The Aesthetics and Politics of Linguistic Borders Heidi Grönstrand, Markus Huss, Ralf Kauranen, 2019-10-18 This collection showcases a multivalent approach to the study of literary multilingualism embodied in contemporary Nordic literature. While previous approaches to literary multilingualism have tended to take a textual or authorship focus, this book advocates for a theoretical perspective which reflects the multiplicity of languages in use in contemporary literature emerging from increased globalization and transnational interaction. Drawing on a multimodal range of examples from contemporary Nordic literature, these eighteen chapters illustrate the ways in which multilingualism is dynamic rather than fixed, resulting from the interactions between authors, texts and readers as well as between literary and socio-political institutions. The book highlights the processes by which borders are formed within the production, circulation and reception of literature and in turn the impact of these borders on issues around cultural, linguistic and national belonging. Introducing an innovative approach to the study of multilingualism in literature, this collection will be of particular interest to students and researchers in literary studies, cultural studies and multilingualism. The Open Access version of this book is available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> and has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non-Commercial No Derivatives CC BY-NC-ND 4.0 license.

Literary Translation Chantal Wright, 2016-02-12 Routledge Translation Guides cover the key translation text types and genres and equip translators and students of translation with the skills needed to translate them. Concise, accessible and written by leading authorities, they include examples from existing translations, activities, further reading suggestions and a glossary of key terms. Literary Translation introduces students to the components of the discipline and models the practice. Three concise chapters help to familiarize students with what motivates the act of translation, how to read and critique literary translations, how to read for translation. A range of sustained case studies, both from existing sources and the author's own research, are provided along with a selection of relevant tasks and activities and a detailed glossary. The book is also complemented by a feature entitled 'How to get started in literary translation' on the Routledge Translation Studies Portal <http://www.routledge.com/textbooks/translationstudies>. Literary Translation is an essential guidebook for all students of literary translation within advanced undergraduate and postgraduate graduate programmes in translation studies, comparative literature and modern languages.

Out of This World Rachel S. Cordasco, 2021-12-28 The twenty-first century has witnessed an explosion of speculative fiction in translation. SFT Rachel Cordasco examines speculative fiction published in English translation since 1960, ranging from Soviet-era fiction to the Arabic language dystopias that emerged following the Iraq War. Individual chapters on SFT from Korean, Czech, Finnish and eleven other source languages feature an introduction by an expert in the language's speculative fiction tradition and its present-day output. Cordasco then breaks down each chapter by subgenre, including science fiction, fantasy and horror, to guide readers toward the kinds of works that most interest them. Her discussion of available SFT stands alongside an analysis of how various subgenres emerged and developed.

in a given language She also examines the reasons a given subgenre has been translated into English An informative and one of a kind guide Out of This World offers readers and scholars alike a tour of speculative fiction s new globalized era The BBC National Short Story Award 2014 Zadie Smith,Lionel Shriver,Rose Tremain,Tessa Hadley,Francesca Rhydderich,2014-09-17 Short story writers often say that for maximum dramatic effect you should arrive fashionably late to a scene After years of living in the literary wilderness it seems the short story s own moment has finally arrived The last twelve months have marked an extraordinary year for the form The Nobel Prize for Literature the Man Booker International Prize the Folio Prize and the Independent Foreign Fiction Prize were all awarded to short story writers The shortlist for the BBC National Short Story Award 2014 captures the spirit of this mood and the short story s knack for cutting straight to the action the all important moment of change The five stories on this year s shortlist were chosen by a panel of judges that included poet and novelist Adam Foulds author illustrator and performer Laura Dockrill editor Philip Gwyn Jones BBC Editor of Books Di Speirs and the broadcaster Alan Yentob who chaired the panel and introduces this collection Assembling Exclusive Expertise Anna Leander,Ole Waever,2018-07-06 This book looks at the worlding of the Global South in the process of assembling conflict resolution expertise Anna Leander Ole W ver and their contributors pursue this ambition by following the experts institutions databases and creative expressions that are assembled into conflict resolution expertise in the Global South Expertise shapes how conflicts in the Global South are understood and consequently dealt with Yet expertise is always and necessarily exclusive The exclusivity of expertise refers both to the fashionable the sophisticated and what counts and also to the exclusion of some people or views Assembled from a wealth of competing knowledges expertise is always both knowledgeable and ignorant The ambition of the volume is to explore how this exclusive expertise is assembled and in what ways it is therefore knowledgeable and ignorant of knowledges in of the Global South This work will be of significant interest to advanced students and scholars of conflict resolution peace research mediation and international relations and scholars of expertise Horror Fiction in the Global South Ritwick Bhattacharjee,Saikat Ghosh,2021-04-30 Horror Fiction in the Global South Cultures Narratives and Representations believes that the experiences of horror are not just individual but also simultaneously cultural Within this understanding literary productions become rather potent sites for the relation of such experiences both on the individual and the cultural front It s not coincidental then that either William Blatty s The Exorcist or Gabriel Garcia Marquez s One Hundred Years of Solitude become archetypes of the re presentations of the way horror affects individuals placed inside different cultures Such an affectation though is but a beginning of the ways in which the supernatural interacts with the human and gives rise to horror Considering that almost all aspects of what we now designate as the Global North and its concomitant the Global South political historical social economic cultural and so on function as different paradigms the experiences of horror and their telling in stories become functionally different as well Added to this are the variations that one nation or culture of the east has from another The present anthology of essays in such a scheme of things seeks to examine and demonstrate these cultural differences embedded in the impact that figures of horror and specters of the night have on the narrative imagination of storytellers from the Global South If horror has an everyday presence in the phenomenal reality that Southern cultures subscribe to it demands alternative phenomenology The anthology allows scholars and connoisseurs of Horror to explore theoretical possibilities that may help address precisely such a need

