

Wedding Welcome Speech: Couple

Welcome, our dearest friends and family. Standing here looking at all your faces, we're overwhelmed with gratitude. Each of you has played such a special role in our journey – from those who've known us since childhood (yes, including those awkward teenage years) to the friends who've become family along the way.

We know many of you have traveled far to be here, taken time away from your busy lives, and made countless arrangements to share this day with us. For some of you, that meant crossing oceans; for others, it meant finding babysitters for what we promise will be a night worth the effort! Your presence means everything to us.

Our love story isn't just about the two of us – it's about the community of amazing people who've supported us, guided us, and sometimes even given us that gentle push we needed. (Mom, Dad, you both know what we're talking about!)

Tonight isn't just a celebration of our marriage; it's a celebration of everyone in this room. The lessons you've taught us about love, the examples you've set in your own relationships, and the unwavering support you've shown us – all of these have shaped who we are as a couple.

So please, make yourselves at home. Eat, drink, dance, and celebrate with us. This night is our gift to you, our way of saying thank you for being part of our story.

Cheers!
