and projects aimed at improving the sustainability of the region.

Climate Litigation and Justice in Africa Kim Bouwer, Uzuazo Etemire, Tracy-Lynn Field, Ademola Oluborode Jegede, 2024-01-25. EPDF and EPUB available. Open Access under CC BY-NC-ND licence. This volume brings together an international team of contributors to provide a much-needed examination of climate litigation in Africa. The book outlines how climate litigation in Africa is distinct as well as pinpointing where it connects with the global conversation. Chapters engage with crucial themes such as human rights approaches to climate governance, corporate liability and the role of gender in climate litigation.

Biodiversity Loss in a Changing Planet Oscar Grillo, Gianfranco Venora, 2011-11-16. Every ecosystem is a complex organization of carefully mixed life forms, a dynamic and particularly sensible system. Consequently, their progressive decline may accelerate climate change and vice versa, influencing flora and fauna composition and distribution, resulting in the loss of biodiversity. Climate change effects are the principal topics of this volume. Written by internationally renowned contributors, Biodiversity loss in a changing planet offers attractive study cases focused on biodiversity evaluations and provisions in several different ecosystems, analysing the current life condition of many life forms and covering very different biogeographic zones of the planet.

Applied Linguistics and Politics Christian W. Chun, 2022-02-24. In the current climate of extreme nationalism and fear-mongering, a new politics for a socially just world is needed more than ever. Featuring internationally renowned scholars, Applied Linguistics and Politics explores how innovative theories, methodologies and pedagogies in applied linguistics can address the political challenges and issues arising in the 21st century. Adopting a Gramscian theoretical framework, the five parts of this volume focus on the various ways in which the political is discursively and materially realized in its dialogic co-constructions within the media, the economy, culture and identity, and education. Examining the power instantiations of sociolinguistic and semiotic practices in society from a variety of critical perspectives, this book questions how applied linguists can respond to and challenge current discourses of issues such as militarism, nationalism, Islamophobia, sexism, racism and the free market, and suggests future directions for research. Making use of a range of methodologies from discourse analysis sociolinguistics semiotics and political science Applied Linguistics and Politics demonstrates how linguistics can intervene in the political and help mobilize and organize for an economically and socially just society
