Assessing Academic Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert Weideman, John Read, Theo du Plessis, 2020-11-02 South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience The Effects of Race Nina G. Jablonski, Gerhard Mar, 2018-10-15 The STIAS research theme on Being Human Today explores the interrelated questions What does it mean to be human And What is the nature of the world in which we aspire to be human In the context of post apartheid South Africa race and racism remain key references in both these questions Why is this so considering that the biological basis of race thinking has been refuted Templates of race and racialism remain at the core of state policy in South Africa periodic gross incidents of racism surface in public and notions of the existence of races remain central to everyday thinking and discourse This book is the result of the work of a group of leading thinkers and their in depth conversations at STIAS during the winter of 2015 on the effects of race Convened by evolutionary anthropologist Nina Jablonski and sociologist Gerhard Mar the group included Njabulo Ndebele Chabani Manganyi Barney Pitso Molapo Crain Soudien G. R. van der Horst Mikael Hjerm Zimitri Erasmus and George Chaplin The group reconvened annually through 2017 This is the first in a series of planned publications on the their work Afterimages of Apartheid Kylie Thomas, 2025-10-29 Afterimages of Apartheid shows how photographs of the past can be mobilised as a critical tool for understanding the ongoing effects of apartheid in contemporary South Africa Through close readings of significant images made during and after apartheid the book shows how photography works as a means of documentation commemoration and resistance Written by one of South Africa's leading scholars of visual history the book considers the ways in which photographs can be used to contest impunity for state violence Afterimages includes chapters on the Sharpeville and Marikana massacres on the re opening of cases of human rights violations that remain unresolved in the aftermath of the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission and on contemporary protests against the post apartheid state The book makes a powerful case for the role of photographs in drawing the viewer into the past time they represent issuing a call to the living to remember respond and react This vivid account of the photography of apartheid will be of interest to students and researchers across the fields of South African history visual studies memory studies art history photography studies and transitional justice Beyond the Mountain B. Camminga, Zethu Matebeni, 2023-02-10

Beyond The Mountain Queer Life in Africa's Gay Capital contributes to the body of knowledge on the lived experiences of lesbian gay bisexual transgender queer and intersex LGBTQI communities in Cape Town. The book provides insight on the lives of the LGBTQI communities in Cape Town and challenges the stereotypes and prejudices against these communities. The chapters consist of both narratives of lived experiences and academic discussions presented by novice as well as experienced scholars. The imagery of beyond the mountain is a depiction of the lives of LGBTQI community and immovable negative perceptions the general public have to them and seeks to expose their world and the kinds of violence and abuse they are subjected to as well as unveiling the racial discrimination within these communities. The book revolves around five themes: education, emancipation, protection, acceptance, and integration of those who identify as LGBTQI people in society. Human Rights and Citizenship Education Nektaria Palaiologou, Michalinos Zembylas, 2018-11-21. This volume examines different conceptualizations of human rights, citizenship, and interculturalism, as well as their interrelationships in different national contexts. This intersection in its various combinations is explored theoretically, pedagogically, and practically with the studies investigating whether certain human rights demands reveal patterns that are incompatible with citizenship and multiculturalist claims. Contributions also explore the theoretical and practical bases on which human rights, citizenship, and intercultural education should be grounded, as well as how human rights, citizenship, and intercultural education can join forces to make policy practice and research stronger and more robust. The issues explored in this volume continue to feature on policy agendas at local, national, and international levels at a time when considerable changes are taking place within and across societies. Particularly in Europe, the current refugee and migration crisis complicates this situation further, creating new complex challenges for countries and regions, including how to respond productively and justly to the migration of peoples, how to complement existing legal frameworks and modes of governance to face threats to social justice, security, and social cohesion of political and civil societies, and how to develop new rights that increase participation in social and political life, especially in groups that are vulnerable and marginalized. As shown here, however, these challenges provide unique opportunities to re-imagine the transformative potential of the intersection among intercultural, human rights, and citizenship education in different situations and contexts.
