Optimization Methods and Applications

Xiao-qi Yang, Kok Lay Teo, Lou Caccetta, 2013-03-14 This edited book is dedicated to Professor N U Ahmed a leading scholar and a renowned researcher in optimal control and optimization on the occasion of his retirement from the Department of Electrical Engineering at University of Ottawa in 1999 The contributions of this volume are in the areas of optimal control non linear optimization and optimization applications They are mainly the improved and expanded versions of the papers selected from those presented in two special sessions of two international conferences The first special session is Optimization Methods which was organized by K L Teo and X Q Yang for the International Conference on Optimization and Variational Inequality the City University of Hong Kong Hong Kong 1998 The other one is Optimal Control which was organized by K Teo and L Caccetta for the Dynamic Control Congress Ottawa 1999 This volume is divided into three parts Optimal Control Optimization Methods and Applications The Optimal Control part is concerned with computational methods modeling and nonlinear systems Three computational methods for solving optimal control problems are presented i a regularization method for computing ill conditioned optimal control problems ii penalty function methods that appropriately handle final state equality constraints and iii a multilevel optimization approach for the numerical solution of optimal control problems In the fourth paper the worst case optimal regulation involving linear time varying systems is formulated as a minimax optimal control problem Leadership and Agency by Women Engineers in South Africa Hannelie

Nel, 2015-07-06 The book discusses the current and relevant issues that women engineers face in their work and daily lives in South Africa as well as the challenges and reward that women experience and the motivation they have for their careers We share with the reader the reality and truth of being a woman working as an engineer in a country as challenging and diverse

Leading in the 21st Century Tshilidzi Marwala,2021-01-04 It became apparent to me that due to the complexity of problems that face humanity today those who do not know should not lead Professor Tshilidzi Marwala In 2020 the world found itself in a state of flux A global pandemic disrupted the world order while the digital transformation of the Fourth Industrial Revolution 4IR with its challenges and huge potential benefits presented a fundamental paradigm shift How are Africa s leaders to respond today In a crisis decisive leadership is imperative for the public good but as we move beyond the pandemic and confront the changes of the 4IR we must determine how we will adapt What is clear is that leadership will have to be grounded in scientific and mathematical thinking and in good governance It follows then that for South Africa to succeed as a nation in the 21st century we must be able to provide our people with an all embracing education not just science and technology but human and social sciences as well Leading in the 21st Century presents a comprehensive overview of how the world is changing and lessons we can draw from leaders particularly in the African context From Charlotte Maxeke and the Rain Queen Modjadji to Mangaliso Robert Sobukwe Eric Molobi and Richard Maponya there is much to learn from great leaders The challenges of the 21st century are immense from climate change to social media and the digital divide that deepens our understanding of inequality particularly in the new normal South Africa faces not only a shifting global context but a fraught local context of stagnant growth rising unemployment and deep seated inequality worsened in 2020 by the national lockdown necessitated by the coronavirus pandemic The 4IR offers solutions to many of our most pressing problems and we cannot afford to be left behind The certainty is that the 4IR has arrived The debates lie in how we respond to it Tshilidzi Marwala deciphers it all while providing a framework for navigating these shifts A leading academic of international standing and Deputy Chair of South Africa s Presidential 4IR Commission Tshilidzi Marwala provides valuable insights into how leadership should be responding to the digital challenges of the 21st century
