General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum. Department of Printed Books,1959 Your History with Me Sarah Nuttall,2024-07-12 The critics scholars curators artists and filmmakers in this volume examine the films of Penny Siopis showing how they remake the possibility of film as a mode of experimentation and intervention A History of the University College of Fort Hare, South Africa, the 1950s Donovan Williams,2001 This book examines how staff and students opposed the legislation to place the college under government control and reduce its staff to civil servants The affairs of the college are discussed against the background of rapidly changing conditions in South Africa with campus disturbances and protests sometimes linked to the wider application of apartheid BOOK JACKET Unsettled History Leslie Witz,Gary Minkley,Ciraj Rassool,2017-02-27 An engrossing look at how history has been produced contested and unsettled in South Africa from Mandela s release to 2010 The Walking in Traffic Safely (WITS) Program for Preschoolers ,1985 Traffic safety curriculum for prevention of pedestrian accidents among small children The Barbershop Quartet Colin Froman,2005 The author grew up in South Africa His book describes a life style of education both in Johannesburg and then in Oxford in the mid 20th Century A medical career in physiology general surgery and neurosurgery led to encounters with patients medical colleagues and tort lawyers whose personal stories talents and idiosyncrasies colour the book These histories are painted against the background of the trials and tribulations of the practice of medicine in South Africa in the era when Verwoerd and his successors strode the stage Interspersed throughout are excerpts from the life stories and scientific contributions of researchers in the fields of surgical physiology general and spinal surgery The dramatic progress of neuroradiology and aspects of medicine and surgery across the century form a backdrop to the catalogue of life in the Black hospitals of Johannesburg The problems of medical ethics of survival from womb to tomb and the conflicts that arise from cultures and legal constraints against the practice of euthanasia are always in play Right to life issues contrast with a death wish of some personalities in a morbid field of medicine and add to the drama of life and death played out in the story This volume will appeal to doctors lawyers patients road crash victims and anybody with an interest in the wide fields of medical and social history of the 20th Century Zionist Israel and Apartheid South Africa Amneh Badran,2009-09-10 This book is a comparison of two ethnic national apartheid states South Africa and Israel which have been in conflict and how internal dissent has developed In particular it examines the evolution of effective white protest in South Africa and explores the reasons why comparably powerful movements have not emerged in Israel The book reveals patterns of behaviour shared by groups in both cases It argues that although the role played by protest groups in peace building may be limited a tipping point or magic point can become as significant as other major factors It highlights the role played by intermediate variables that affect the pathways of protest groups such as changes in the international system the visions and strategies of resistance movements and their degree of success the economic relationship between the dominant and dominated side and the legitimacy of the ideology in power apartheid or Zionism Although the politics and roles of protest groups in both cases share some similarities differences remain Whilst white protest groups moved towards an inclusive peace agenda that adopts the ANC vision of a united non racial democratic South Africa the Jewish Israeli protest groups are still by majority entrenched in their support for an exclusive Jewish state And as such they support separation between the two peoples and a limited division of mandatory Palestine Eretz Israel This timely book sheds light on a controversial and explosive political issue Israel being compared to apartheid South Africa Feminist Collections ,1995

Wounded Healers & Reconciliation Fatigue Bryan Mark Urbsaitis,2009-06-01 How do NGOs understandings of reconciliation differ from those of their clients within a larger project of national healing How do staff at these NGOs balance remembering the past with nation building and international development when they may be victims themselves Why do certain groups and individuals continue to feel marginalized so long after liberation And how might NGOs in South Africa constitute a reconciliation social movement Wounded Healers argues that while South Africans have been reconciling apartheid era abuses since 1994 ongoing reconciliation struggles of individuals must not be overlooked within the larger quest for national healing Focusing on memorialization missing persons 30 000R reparation payouts as well as on the continued oppression of marginalized identity based on culture race class gender sexual orientation and HIV and AIDS this ethnographic analysis will appeal to all those interested in post conflict democratization NGOs international development non Western communication conflict peace building communication education ethnography cultural anthropology activism Africa and anyone interested in global social justice Digital Technologies and Gendered Realities Lakshmi Lingam,Nolwazi Mkhwanazi,2024-09-13 The book explores the varying experiences and engagement of youth with smartphones and digital technologies in India and South Africa It examines the process of meaning making identity construction garnered through smartphone technology specifically relating to notions of love sex and sexuality A keen reappraisal of the smartphone revolution the essays underline the constant negotiations between technology and social institutions such as family schools colleges universities religious groups traditional community leaders media police law and governments The volume looks at new forms of digital based surveillance on girls women and gender minorities and maps the responses of state civil society and women s movements in tackling the divergent narratives of freedom versus control empowerment versus violence It specifically looks at how concepts of privacy agency autonomy and consent are being framed in the legal arena regarding young women which may or may not be empowering of their agency and choices Challenging notions about gender technology and society this book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of sociology and social anthropology politics gender studies and Global South studies Civil Engineering ,1997 The Conservation of Decorated Surfaces on Earthen Architecture L. Rrainer (ed.),Angelyn Bass Rivera,2006 For millennia people of all cultures have decorated the surfaces of their domestic religious and public buildings Earthen architecture in particular has been and continues to be a common ground for surface decoration such as paintings sculpted bas relief and ornamental plasterwork This volume explores the complex issues associated with preserving these surfaces Case studies from Asia Europe Africa the Middle East and the Americas are presented The publication is the result of a colloquium held in 2004 at Mesa Verde National Park Colorado co organized by the Getty Conservation Institute GCI and the National Park Service NPS The meeting brought together fifty five conservators cultural resource managers materials scientists engineers architects archaeologists anthropologists and artists from eleven countries Divided into four themes Archaeological Sites Museum Practice Historic Buildings and Living Traditions the papers examine the conservation of decorated surfaces on earthen architecture within these different contexts

