University Of Nairobi Postgraduate Intake 2015 2016:

Lawyers in 21st-Century Societies Richard L Abel, Ole Hammerslev, Hilary Sommerlad, Ulrike Schultz, 2020-04-02 The world's legal professions have undergone dramatic changes in the 30 years since publication of the landmark three volume Lawyers in Society which launched comparative sociological studies of lawyers. This is the first of two volumes in which scholars from a wide range of disciplines, countries and cultures document and analyse those changes. The present volume presents reports on 46 countries with broad coverage of North America, Western Europe, Latin America, Asia, Australia, North Africa and the Middle East, sub-Saharan Africa and former communist countries. These national reports address the impact of globalisation and neoliberalism on national legal professions, the relationship of lawyers and their professional associations to the state and tensions between state and citizenship, changes in lawyer demography, rapidly growing numbers and the profession's efforts to retain control, the entry of women and obstacles to full gender equality, ethnic diversity, legal education, the proliferation of institutions and pedagogic innovation, the regulation of lawyers, structures of production, especially the growth of large firms and the impact of technology and paraprofessionals, the distribution of lawyers across roles and access to justice, state-funded legal aid and pro bono services. The juxtaposition of the reports reveals the dramatic transformations of professional rationales, labour markets and working practices and the multiple contingencies of the role of lawyers in societies experiencing increasing juridification within a new geopolitical order.

Supporting Entrepreneurship and Innovation Janet Crum, Samantha Schmehl Hines, 2019-04-29 Libraries have recently begun doing more to support entrepreneurship and innovation within their communities. This volume explores how this has come about, looking at libraries from across North America, Europe and Africa, and helps position readers to better understand what is happening and how this can be brought to further institutions.

Graduate Programs in the Humanities, Arts & Social Sciences 2015 (Grad 2) Peterson's, 2014-11-25 Peterson's Graduate Programs in the Humanities Arts Social Sciences 2015 contains details on more than 11,000 graduate programs of study across all relevant disciplines including the arts and architecture, communications and media, psychology and counseling, political science and international affairs, economics and sociology, anthropology, archaeology and more. Annual Activity Report of HRST Department African Union. Department of Human Resources, Science and Technology, Global food policy report 2024: Food systems for healthy diets and nutrition International Food Policy Research Institute, 2024-05-29 Food systems and diets underpin many critical challenges to public health and environmental sustainability, including malnutrition, noncommunicable diseases and climate change, but sustainable healthy diets have the unique potential to reshape the future for both human and planetary well being The 2024 Global Food Policy Report draws on recent evidence to examine the role of food systems in driving nutrition outcomes and opportunities for transforming food systems to ensure healthy diets for all Chapters by IFPRI researchers and partners evaluate proven and innovative ways to sustainably improve diet quality and reduce malnutrition including ways to make healthy diets more affordable accessible and desirable how to improve food environments the role of both agricultural crops and animal source foods and governance for better diets and nutrition all with a major focus on the most vulnerable populations in low and middle income countries Regional sections explore the diverse challenges countries face and promising policy responses for transforming food systems for sustainable healthy diets

Higher Education in Ethiopia Tebeje Molla, 2018-01-18 This book focuses on higher education in Ethiopia analysing persisting inequalities and policy responses against the backdrop of the extensive expansion and reform that the system has experienced in recent years Drawing on empirical data generated through interviews policy reviews and focus group discussions it explicates factors of structural inequality ranging from neoliberal policy orientations to repressive gender culture and geo political peripherality In a departure from conventional studies that consider policy a response to social problems the book takes a critical perspective to show the constitutive role of policy and explains how the representation of the problem of social inequality undermines equity policy outcomes in Ethiopian higher education Not only does the book problematise the framing of the problem of inequality in the system it also outlines strategies for designing transformative equity instruments In explaining structural factors of inequality and equity provisions the book productively combines sociological concepts with historical accounts and political economy insights Given the increased economic optimism associated with higher education in sub Saharan Africa and the neoliberal ideals underpinning much of the restructuring of the system in the region this is a timely and important contribution that sheds light on the social justice implications and consequences of such changes It offers fresh accounts of largely neglected qualitative cases of inequality making it a valuable read for students and researchers in the areas of Ethiopian education policy studies international and comparative education and international development
