at a Distance Michael Sturma, 2013-07-31 Only seven U S submariners earned the Medal of Honor in World War II Sam Dealey the USS Harder s commander was one of them His honor was awarded posthumously after the entire crew was lost off Bataan during a depth charge attack in August 1944 by a Japanese convoy The Harder s fighting spirit is legendary and its record of sinking a total of eighteen enemy ships with a tonnage in excess of 55 000 made Dealey one of the top five submarine skippers in the war During a single patrol his crew sank five enemy destroyers in five short range torpedo attacks an unprecedented feat In addition the Harder played important roles in rescue missions extracting secret operatives deep in enemy territory and saving downed pilots Drawing on previously untapped sources Michael Sturma an Australian teaching at Murdoch University details several daring missions one that involved the heroic Australian commando Bill Jenkins and puts the Harder s action in the context of the overall Pacific campaign In doing so the author adds not only significant information to the Harder s story but also provides a fresh perspective on the submarine war The USS Flier Michael

Sturma, 2008-02-15 The realities of WWII underwater warfare come to life in this chronicle of a submarine sunk in the Philippines and the remarkable sailors who survived The fate of the USS Flier is one of the most astonishing stories of the Second World War On August 13 1944 the submarine struck a mine and sank to the bottom of the Sulu Sea in less than one minute leaving only fourteen of its crew of eighty six hands alive After enduring eighteen hours in the water eight remaining survivors swam to a remote island controlled by the Japanese Deep behind enemy lines and without food or drinking water the crewmen realized that their struggle for survival had just begun Those eight sailors became the first Americans of the Pacific war to escape from a sunken submarine and return safely to the United States Their story of persistence and survival has all the elements of a classic World War II tale sudden disaster physical deprivation a ruthless enemy and a dramatic escape from behind enemy lines In The USS Flier noted historian Michael Sturma vividly recounts a harrowing story of brave men who lived to return to the service of their country USS Pampanito Gregory F Michno,2016-01-12 Most World War II submarine stories are glorifications of war written by submarine captains about their own boats But the USS Pampanito was not a typical submarine The sub and its crew caused plenty of destruction but they found the pinnacle of their honor and fame in a dramatic sea rescue Gregory F Michno relates the experiences of the crewmen both enlisted men and officers who served on the USS Pampanito The Pampanito story begins with the boat s construction in 1943 continues through its six combat missions and concludes with its decommissioning after the war in 1945 The heart of the book is the September 12 1944 attack on a Japanese convoy carrying English and Australian POWs from the Burma Siam Railway of Bridge on the River Kwai fame to prison camps in Japan The Pampanito helped sink two of the prison ships unwittingly killing hundreds of Allied soldiers but then returned to rescue the survivors The crew picked a record seventy three men from the sea
