Conference, 2011 This book contains essays of literary and philosophical accounts that explain who we are simply as persons and essays that highlight who we are in light of communal ties ACTC educators model the intellectual life for students and colleagues by showing how to read texts carefully The Brunonian Brown University, 1880 Widener Library Shelflist: American history Harvard University. Library, 1967 Shadow Working in Project Management Joana Bértholo, 2017-07-06 Shadow Working in Project Management aims at contributing to our knowledge of all things unconscious and irrational in our behaviour It takes the form of an empirical research and therefore addresses mostly the tools and techniques available to get in touch with Shadow aspects of self and collective to recognize how it manifests how it can lead to conflict and ways to address it From that perspective it advances on to question the underlying beliefs of current management practices It explores as well the inherent need for control in projects being those of a professional nature or other ventures It challenges the strength of the concept of the rational man and its protagonism Joana Bértholo's work explores the role and nature of the Shadow in the context of projects and their management with an emphasis on techniques to address it Despite being directed to managers and dedicated to the analyses of the managerial discourse the tools and processes it proposes have universal relevance based on the fact that the Shadow is everywhere within everyone from the individual to the global scale Reflexive Historical Sociology Arpad Szokolczai, 2003-07-13 This book reconstructs and brings together the work of a number of social and political theorists in order to gain new insight on the emergence and character of modern Western society It examines the intersection point of social theory and historical sociology in a new theoretical approach called reflexive historical sociology There is analysis of the works of Max Weber Michel Foucault Norbert Elias Eric Voegelin and a number of others The book is divided into three parts Part 1 examines the works of Eric Voegelin Norbert Elias Lewis Mumford and Franz Borkenau Part 2 is concerned with the major conceptual tools such as experience liminality process symbolisation figuration order dramatisation and reflexivity and themes such as the history of forms of thought subjectivity knowledge and closed space and regulated time Finally the book examines the most important insights of the thinkers discussed concerning the historical processes that led to modernity

The Quest for Early Church Historiography Jeremiah Mutie, 2022-09-09 The Quest for Early Church Historiography explores how early church historiography underwent a significant shift beginning with the thought of Ferdinand Christian Baur 1792 1860 a shift that eventually culminated in the current extreme historiographies of such scholars as Bart D Ehrman 1955 Through the tracing of this historiographical trajectory this work argues that rather than seeing these current historiographies as having suddenly appeared in the scholarly scene a better approach is to see them as the fruit of this long trajectory Of course as the work has sought to demonstrate this trajectory is itself full of turns and twists But the careful reader will hopefully be able to see the intrinsic connections that are demonstrably evident

The Works of ... Mr. Richard Hooker: with an Account of His Life and Death, by Isaac Walton. Arranged by the Rev. John Keble ...

Third Edition Richard Hooker, 1845 The Book of Sirach in the Armenian Biblical Tradition Garegin

Hambardzumyan, 2015-12-14 The extreme complexity of Sirach's text at times makes it almost impossible to come to one clear conclusion as regards certain issues There are numerous differences between various translations of this deuterocanonical text In addition the Armenian translation being a textual witness to not one but multiple parent texts has its own complications This research provides a sustained theological reading of the Armenian text of Sirach on the basis of Yakob Nalean's commentary written in the 18th century At the same time it places a great emphasis on the textual evaluation of the various versions of Sirach in Armenian In this respect an attempt has been made to display the unique features of the Armenian Sirach within the wider scope of the scholarship of this biblical text Through a comprehensive linguistic and theological analysis of some major parts of Sirach in Armenian this study assesses the extent to which this book was in use amongst Armenians throughout the centuries In particular the numerous references to Sirach in both Armenian and non Armenian patristic literature are examined with the aim of dating the first translations into Armenian and tracing the development of the text in the Armenian medieval schools
