Labour Migration, Human Trafficking and Multinational Corporations Ato Quayson, Antonela Arhin, 2013-06-19 Although much literature on human trafficking focuses on sex trafficking a great deal of human trafficking results from migrant workers compelled by economic deprivation in their home countries to seek better life opportunities abroad especially in agriculture construction and domestic work Such labour migration is sometimes legal and well managed but sometimes not so with migrant workers frequently threatened or coerced into entering debt bondage arrangements and ending up working in forced labour situations producing goods for illicit markets This book fills a substantial gap in the existing literature given that labour trafficking is a much more subtle form of exploitation than sex trafficking It discusses how far large multinational corporations are involved whether intentionally or unintentionally in human trafficking for the purposes of labour exploitation They explore how far corporations are driven to seek cheap labour by the need to remain commercially competitive and examine how the problem often lies with corporations subcontractors who are not as well controlled as they might be The essays in the volume also outline and assess measures being taken by governments and international agencies to eradicate the problem

Maritime Security Cooperation in the Gulf of Guinea Kamal-Deen Ali, 2015-07-28 In Maritime Security Cooperation in the Guinea Prospects and Challenges Kamal Deen Ali provides ground breaking analyses of the maritime security situation in the Gulf of Guinea and its implications for shipping energy security sustainable fisheries as well as national and regional security The book juxtaposes the growing strategic importance of the Gulf of Guinea against the rising insecurity in the maritime domain especially from piracy Ali points out key gaps in prevailing regional and international approaches to maritime security cooperation in the Gulf of Guinea and sets out several suggestions for combating piracy as well as other maritime security threats while effectively enhancing maritime security cooperation in the region A West African Model to Address Human Trafficking Paul V.I. Sidlawinde Karenga, 2022-02-02 This book describes the nature of trafficking in persons in West Africa focusing on labor and sexual exploitation in the region and recommends tailor made solutions established by the Catholic Church in light of governmental authorities failure to effectively combat this scourge of humanity While states efforts to fulfill their international obligations in developing anti trafficking legislations are recognized their failure to carry out prosecutions of offenders and ensure protection of the victims reveals that law alone is not a sufficient instrument for realizing human rights and improving people s lives Faced with the sobering background of less than successful efforts by governmental entities to end the trade in humans this research study recommends adopting essential elements of Catholic social teaching which rests on the inherent dignity of human beings allowing the development of political socio cultural and religious reforms that will increase the effectiveness of existing legislation designed to combat trafficking This faith based approach highlights the role that religion may play in fulfilling the discretionary provisions of the Palermo Protocol by promoting the welfare and protecting the life and dignity of the victims Additionally religion is composed of sound moral ethics that determine people s behavior to refrain from the sinful conduct of trafficking It also creates a sense of ethical responsibility that promotes supply chain transparency and ethical purchasing as well as advocating social reforms and anti trafficking legislations initiatives In fact the author s approach may be a model for other regions in the world and will be of interest to scholars law and policy makers human rights advocates and law enforcement agents working in the field of trafficking in persons Globalization and Its Impact on Violence Against Vulnerable Groups Boskovic, Milica

S., 2019-08-16 Violence is most common when there is a power disparity between two groups of people and those with less power are far more likely to become the victim in a violent situation Environment has as much influence on whether or not violence will occur as the person or people involved and this relationship has drawn the attention of researchers worldwide Globalization and Its Impact on Violence Against Vulnerable Groups is an essential source that provides research that delves deeply into occurrences of violence and the environmental and personal influences that lead to violence in order to better understand and prevent it from happening Featuring a wide range of topics such as e blackmail human displacement and psychology this book is ideal for criminologists law enforcement psychologists therapists academicians sociologists anthropologists government officials researchers and students Human Trafficking in Africa Alecia Dionne