Iraq + 100 Hassan Blasim, 2025-09-23 One of NPR's Best Books of 2017 A groundbreaking anthology of science fiction from Iraq that will challenge your perception of what it means to be The Other History is a hostage but it will bite through the gag you tie around its mouth bite through and still be heard Operation Daniel In a calm and serene world one has the luxury of imagining what the future might look like Now try to imagine that future when your way of life has been devastated by forces beyond your control Iraq 100 poses a question to Iraqi writers those who still live in that nation and those who have joined the worldwide diaspora What might your home country look like in the year 2103 a century after a disastrous foreign invasion Using science fiction allegory and magical realism to challenge the perception of what it means to be The Other this groundbreaking anthology edited by Hassan Blasim contains stories that are heartbreakingly surreal and yet utterly recognizable to the human experience Though born out of exhaustion fear and despair these stories are also fueled by themes of love family and endurance and woven through with a delicate thread of hope for the future At the Publisher's request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied

The War Comes with You Stacey Peebles, 2024-12-12 How do we tell twenty first century war stories when the wars seem to go on forever In the post 2011 surge of war stories published in America and Iraq the defining characteristic is the depiction of combat violence that crosses borders overtakes civilian spaces and disrupts chronology In The War Comes with You Enduring War in Life Fiction and Fantasy Stacey Peebles picks up where her groundbreaking first book Welcome to the Suck Narrating the American Soldier's Experience in Iraq left off Via careful readings of fiction memoir and poetry by writers such as Ben Fountain Siobhan Fallon Brian Turner and Hassan Blasim as well as recent superhero and Star Wars films Peebles argues that in the face of real and fantasy forever wars things fall apart Language identities bodies and even the stories themselves fragment These narratives suggest that people need not accept incoherence and there is a range of meaningful responses to the experience of everywhere all the time war Peebles illustrates what to do that is when war comes with you

God 99 Hassan Blasim, 2020-11-26 Chess playing people traffickers suicidal photographers absurdist sound sculptors cat loving rebel sympathisers murderous storytellers The characters in Hassan Blasim's debut novel are not the inventions of a wild imagination but real life refugees and people whose lives have been devastated by war Interviewed by Hassan Owl an aspiring Iraq born writer they become the subjects of an online art project a blog that blurs the boundaries between fiction and autobiography reportage and the novel Framed by an email correspondence with the mysterious Alia a translator of the Romanian philosopher Emil Cioran the project leads us through the bars brothels and bathhouses of Hassan's past and present in a journey of trauma violence identity and desire Taking its conceit from the Islamic tradition that says God has 99 names the novel trains a kaleidoscopic lens on the multiplicity of experiences behind Europe's so called migrant crisis and asks how those who have been displaced might find themselves again God 99 is the highly anticipated debut novel by award winning Iraqi writer poet and filmmaker Hassan Blasim Winner of an English PEN Translates Award The Disappearance of Mr. Nobody Ahmed Taibaoui, 2023-01-03 WINNER OF THE NAGUIB MAHFOUZ MEDAL FOR LITERATURE A BEST NEW BOOK OF 2023 THE NEW ARAB A spare well crafted and compelling Samah Selim novel in which a man in Algiers disappears without trace and the detective in search of him finds more than he expected In Rouiba a nondescript suburb of Algiers an unnamed man with a troubled past escapes his everyday life to find himself caring for an old man with dementia When the man dies the carer disappears into thin air A police detective is assigned to investigate the circumstances of the old man's demise and to track down the caretaker only to find that the unnamed man cannot be identified that there is no trace of Mr Nobody The officer's search leads him to those whose paths once crossed Mr Nobody's In each of them he finds a reflection of the man he is looking for A raw lyrical portrait of life on the margins in contemporary Algiers this haunting noir captures an underworld of police informers shady imams bootleg beer traders and grave robbers and reverberates with echoes of Algeria's violent past

