The Soho Press Book of '80s Short Fiction Dale Peck,2016-06-07 In The Soho Press Book of 80s Short Fiction editor Dale Peck offers readers a fresh take on a seminal period in American history when Ronald Reagan was president the Cold War was rushing to its conclusion and literature was searching for ways to move beyond the postmodern unease of the 1970s Morally charged by newly politicized notions of identity but fraught with anxiety about a body whose fragility had been freshly emphasized by the AIDS epidemic the 34 works gathered here are individually vivid but taken as a body of work they challenge the prevailing notion of the 80s as a time of aesthetic as well as financial maximalism Formally inventive yet tightly controlled they offer a more expansive inclusive view of the era s literary accomplishments The anthology blends early stories from writers like Denis Johnson Jamaica Kincaid Mary Gaitskill and Raymond Carver which have gone on to become part of the American canon with remarkable and often transgressive work from some of the most celebrated writers of the underground including Dennis Cooper Eileen Myles Lynne Tillman and Gary Indiana Peck has also included powerful work by writers such as Gil Cuadros Essex Hemphill and Sam D Allesandro whose untimely deaths from AIDS ended their careers almost before they had begun Almost a third of the stories are out of print and unavailable elsewhere The Soho Press Book of 80s Short Fiction is a daring reappraisal of a decade that is increasingly central to our culture

Braving the Fire Jessica Handler,2013-12-10 Braving the Fire is the first book to provide a road map for the journey of writing honestly about mourning grief and loss Created specifically by and for the writer who has experienced illness loss or the death of a loved one Braving the Fire takes the writers perspective in exploring the challenges and rewards for the writer who has chosen with courage and candor to be the memory keeper It will be useful to the memoirist just starting out as well as those already in the throes of coming to terms with complicated emotions and the challenges of shaping a compelling coherent true story Loosely organized around the familiar K bler Ross model of Five Stages of Grief Braving the Fire uses these stages to help the reader and writer though the emotional healing and writing tasks before them incorporating interviews and excerpts from other treasured writers who ve done the same Insightful contributions from Nick Flynn Darin Strauss Kathryn Rhett Natasha Trethewey and Neil White among others are skillfully bended with Handler s own approaches to facing grief a second time to be able to write about it Each section also includes advice and wisdom from leading doctors and therapists about the physical experience of grieving Handler is a compassionate guide who has braved the fire herself and delivers practical and inspirational direction throughout

Into the Maelstrom Gordon Cappelletty,2022-07-29 From the crisis of birth to the crisis of death each person s life is defined by the crises experienced and the ways in which the resulting chaos is resolved As universally experienced events our personal identities are influenced by the past crises that mold and shape our view of ourselves and our relationships with others Chaos as the inevitable result of the crisis state allows us to see our lives in new and unique ways unbounded by our past limitations While some individuals exit the maelstrom of a crisis with apparent ease other individuals seem to live in the chaos of perpetual crisis never fully exiting the whirlpool of emotions and never fully experiencing the calm after the multiple storms that seem to continually confront them Written jointly by a clinical psychologist Cappelletty and an ethical philosopher M dera this book will help both the individuals facing a crisis as well as those who wish to help them resolve the crisis and move forward Based on psychological medical and philosophical research and practice this examination of crisis and chaos will help the suffering person in love and life Pedretti's Occupational

Little Boy Lost Brendah Gaine, 2021-02-23 This story is about sudden loss and being lost It is about being reunited with a family member The feelings explored is about being bewildered and traumatized by sudden separation from a parent not knowing whether you will see that parent again and the joy of being found by a parent you hadn't seen for a while. It is also about sadness and anxiety. Coping skills: learning to accept that you would not see your parent again and learning to live as a new family group without a mother.

Identity Theft, Second Edition Debra E. Meyerson, Steve Zuckerman, 2025-09-16

Identity Theft Second Edition is an award-winning book that follows Stanford professor Debra Meyerson's journey to recover from a severe stroke that initially left her physically incapacitated and unable to speak. In addition to providing realistic expectations for the hard work needed to regain everyday capabilities, Meyerson and Zuckerman focus on the less frequently documented emotional journey as she and her family rebuild identity in recovery. Virtually every stroke survivor is haunted by questions like "Who am I now?" and "How do I rebuild a meaningful and rewarding life after losing so much of what they had before?" capabilities, careers, and jobs, relationships, and more. This is a book full of hope for survivors from stroke or other life-changing injuries or illnesses, as well as their care partners, families, and communities. The first edition of Identity Theft centers on Debra's experience: her stroke, her extraordinary efforts to recover, and her journey to redefine herself. But she also draws on her skills as a social scientist, sharing stories from several dozen fellow survivors, family members, friends, colleagues, therapists, and doctors she has met and interviewed. By sharing this diversity of experiences, Debra highlights how every stroke is different and every recovery is different. She provides a valuable look at the broad possibilities for successfully navigating the challenging physical recovery and the equally difficult and frequently unspoken emotional journey toward rebuilding one's identity and a rewarding life after a trauma like stroke. This second edition is written by Debra and her husband Steve Zuckerman. As they have shared in countless talks, "Just as the original book was headed to the printers, we decided that the finish line had become a new starting line. They co-founded the nonprofit Stroke Onward, where they have been working side by side to build an organization that can catalyze change in the healthcare system to better integrate the emotional journey of rebuilding identity into a lifelong recovery process. This edition draws on five more years of experience as a post-stroke couple and what they've learned from thousands more survivors, family members, and healthcare professionals. They've added new insights about the long-term recovery process and how we can change the stroke system of care to better support all survivors and their families. Their 4,500-mile bike ride called Stroke Across America in 2021 helped raise awareness for Stroke Onward and stroke survivorship care."

Military Chaplains' Review, 1980 Research Methods in Palliative Care Julia M. Addington-Hall, 2007-06-07

The research base for palliative care must improve as it continues to develop in increasingly evidence-based health care systems and to provide the needs of patients and families. This is the first research methods textbook focusing on the unique needs of palliative care, aimed at improving current research and stimulating new research in the field.

Unlikely Journey Clark Watts, 2019-05-21

These stories of hope and dreams became a story of one man's life, taking all that one man dare claim for himself and for those who placed their trust in him, and for him to work as the alchemist who makes what was impossible possible. So please settle in and read for yourself.
