SADC Gender Protocol 2014 Barometer Morna, Colleen Lowe,Dube, Sifiso,2014-10-25 In August 2008 Heads of State of the Southern African Development Community adopted the ground breaking SADC Protocol on Gender and Development This followed a concerted campaign by NGOs under the umbrella of the Southern Africa Gender Protocol Alliance By the 2013 Heads of State summit 13 countries had signed and 12 countries had ratified the SADC Gender Protocol The Protocol is now in force With one year to go time is ticking to 2015 when governments need to have achieved 28 targets for the attainment of gender equality In keeping with the Alliance slogan Yes we must this 2014 Barometer provides a wealth of updated data against which progress will be measure by all those who cherish democracy in the region The world and SADC is also looking to the future with the post 2015 agenda Now is the time to strengthen resolve reconsider reposition and re strategise for 2030 Mapping research and innovation in the Republic of Zimbabwe Lemarchand, Guillermo

A.,Schneegans, Susan,2014-08-11 Handbook of Research on Resource Management and the Struggle for Water Sustainability in Africa Nojiyeza, Innocent Simphiwe,Mtapuri, Oliver,Bazaanah, Prosper,Netshiozwi, Edzisani Ellen,2022-01-28 Access to water and sanitation remains a critical challenge in various countries in Africa The crisis remains the crisis of governance rather than the physical and economic scarcity In most countries water is realized as a human right and subsidies are provided for the indigent households The tricky issue in rural areas remains an issue of access that is often linked to willingness and ability to pay for the installation and daily consumption The Handbook of Research on Resource Management and the Struggle for Water Sustainability in Africa presents practical examples of integrated water resources management IWRM implementation in African countries It further addresses the contemporary issues of alternative energy as part of climate change mitigation and utilizes case studies to examine how communities adapt to climate change Covering topics such as climate justice ecological governance and political ecology this major reference work is a dynamic resource for government officials sociologists climate scientists activists students and educators of higher education academicians and researchers in the fields of social sciences government developmental studies international relations and political science

Language and Institutional Identity in the Post-Apartheid South African Higher Education Leketi Makalela,2022-03-21 This book examines the intersections between education identity formation and language in post apartheid South Africa with specific attention to higher education It does so against the backdrop of the core argument that the sector plays a critical role in shaping re producing and perpetuating sectoral class sub national and national identities which in turn in the peculiar South African setting are almost invariably analogous with the historical fault lines determined and dictated by language as a marker of ethnic and racial identity The chapters in the book grapple with the nuances related to these intersections in the understanding that higher education language policies overt and or covert largely structure institutional cultures or what has been described as curriculum in higher education institutions Together the chapters examine the roles played by higher education by language policies and by the intersections of these policies and ethnolinguistic identities in either constructing and perpetuating or deconstructing ethnolinguistic identities upon which the sector was founded The introductory chapter lays out the background to the entire book with an emphasis on the policy and practice perspectives on the intersections The middle chapters describe the so called White Universities Black Universities and Middle Man Minorities Universities The final chapter maps out future directions of the discourses on language and identity formation in South Africa s higher education

Building Resilience to Climate Change in Selected Districts in Zimbabwe Lindah Mhlanga,Kefasi Nyikahadzoi,Jayne Stack,2025-01-31 The book is based on Zimbabwe Resilience Building Fund data from the Outcome Monitoring Surveys 1 2 3 OMS123 which comprised of three rounds of panel data set with the same households being interviewed three consecutive times in 18 districts The OMS1 OMS2 and OMS3 were undertaken in 2019 2020 and 2021 respectively The findings in this book demonstrate and provide a better understanding of what works and what does not work to strengthen communities resilience in Zimbabwe The information contributed in each chapter will be useful to inform adaptive programming and design of future resilience interventions and policy with a focus on Climate Resilient Development CRD The chapters also address the challenge of formulating concrete policy in an environment with severe data constraints

Global Food Security Zhang-Yue Zhou,2019-12-06 This book looks at food security from a socio economic perspective It offers a detailed and systematic examination of food security from its historical backgrounds concepts and measurements to the determinants and approaches to achieve food security The book also introduces the key challenges and root causes of food insecurity Through country specific cases the book highlights instances of both successful and disastrous national food security management and their outcomes The invaluable learning experiences of these countries shed light on food security practices and the straightforward demand supply framework effectively guides readers in understanding food security issues This is an essential resource for anyone who is keen to learn more about food security particularly researchers and university students who are new to the field The book endeavours to help us reflect on the current phenomenon and strategize better for the future

Quality in Higher Education as a Tool for Human Development Patience Mukwambo,2019-04-11 Whilst many studies have explored how quality in higher education is conceptualised in the Global North less attention has been paid to quality in higher education in Africa and the Global South This book uses the human development and capabilities approach to demonstrate how quality in teaching and learning contributes to a range of benefits such as improved wellbeing economic outcomes political engagement and human capital formation amongst graduates The book interrogates the various dimensions of quality as well as factors that impact on the realisation of quality in universities and society at large Recognising that measures of quality are context and stakeholder specific the book uses the Zimbabwean context as a Global South case study It evaluates how quality is conceptualised and operationalised in Zimbabwean universities and how that impacts on teaching and learning policy and practice The book also demonstrates the need for economic resources for individuals and universities and emphasises the importance of a social and educational environment conducive to critical learning and post university opportunities This book will be of interest to researchers across Education African and Development Studies as well as to policymakers and practitioners with an interest in quality assurance and the promotion of teaching and learning in universities in the Global South Faculty Perspectives on Vocational Training in South Africa Eunice Ivala, Chaunda Scott, 2019-03-06 The Cape Peninsula University of Technology CPUT is one of four Universities of Technology established by the South African government in 2005 with a focus on vocational training This book presents faculty experiences of CPUT's innovative work integrated learning and teaching model as well as findings from practice based research being done in the institution The purpose of this volume is to be a resource for other institutions in South Africa that wish to try similar strategies as well as a to trigger a community of practice with vocationally oriented institutions outside of South Africa Challenges and Opportunities for Inclusive Development in Ethiopia Rahmato, Dessalegn, Ayenew, Meheret, 2019-03-25 As part of its on going public dialogue program on progress in Ethiopia's development and public policy the Forum for Social Studies is undertaking a project of research and public dialogue on a number of selected topics on the theme of Prospects and Challenges for Inclusive and Participatory Development in Ethiopia The aim is to enable researchers and professionals to present evidence based papers to stimulate debate and reflection This first book in the program looks at the impact of development or lack of it on specific social groups namely women young people and vulnerable groups that should be entitled to decent social care Achieving sustainable production of milk Volume 2 Dr Nico van Belzen, 2017-06-06 Summarises current research on pathogenic risks affecting milk and ways they can be controlled on the farm Reviews ways of measuring and reducing the environmental impact of dairy farming such as better grassland management Assesses the wider role of dairy farming and how it can be improved in the developing world Trends in Control and Measurement Education D.P.