Hoffman, Sabella Ogbobode Abidde, 2021-12-13 This edited volume examines the contemporary practice of human trafficking on the African continent It investigates the scourge of human trafficking in Africa from the broader international and regional perspectives as well as from a country specific context Written by a multi disciplinary panel of academics and practitioners the book is divided into three sections that highlight a wide range of issues Section One examines the theoretical and legal challenges of trafficking Section Two focuses on the regional and nation state perspectives of human trafficking along with selected cases of trafficking Section Three highlights the impact of trafficking on youth with specific attention given to child soldiering and female victims of trafficking Providing a multi faceted approach to a problem that crosses multiple disciplines this volume will be useful to scholars and students interested in African politics African studies migration human rights sociology law and economics as well as members of the diplomatic corps governmental intergovernmental and non governmental organizations Conflict and Fragility Resource Flows to Fragile and Conflict-Affected States

OECD,2010-11-04 This report serves as a tool to better monitor the levels timing and composition of resource flows to fragile states and presents salient facts on aid flows to fragile states the impact on fragile states of the three crises and the need for a whole of government response Transnational Organised Crime in International Law Tom Obokata,2010-08-17

There is extensive and detailed academic literature on the legal development of international crimes such as war crimes and crime against humanity However not much attention has been paid to other serious crimes including narcotics related offences human trafficking and money laundering which do not necessarily amount to international crimes in the traditional sense The purpose of this monograph is to fill this gap and offer a critical analysis of developments in the field of transnational organised crime under international law The book is divided into two parts Part I is entitled Norms Principles and Concepts It traces the history of organised crime and explores key concepts and norms relating to the practice from a multi disciplinary perspective It then looks at legal obligations imposed upon States as well as non State actors in relation to transnational organised crime Part II illustrates how these norms principles and obligations are translated and enforced in practice This will be done through case studies at the level of national law Thailand Serbia and the UK regional law European Union and international law United Nations A book of many parts its thematic coherence comes from its devotion to identifying the social threat posed by organised crime and the legal steps taken at the international and national levels against that threat Rich with example and illustration and written in a light direct style it will provide a lucid guide for practitioners policy makers and students to the largely untraversed territory of the international legal system set up to suppress transnational organised crime Professor Neil Bolster University of Canterbury New Zealand the international law governing organized crime is a close relative of the body of law applicable to the International Criminal Court and similar institutions It provides a forum to address issues of more general concern such as the scope of universal jurisdiction immunities statutory limitation and extradition Tom Obokata s study with its original and in some ways unique perspective enriches our knowledge of the field Professor William Schabas Irish Centre for Human Rights The book is well written its documentation is quite exhaustive and its thesis is timely and compelling Professor M Cherif Bassiouni DePaul University College of Law Transnational Crimes in the Americas Marshall B. Lloyd,2018-10-30 Transnational Crimes in the Americas addresses contemporary issues with respect to public institutions that are stakeholders in the fight against globalization of crime Regional public organizations with a primary focus on the Americas constitute a framework for understanding the need for an institutional response within the Western Hemisphere While other authors have addressed the growth of organized crime no one has explained institutional developments in the struggle against transnational crimes Transnational Crimes in the Americas highlights existing organizations emphasizing a regional response to transnational crimes suggestions for a permanent criminal court in the Americas and an appraisal of the current state of institutional developments in the region The Routledge Handbook of Women's Experiences of Criminal Justice Isla

Masson,Natalie Booth,2022-10-25 This Handbook brings together the voices of a range of contributors interested in the many varied experiences of women in criminal justice systems and who are seeking to challenge the status quo Although there is increasing literature and research on gender and certain aspects of the criminal justice system often Western focused there is a significant gap in the form of a Handbook that brings together these important gendered conversations This essential book explores research and theory on how women are perceived handled and experience criminal justice within and across different jurisdictions with particular consideration of gendered and disparate treatment of women as law breakers There is also consideration of women s experiences through an intersectional lens including race and class as well as feminist scholarship and activism The Handbook contains 47 unique chapters with nine overarching themes Lessons from history and theory Routes into the criminal justice system Intersectionality Sentencing and the courts and community punishments Specific offences Incarcerated women s experiences Mothers and families Rehabilitation and reintegration Practitioner relationships and each theme includes contributions from different countries as well as the experiences of contributors from different stages in their own journey International and interdisciplinary in scope this Handbook is essential reading for scholars and students of criminology sociology social policy social work and law It will also be of interest to practitioners such as social workers probation officers prison officers and policy makers The Domestication of Human Trafficking

