Globalization of Internationalization Hans de Wit,Jocelyne Gacel-Ávila,Elspeth Jones,Nico Jooste,2017-01-20

The Globalization of Internationalization is a timely text which gives voice to emerging perspectives as an increasing range of countries engage in the process of internationalization The pressure to internationalize cannot be ignored by institutions anywhere in today s world yet the dominant paradigms in the conception of internationalization traditionally come from the English speaking world and Western Europe This book sets out to offer alternative viewpoints Different dimensions and interpretations of internationalization in countries and regions whose perspectives have received little attention to date provide food for thought and help to broaden understanding of its application in alternative contexts Combining diverse perspectives from around the world this new volume in the Internationalization in Higher Education series seeks answers to key questions such as What are the main characteristics of internationalization viewed from different cultural and regional backgrounds and how do they differ from traditional models such as in Western Europe North America and Australasia What issues in different global contexts have an impact on internationalization processes What are the key challenges and obstacles encountered in developing innovative and non traditional models of internationalization With contributions from world renowned international authors and perspectives from countries and contexts seen only rarely in the literature The Globalization of Internationalization offers distinctive overviews and insights while exploring a range of thematic and regional issues arising from these considerations This will be essential reading both as an academic resource and a practical manual for university leaders academics higher education policy advisers and non governmental organizations which fund higher education Postcolonial Constructivism Seifudein Adem, 2021-01-30 This book introduces Ali Mazrui's delightfully stimulating scholarship about intercultural relations calling it Postcolonial Constructivism and shares elements of his intellectual vitality in an original way. It begins with a chronicle of Mazrui's eventful sixty-year journey as a scholar of International Relations. It then proceeds to present some of the most remarkable yet least remarked-upon features of his intellectualism including his paradoxes, his perceptive typologies, his neologisms as well as his interactions with historical figures. The book draws on materials which were either unavailable until now or were found scattered in time and space. Designed as an invitation to a wider audience to the supermarket of Mazrui's ideas, this book also seeks to underscore the timeliness and possible durability of many of his observations about intercultural relations. Thorough, comprehensive and up to date, this book is a concise account of the core of Mazrui's vast body of work. Affirmative Intervention to Support Multispecies Relationships Janet J. McIntyre-Mills, 2024-11-29 This book offers a pioneering approach to collaborative co-authorship integrating storytelling, participatory action research and innovative uses of technology like Zoom to bridge geographical and cultural divides. The authors emphasize authentic dialogue using a form of metalogue to ensure all voices are heard and respected, thus avoiding ventriloquy (speaking for or over others). Their praxis revolves around performative and regenerative projects involving indigenous custodians, academics, students and community members aiming to address Species Apartheid and promote a more inclusive and sustainable future. The book's engagement model includes inner work focusing on critical analysis and analytical meditation on values and their consequences; outer work involving transformative education and organic food production workshops to engage a broad community of practice; and future work exploring narrative and if-then scenarios to envision new possibilities with an emphasis on creativity and courage. The authors draw inspiration from diverse sources including Indigenous knowledge systems and various academic institutes and organizations. Through their collaborative efforts, they aim to create a more inclusive, sustainable and just world. Social work in the 21st century (Prof.) Mogomme A. Masoga, Allucia L. Shokane, Annaline Keet, Varoshini Nadesan, 2024-12-30 This scholarly book, Social work in the 21st century: Scholarship and praxis reimagined towards vulnerability, is the third volume in the Knowledge Pathing Multi-Inter and Trans-Disciplining in Social Sciences book series. Chapters were invited from contributing authors who are involved in social work practice and education and who are dealing with the issues of poverty, inequality and vulnerability in these fields. The focus of the book emanates from the main conference theme and sub-themes of the ASASWEI Association of South African Social Work Education Institutions conference held in 2021. The theme of the conference, 'Pandemics, poverty, inequality and disability: Social work in the 21st century', provided an opportunity for deep deliberation, knowledge exchange and skills development on how vulnerable communities already on the economic margins of society, due to poverty and inequality, are further marginalised during significant societal disruptions such as the coronavirus 2019 COVID-19 pandemic. It is these deliberations which culminated in this book. Drawing on the papers presented, the chapters promote knowledge and skills around vulnerabilities in our social context and how the social work profession is challenged to interrogate its role in addressing the persistent challenges of poverty and inequality that keep people on the peripheries of human development The target audience for this book is primarily academics engaged in the field of social work and related fields

