The Goose with the Golden Egg

Read the passage carefully. The words that are underlined have either a spelling or grammatical error. Write the correct word in each respective blank. Punctuation errors have been excluded.

You are only required to answer the given blank at the bottom of the passage. Do not put more than one answer in each blank.

Once upon a time, a man and his wife (1) has the golden opportunity of owning a (2) goose which laid a golden egg every day. Soon, they (3) begin to think that they were not getting rich fast enough. They believed that if the goose was able to lay golden eggs, (4) it's insides must have been made of gold too. "Let's kill the goose and cut it open to retrieve the gold inside (5)gg," the man suggested excitedly. However, upon cutting the goose open, they were shocked that its insides were that of any other good!

Moral of the Story: Too much greed always leads to great loss.
