Fern Fern Britton,2008-11-06 The much loved TV star Fern Britten tells her story for the first time in her Sunday Times bestselling memoir For years now Fern Britton has been widely loved as the presenter of Ready Steady Cook and more recently co presenter of This Morning with Philip Schofield Never one to shy away from a good laugh or cry on national TV she has none the less never talked about herself to the public preferring to keep her private life private Her warmth and humour empathy and compassion have made her feel like a best friend to millions on a daily basis but no one knows the woman behind the sparkling smile Now for the first time she is going to tell her story And it is one that will strike a chord with women everywhere Life as a child was not always easy and she faced private and public challenges with her personal life appearance and her career as she climbed the ladder to fame Now a full time working mum with a very happy marriage to her second husband Phil Vickery she is at the top of her game and ready to tell it like it is So put your feet up and get ready for a great read with Fern Britten Fern Britten grew up in Buckinghamshire and started her career on Westward Television before moving to GMTV and Ready Steady Cook She later co presented This Morning with Philip Schofield and has become a much sought after presenter for shows including Have I Got News For You Soap Star Superstar and Celebrity Mr and Mrs She recently wowed audiences with her performance on Strictly Come Dancing She lives in Buckinghamshire with her husband Phil Vickery and their four children

Nothing Week Pete Hancock,2012-09-04 Nothing Week is the other week following pay week when those with something left in their pockets contribute to the well being of others whose meagre income has been largely absorbed by book up or gambling Set in the remote South Australian township of Oodnadatta on the edge of the Simpson Desert this enriching narrative offers a bridge into Aboriginal culture following the ups and downs which typify life in that unique community A number of contemporary social and political issues are discussed in the context of a fictional five week slice of time from the third week of May through to June

The Vacuum Cleaner Carroll Gantz,2012-09-26 House cleaning has been an innate human activity forever but only since the early 19th century have mechanical devices replaced the physical labor performed mostly by women Mechanical carpet sweepers were replaced by manual suction cleaners which in turn were replaced by electric vacuum cleaners in the early 20th century Innovative inventors who improved vacuum cleaners as electricity became commonly available made these advances possible Many early manufacturers failed but some such as Bissell Hoover Eureka and others became household names as they competed for global dominance with improved features performance and appearance This book describes the fascinating people who made this possible as well as the economic cultural and technological contexts of their times From obscure beginnings 200 years ago vacuum cleaners have become an integral part of modern household culture Suck, Don't Blow Jane Furnival,1998 Launched in 1906 the Puffing Billy was an elaborate machine and the equivalent would cost 2000 to buy in the 1990s This text follows the chain of false starts and ingenious ideas which have evolved around the modern day vacuum cleaner Mother Trouble Miranda J. Brady,2024-10-01 Mother Trouble traces white maternal angst in popular culture across a span of more than fifty years from the iconic Rosemary s Baby to anti vaxx mom memes and HGTV shows The book narrows in on popular media to think about white maternal angst as a manifestation of feminism s unrealized possibilities and continued omissions since the second wave It interrogates intersecting systems of power which make mothers and their children the most impoverished people in the world and urges a greater appreciation in academic and popular thinking of the work that mothers do The book calls for an analytical expansion beyond gender to better address the erasure of reproductive labour and especially that performed by migrants and people of colour It illustrates the continued marginalization of racialized mothers and the disproportionate amount of labour performed by all mothers in a society where their work is devalued Ultimately Mother Trouble reveals how the unease around white motherhood in the media has become a proxy for the troubles faced by all mothers Design,1993-07 Handbook of Elastomers Anil K.