Negotiating Quality Concerns in Higher Education amidst Disruptions Felix Maringe, Otilia Chiramba, 2025-06-02 Quality is at the heart of organisational development It is the one single reason organisations make progress or fail dismally when it is absent Disruptions can both be a catalyst for innovation and progress on one hand but when they are not well handled they can cause organisations to spiral into catastrophe and oblivion This book is about how best to safeguard quality both during and beyond disruptions Based largely on research in South Africa the collection of essays will resonate with multiple higher education contexts and audiences Collectively the essays provide compelling reading for practitioners academics researchers and policy makers in higher education The book s central message is that while disruptions can expose our organisational weaknesses they create several opportunities to drive change and transformation The essays here capture the transition from crisis to high performance and ways in which universities can navigate such journeys The Origin and Growth of Geography as a discipline at South Africa Universities Gustav Visser,Ronnie Donaldson,Cecil Seethal,2016-09-20 Issues Around Aligning Theory, Research and Practice in Social Work Education Allucia L. Shokane,Jabulani C.

Makhubele,Lisa V. Blitz,2018-12-01 Issues Around Aligning Theory Research and Practice in Social Work Education provides a reflection on social work education with a slant towards an Afrocentric approach aiming to facilitate strong reflective thinking and to address local realities about social work education on the African continent as well as in broader global contexts This volume focuses on issues around aligning theory research and practice in social work education A significant contribution is made here to the scholarly understanding of opportunities to sustain the academic discourse on social work education Social work as a profession and a social science discipline is dynamic and it ought to meet the challenges of the realities of the societies in which it serves given the history of the changing society of South Africa from apartheid to democracy Over the years social work education and training has undergone tremendous curricular changes with the enactment of the White Paper for Social Welfare and the national review respectively by the South African Council for Social Services Professions SACSSP and the Council on Higher Education CHE for the re accreditation of all Bachelor of Social Work BSW programmes in South Africa fulfilling the prescripts of the Higher Education Act No 101 of 1997 as amended and Social Service Professions Act No 110 of 1978 It is worth mentioning that the curricular changes will also continue with the current reviewing of Social Service Professions Act No 110 of 1978 as amended which is underway in South Africa This book is really ground breaking The Afrocentric perspective on social work practice contributes to the current discourse on decolonisation of social work teaching and practice From a methodological perspective the book is premised on multi inter and trans disciplining in social sciences It covers aspects of social work education and practice through research narrative qualitative African methodology secondary data analysis etc engendering values and ethics report writing supervision in fieldwork as well as exchange programmes and international service learning addressing a number of concepts such as cultural competency cultural awareness and sensitivity are addressed Reimagining Effective Stakeholder

Governance Practices in Higher Education Felix Omal,2023-06-22 This book examines the role of the university governing council and the changing nature of university governance using a case study from a South African university The book considers the key challenging features of South African higher education in relation to current competing international trends in higher education governance It shows how major decision makers within the university operate within competing governance knowledge domains to exercise good practice within turbulent institutional contexts These diverse institutional cultures are examined in terms of their contribution to various governance practices presenting an emerging model of university governance known as the structural systemic cultural model Throwing light on the nature of challenges associated with the governance of universities in the post apartheid era this book will be of interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of higher education comparative education and education governance Also it will appeal to university councils and management across Africa

Jeannerat: An Ethnography of Faith ,2023-06-02 Research into the history of Christian missions in the context of colonialism has focused primarily on missions as institutions and on the ways in which people were integrated into the economic political and ideological spheres of imperial powers Reduced to an experience occurring within a person faith was deemed unapproachable by scientific methods This has in effect constituted a silence regarding the everyday experience of religiosity amongst those drawn to Christianity

Universities and Sustainable Communities: Meeting the Goals of the Agenda 2030 Walter Leal Filho,Ubiratã Tortato,Fernanda Frankenberger,2019-09-25 The book showcases examples of university engagement in community initiatives and reports on the results from research and from a variety of institutional projects and programmes As a whole the book illustrates how actors at the community microlevel and other levels meso and macro can make valuable and concrete contributions to the implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and more specifically to achieving the objectives defined at the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development It is one of the outcomes of the Second World Symposium on Sustainability Science which was jointly organised by the Pontifícia Universidade Católica do Paraná Brazil the Research and Transfer Centre Sustainable Development and Climate Change Management and the European School of Sustainability Science and Research at Hamburg University of Applied Sciences Germany in cooperation with the Inter University Sustainable Development Research Programme IUSDRP