The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books to 1975 British Library,1984 Wits Sport Jonty Winch,1989 Johannesburg Then and Now Marc Latilla,2018-10-01 In less than a century the jumble of shabby tents and lean tos that constituted Johannesburg s first settlement has grown into a modern metropolis of towering office buildings high rise apartments and sprawling suburbs Its rapid development has been in no small measure the result of the fabulous wealth that lay in the goldrich deposits of the now famous Witwatersrand basin The story of gold is also the story of Johannesburg and in a fascinating series of photographic juxtapositions Johannesburg Then and Now chronicles the city s expansion from dusty mining camp to economic powerhouse Rare archival photographs dating from the 1880s to the 1940s are contrasted with vivid scenes of the modern city providing a hitherto untold portrait of the Place of Gold Where possible the modern day photographs have been shot from the same locations as the originals Detailed captions provide fascinating comparisons between the old and the new while also illuminating features that have remained the same Johannesburg Then and Now is a superb collection of images and text that will delight both local residents and visitors Sales points Fascinating portrait of early and modern Johannesburg Rare archival photographs 1880 1950 many never published before Informative and well researched text Beautiful and elegantly designed coffee table book Excellent gift and keepsake Companion volume to the successful Cape Town Then and Now

A Place That Matters Yet Sara Byala,2024-05-31 A Place That Matters Yet unearths the little known story of Johannesburg s MuseumAfrica a South African history museum that embodies one of the most dynamic and fraught stories of colonialism and postcolonialism its life spanning the eras before during and after apartheid Sara Byala in examining this story sheds new light not only on racism and its institutionalization in South Africa but also on the problems facing any museum that is charged with navigating colonial history from a postcolonial perspective Drawing on thirty years of personal letters and public writings by museum founder John Gubbins Byala paints a picture of a uniquely progressive colonist focusing on his philosophical notion of three dimensional thinking which aimed to transcend binaries and thus quite explicitly racism Unfortunately Gubbins died within weeks of the museum s opening and his hopes would go unrealized as the museum fell in line with emergent apartheid politics Following the museum through this transformation and on to its 1994 reconfiguration as a post apartheid institution Byala showcases it as a rich and problematic archive of both material culture and the ideas that surround that culture arguing for its continued importance in the establishment of a unified South Africa Subject Index of Modern Books Acquired British Museum. Department of Printed Books, 1965 Communication Ethics in an Age of Diversity Josina M. Makau, Ronald C. Arnett, 1997 In this volume leading communication scholars integrate cutting edge research with real world dilemmas as they address ethical problems associated with technological and cultural changes and demographic shifts In eleven chapters the fourteen contributors to Communication Ethics in an Age of Diversity consider the implications of these changes to communication contexts ranging from personal friendships to communication over the internet and from classroom dialogues to mass mediated communication to community building in an age of diversity They address specific issues associated with race gender ethnicity and affectional orientation offering specific proposals for change Although the primary audience is scholars and teachers in communication programs the book will be of particular interest to readers in various disciplines in the humanities and social sciences especially individuals in centers and departments of ethnic studies women s studies and African American studies CONTRIBUTORS Julia T Wood Ronald C Arnett Josina M Makau Dolores V Tanno Barbara Paige Pointer Gale Auletta Young Lea P Stewart James W Chesebro Richard L Johannesen Clifford G Christians James A Jaksa Michael S Pritchard Jana Kramer Cheris Kramarae WSP Calendar & Bulletin , 1994 Public Intellectuals in South Africa Chris Broodryk, 2021-07-01 This edited collection gives voice to neglected public intellectuals in the arts humanities and journalism in South Africa who gave voice and presence to those who have been marginalized and silenced in South African history Edward Said described a public intellectual as someone who uses accessible language to address a designated public on matters of social and political significance The essays in Public Intellectuals in South Africa apply this interpretive prism and activist principle to a South African context and tell the stories of well known figures as well as some that have been mostly forgotten They include Magesa Fuze John Dube Aggrey Klaaste Mewa Ramgobin and Koos Roets alongside marginalized figures such as Elijah Makiwane Mandisi Sindo William Pretorius and Dr Thomas Duncan Greenlees The essays capture the thoughts and opinions of these historical figures who the contributors argue are public intellectuals who spoke out against the corruption of power promoted a progressive politics that challenged the colonial project and its legacies and encouraged a sustained dissent of the political status quo Offering fascinating accounts of the life and work of these writers critics and activists across a range of historical contexts and disciplines from journalism and arts criticism to history and politics it enriches the historical record of South African public intellectual life This volume makes a significant contribution to ongoing debates about the value of research in the arts and humanities and what constitutes public intellectualism in South Africa