The Palgrave Handbook of European Migration in Literature and Culture Corina Stan, Charlotte Sussman, 2023-11-20 The Palgrave Handbook of European Migration in Literature and Culture engages with migration to within and from Europe foregrounding migration through the lenses of historical migratory movement and flows associated with colonialism and postcolonialism With essays on literature film drama graphic novels and more the book addresses migration and media hostile environments migration and language migration and literary experiment migration as palimpsest and figurations of the migrant Each section is introduced by one of the handbook's contributing editors and interviews with writers and film directors are integrated throughout the volume The essays collected in the volume move beyond the discourse of the refugee crisis to trace the historical roots of the current migration situation through colonialism and decolonization

Scent Dinesh Allirajah, 2016-07-15 Before his untimely death at the age of 47 Dinesh Allirajah was one of the most versatile and accomplished writers working in the North of England Whether as a performance poet literary critic wry social commentator or masterfully understated short story writer his work was always international in scope but local and personal in touch Witty irreverent and intricately observed his writing was informed by everything from raregroove jazz to experimental theatre crime noir to stand up comedy Yet it always felt and continues to feel bespoke to us as readers The short stories in particular allow us to eavesdrop on the most intimate unattended moments in their characters' lives Here we get to know outsiders migrant workers beleaguered mothers old and unwanted regulars in a pub that's facing a refurb people being slowly ushered into the background or kept at a distance Yet it is on these peripheries far from where everyone else is looking that Dinesh finds his stories here that identities are reconstructed and renegotiated here that we learn the most about ourselves Spanning over twenty years work this definitive hardback volume presents a through line of Dinesh s compassion activism and literary perspicacity a clarion call to find essential beauty in art music sport life and to pass it on Diaspora and Literary Studies Angela Naimou,2023-08-10 Diaspora is an ancient term that gained broad new significance in the twentieth century At its simplest diaspora refers to the geographic dispersion of a people from a common originary space to other sites It pulls together ideas of people movement memory and home but also troubles them In this volume established and newer scholars provide fresh explorations of diaspora for twenty first century literary studies The volume re examines major diaspora origin stories theorizes diaspora through its conceptual intimacies and entanglements and analyzes literary and visual cultural texts to reimagine the genres genders and genealogies of diaspora Literary mappings move across Africa the Americas Middle East Asia Europe and Pacific Islands and through Atlantic Pacific Mediterranean Gulf and Indian waters Chapters reflect on diaspora as a key concept for migration postcolonial global comparative race environmental gender and queer studies The volume is thus an accessible and provocative account of diaspora as a vital resource for literary studies in a bordered world Translating the Literatures of Small European Nations Rajendra A.

Chitnis,Jakob Stougaard-Nielsen,Rhian Atkin,Zoran Milutinović,2020 The most detailed and wide ranging comparative study to date of how European literatures written in less well known languages try through translation to reach the wider world rejecting the predominant narrative of tragic marginalization with case studies of endeavour and innovation from nineteenth century Swedish women s writing to twenty first century Polish fantasy Unnatural Narrative across Borders Biwu

Shang,2018-12-07 This book actively engages with current discussion of narratology and unnatural narrative theory in particular Unsatisfied with the hegemony of European and Anglo American narrative theory it calls for a transnational and comparative turn in unnatural narrative theory the purpose of which is to draw readers attention to those periphery and marginalized narratives produced in places other than England and America It places equal weight on theoretical exploration and critical practice The book in addition to offering a detailed account of current scholarship of unnatural narratology examines its core issues and critical debates as well as outlining a set of directions for its future development To present a counterpart of Western unnatural narrative studies this book specifically takes a close look at the experimental narratives in China and Iraq either synchronically or diachronically In doing so it aims on the one hand to show how the unnatural narratives are written and to be explained differently from those Western unnatural narrative works and on the other hand to use the particular cases to challenge the existing narratological framework so as to further enrich and supplement it The book will be useful and inspiring to those scholars working in such broad fields as narrative theory literary criticism cultural studies semiotics media studies and comparative literature and world literature studies The American Way Talal Abu Shawish,Najwa Bin Shatwan,Hassan Blasim,Paige Cooper,Lina Meruane,Fariba Nawa,Jacob Ross,Bina Shah,Kim Thúy,Carol Zardetto,Gianfranco Bettin,Gioconda Belli,Gabriel Ángel,Ahmel Echevarría Peré,Ahmet Haluk Ünal,Hüseyin
