The Making of Zombie Wars Aleksandar Hemon, 2015-05-05 The seriously seriously funny roller coaster ride of sex and violence that Aleksandar Hemon has long promised Script idea 142 Aliens undercover as cabbies abduct the fiancé of the main character who has to find a way to a remote planet to save her Title Love Trek Script idea 185 Teenager discovers his girlfriend's beloved grandfather was a guard in a Nazi death camp The boy's grandparents are survivors but he's tantalizingly close to achieving deflowerment so when a Nazi hunter arrives in town in pursuit of Grandpa he has to distract him long enough to get laid A riotous Holocaust comedy Title The Righteous Love Script idea 196 Rock star high out of his mind freaks out during a show runs offstage and is lost in streets crowded with his hallucinations The teenage fan who finds him keeps the rock star for himself for the night Mishaps and adventures follow This one could be a musical Singin' in the Brain Josh Levin is an aspiring screenwriter teaching ESL classes in Chicago His laptop is full of ideas but the only one to really take root is Zombie Wars When Josh comes home to discover his landlord an unhinged army vet rifling through his dirty laundry he decides to move in with his girlfriend Kimmy It's domestic bliss for a moment but Josh becomes entangled with a student a Bosnian woman named Ana whose husband is jealous and violent Disaster ensues and as Josh's choices move from silly to profoundly absurd The Making of Zombie Wars takes on real consequence Chicago Frederik Byrn

Køhlert, 2021-09-23 Chicago occupies a central position in both the geography and literary history of the United States From its founding in 1833 through to its modern incarnation the city has served as both a thoroughfare for the nation's goods and a crossroads for its cultural energies The idea of Chicago as a crossroads of modern America is what guides this literary history which traces how writers have responded to a rapidly changing urban environment and labored to make sense of its place in and implications for the larger whole In writing that engages with the world's first skyscrapers and elevated railroads extreme economic and racial inequality a growing middle class ethnic and multiethnic neighborhoods the Great Migration of African Americans and the city's contemporary incarnation as a cosmopolitan urban center Chicago has been home to a diverse literature that has both captured and guided the themes of modern America Contested Memories and the Demands of the Past Catharina Raudvere, 2016-12-19 This book brings together new perspectives on collective memory in the modern Muslim world It discusses how memory cultures are established and used at national levels in official history writing through the erection of monuments the fashioning of educational curricula and through media strategies as well as in the interface with both artistic expressions and popular culture in the Muslim world at large The representations of collective memory have been one of the foremost tools in national identity politics grass root mobilization theological debates over Islam and general discussions on what constitutes the modern in the Middle East as well as in Muslim diaspora environments Few if any contemporary conflicts in the region can be understood in depth without a certain focus on various uses of history memory cultures and religious meta narratives at all societal levels and in art and literature This book will be of use to students and scholars in the fields of Identity Politics Islamic Studies Media and Cultural Anthropology Eastern Europe Unmapped Irene Kacandes, Yuliya Komska, 2017-10-01 Arguably more than any other region the area known as Eastern Europe has been defined by its location on the map Yet its inhabitants from statesmen to literati and from cultural economic elites to the poorest emigrants have consistently forged or fathomed links to distant lands populations and intellectual traditions Through a series of inventive cultural and historical explorations Eastern Europe Unmapped dispenses with scholars long time preoccupation with national and regional borders instead raising provocative questions about the area s non contiguous and frequently global or extraterritorial entanglements The Experience of Expatriate English Language Teaching David B. Wilson, 2025-05-24 This is a unique applied linguistic study which demonstrates that the history of TEFLers is very different from the history of TEFL Instead of studying theories of language learning and teaching it explores the experience of being a TEFLer through the ages using a wide range of fictional and fictive sources novels plays biographies memoirs essays and poems Part One considers the present and recent past through an analysis of 15 fictional works and five memoirs Part Two is concerned with the experiences of some historical iconic figures from the world of TEFL beginning with the sixteenth century and ending with figures associated with the British Council and International House Along the way one meets Victorian governesses Berlitz teachers and literary figures from the inter War Golden Age of travel Interposed are some of the experiences of the author garnered during his long and varied career as an expatriate TEFLer

The cultural politics of contemporary Hollywood film Chris Beasley, Heather Brook, 2019-01-21 Adopting and developing a cultural politics approach this comprehensive study explores how Hollywood movies generate and reflect political myths about social and personal life that profoundly influence how we understand power relations Instead of looking at genre it employs three broad categories of film Security films present ideas concerning public order and disorder citizen state relations and the politics of fear Relationalities films highlight personal and intimate politics bringing norms about identities gender and sexuality into focus In socially critical films particular issues and ideas are endowed with more overtly political significance The book considers these categories as global political technologies implicated in hegemonic and soft power relations whose reach is both deep and broad

The New Midwest Mark Athitakis, 2017-02-06 Dives deep into Midwestern literature unpacking the mythology of the region and how today s writers are complicating our simple idea of the Heartland Huffington Post In the public imagination Midwestern literature has not evolved far beyond heartland laborers and hardscrabble immigrants of a century past But as the region has changed so in many ways has its fiction In this book the author explores how shifts in work class place race and culture has been reflected or ignored by novelists and short story writers From Marilynne Robinson to Leon Forrest Toni Morrison to Aleksandar Hemon Bonnie Jo Campbell to Stewart O Nan this book is a call to rethink the way we conceive Midwestern fiction and one that is sure to prompt some new must have additions to every reading list Using the lens of novels and short stories published over the past 30 or so years Athitakis seeks to illuminate the ways we still lean on literary mythology of the Midwest when it comes to defining the region Chicago Tribune The New Midwest rightly praises the Midwestern novels of Marilynne Robinson Jeffrey Eugenides Toni Morrison and Jonathan Franzen but also points out works of comparable merit that warrant rediscovery The Washington Post The New Midwest is a crisp engaging tip sheet and guide for further reading Milwaukee Journal Sentinel A journey through the Midwest and through some key works by writers Athitakis thinks are most effectively using the region in their fiction Kirkus Reviews