Katrin Roots,2022-11-01 Human trafficking has emerged as one of the top international and domestic policy concerns and is well covered and often sensationalized by the media The nature of the topic combined with various international pressures has resulted in an array of government led mandates to combat the issue The Domestication of Human Trafficking examines Canada s criminal justice approaches to human trafficking with a particular focus on the ways in which the intersecting factors of race class gender and sexuality impact practice Using a wide range of qualitative and empirically grounded research methods including extensive analysis of court documents trial transcripts and interviews with criminal justice actors this book contributes to much needed research that examines specifies and sometimes complicates the narratives of how trafficking works as a criminal offence The Domestication of Human Trafficking turns our attention to the ways in which the offence of human trafficking is made on the front lines of criminal justice efforts in Canada International Law and

Transnational Organised Crime Pierre Hauck,Sven Peterke,2016-08-11 Since the end of the Cold War states have become increasingly engaged in the suppression of transnational organised crime The existence of the UN Convention against Transnational Organised Crime and its Protocols demonstrates the necessity to comprehend this subject in a systematic way Synthesizing the various sources of law that form this area of growing academic and practical importance International Law and Transnational Organised Crime provides readers with a thorough understanding of the key concepts and legal instruments in international law governing transnational organised crime The volume analyses transnational organised crime in consideration of the most relevant subareas of international law such as international human rights and the law of armed conflict Written by internationally recognized scholars in international and criminal law as well as respected high level practitioners this book is a useful tool for lawyers public agents and academics seeking straightforward and comprehensive access to a complex and significant topic

Non-Traditional Security in Asia Mely Caballero-Anthony, Alistair D.B. Cook, 2013 Non Traditional Security in Asia examines the critical security challenges faced by states and societies in Asia including health food water natural disasters internal conflict forced migration energy transnational crime and cyber security Through the development of a comprehensive analytical framework that establishes the key ingredients to policy evaluation the editors draw on a wide variety of experts to collaborate in investigating these crucial issues This inclusive framework ensures that all voices are heard including those oftentimes under represented and marginalized in society to ensure that academic and policy debates are well informed about the often complex and nuanced nature of these non traditional security challenges Through an investigation into these specific non traditional security threats Non Traditional Security in Asia documents and evaluates many of the most pressing challenges faced by Asia today The authors analyse the ways in which particular issues are addressed by the many stakeholders involved in the policy making process both within governments and across societies The question of how these challenges are addressed across and between the different levels of global governance highlights the strengths and weakness that are directly attributable to policy successes and failures It is through this layered and comprehensive approach together with an evaluation of the role of stakeholders which binds together the chapter contributions to this collection The book undertakes an issue specific chapter study of how Asian states and societies address these non traditional security concerns from environmental adaptation and mitigation measures to conflict resolution For each issue area it identifies and explains the concerns of various policy communities identifying the motivations behind some of the key decisions made to affect change or stabilize the status quo Essentially it questions not only what a security issue is but also for whom the issue is important and the interaction this has with policy outcomes With a focus on regional and global institutions as well as national and local ones this collection illustrates the variety of stakeholders involved in non traditional security concerns and reflects on their relative importance in the decision making process Through a systematic evaluation of these non traditional security issues by employing a comprehensive analytical framework critical appreciation of the dynamics of the policy making process surrounding issues of crucial national regional and international significance in
