The Last King Of Scotland:

The Last King of Scotland Giles Foden, 2011-11-02 Nicholas Garrigan has fled his native Scotland and his parents expectations to take a position as a doctor in a remote rural outpost of Central Africa Shortly after his arrival in Uganda he is called to the scene of a bizarre car accident Idi Amin manically driving his red Maserati down the dirt tracks of Garrigan's small village has run over a cow Garrigan binds Amin's sprained wrist and puts the incident behind him until a letter arrives from the Minister of Health informing him that Amin in his obsession with all things Scottish has appointed Garrigan his personal physician Garrigan is instructed to settle into State House on the grounds of Amin's residence immediately Later Garrigan will reflect that had he known what awaited him had he foreseen the terrifying concatenation of events this decision would set in motion he would have boarded the first plane back to Scotland He will wonder why it never occurred to him to simply say no But flattered disarmed and intrigued if uneasily by the prospect of entering Amin's inner circle he steps into the role of caring for the man who will turn out to be one of the most brutal dictators of all time So begins Nick Garrigan's journey into a Conradian heart of darkness as his own moral center battles weakly against and then succumbs to the dark and irresistible seductions of Idi Amin Dada whose cruelty and cunning are masked by brilliant rhetoric hilarious wit and electrifying personal magnetism When at last Nick awakens to the horrors of Amin's regime he must awaken also to his own complicity in it he cared for Amin as a doctor and as a friend and to the knowledge that he is both a traitor to his own country and a prisoner in his new one By turns comic and chilling Giles Foden's The Last King of Scotland is a masterful debut from a remarkable talent a riveting history of blood misery and foolishness that lingers in the mind long after the last page is turned and a profound meditation on conscience charisma and the slow corruption of the human heart

The Last King of Scotland The Last King of Scotland, 2006 In 1970 the just graduated doctor Nicholas Garrigan moves to Uganda to get rid of his conservative father While working in a mission in the country he meets the new President Idi Amin after the coup that overthrew the former government He is invited to become his personal physician in Kampala and along the years he sees how despotic his friend is Bringing History to Life through Film Kathryn Anne Morey, 2013-12-12 Whether recreating an actual event or simply being set in a bygone era films have long taken liberties with the truth While some members of the audience can appreciate a movie without being distracted by historical inaccuracies other viewers are more discerning From revered classics like Gone with the Wind to recent award winners like Argo Hollywood films often are taken to task for their loose adherence to the facts But what obligation do filmmakers have to the truth when trying to create a two hour piece of entertainment In Bringing History to Life through Film The Art of Cinematic Storytelling Kathryn Anne Morey brings together essays that explore the controversial issue of film as a purveyor of history Examining a range of films including highly regarded features like The Last of the Mohicans and Pan's Labyrinth as well as blockbuster franchises like Pirates of the Caribbean chapters demonstrate that the debate surrounding the role of history on film is still as raw as ever Organized in five sections these essays discuss the myths and realities of history as they are portrayed on film from Nostalgic Utopias to Myths and Fairy Tales The fourteen chapters shed light on how films both convey and distort historical realities to capture the essence of the past rather than the past itself Ultimately they consider what role cinema plays as the quintessential historical storyteller In addition to cinema and media studies this book will appeal to scholars of history and fans of a wide range of cinematic genres The Crisis ,2007-01 The Crisis founded by W E B Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP is a journal of civil rights history politics and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color For nearly 100 years The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders decision makers peacemakers and justice seekers It has chronicled informed educated entertained and in many instances set the economic political and social agenda for our nation and its multi ethnic citizens

The Last King of Scotland Jeremy Brock,Kevin Macdonald,Lisa Bryer,Forest Whitaker,Peter Morgan,James McAvoy,2006 Based on the events of the brutal Ugandan dictator Idi Amin s regime as seen by his personal physician during the 1970s Hollywood's Africa after 1994 MaryEllen Higgins,2012-11-01 Hollywood s Africa after 1994 investigates Hollywood s colonial film legacy in the postapartheid era and contemplates what has changed in the West s representations of Africa How do we read twenty first century projections of human rights issues child soldiers genocide the exploitation of the poor by multinational corporations dictatorial rule truth and reconciliation within the contexts of celebrity humanitarianism new military humanitarianism and Western support for regime change in Africa and beyond A number of films after 1994 such as Black Hawk Down Hotel Rwanda Blood Diamond The Last King of Scotland The Constant Gardener Shake Hands with the Devil Tears of the Sun and District 9 construct explicit and implicit arguments about the effects of Western intervention in Africa Do the emphases on human rights in the films offer a poignant expression of our shared humanity Do they echo the colonial tropes of former civilizing missions Or do human rights violations operate as yet another mine of sensational images for Hollywood s spectacular storytelling The volume provides analyses by academics and activists in the fields of African studies English film and media studies international relations and sociology across continents This thoughtful and highly engaging book is a valuable resource for those who seek new and varied approaches to films about Africa Contributors Harry Garuba and Natasha Himmelman Margaret R Higgonnet with Ethel R Higgonnet Joyce B Ashuntantang Kenneth W Harrow Christopher Odhiambo Ricardo Guthrie Clifford T Manlove Earl Conteh Morgan Bennetta Jules Rosette J R Osborn and Lea Marie Ruiz Ade Christopher Garland Kimberly Nichele Brown Jane Bryce Iyunolu Osagie Dayna Oscherwitz Focus On: 100 Most Popular Films Based on British Novels Wikipedia contributors, Visual Difference Elizabeth Heffelfinger,Laura Wright,2011 To date no text exists that focuses exclusively on the concept of postcolonial film as a framework for identifying films produced within and outside of various formerly colonized nations nor is there a scholarly text that addresses pedagogical issues about and frameworks for teaching such films This book borrows from and respects various forms of categorization intercultural global third and accented while simultaneously seeking to make manifest an alternate space of signification What feels like a mainstream approach is pedagogically necessary in terms of access both financial and physical to the films discussed herein given that this text proposes models for teaching these works at the university and secondary levels The focus of this work is therefore twofold to provide the methodology to read and teach postcolonial film and also to provide analyses in which scholars and teachers can explore the ways that the films examined herein work to further and complicate our understanding of postcolonial as a fraught and evolving theoretical stance

Encyclopedia of British Writers, 1800 to the Present George Stade, Karen Karbiener, 2010-05-12 Contains alphabetically arranged entries that provide biographical and critical information on major and lesser known nineteenth and twentieth century British writers and includes articles on key schools of literature and genres

The New Scottish Cinema Jonathan Murray, 2015-03-31 From a near standing start in the 1970s the emergence and expansion of an aesthetically and culturally distinctive Scottish cinema proved to be one of the most significant developments within late twentieth and early twenty first century British film culture Individual Scottish films and filmmakers have attracted notable amounts of critical attention as a result The New Scottish Cinema however is the first book to trace Scottish film culture s industrial creative and critical evolution in comprehensive detail across a forty year period On the one hand it invites readers to reconsider the known films such as Shallow Grave Ratcatcher The Magdalene Sisters Young Adam Red Road and The Last King of Scotland On the other it uncovers the overlooked from the 1980s comedic film makers who followed in the footsteps of Bill Forsyth to the variety of present day Scottish film making a body of work that encompasses explorations of multiculturalism exploitation of the macabre and much else in between In addition to analysing an eclectic range of films and filmmakers The New Scottish Cinema also examines the diverse industrial institutional and cultural contexts which have allowed Scottish film to evolve and grow since the 1970s and relates these to the images of Scotland which artists have put on screen In so doing the book narrates a story of interest to any student of contemporary British film

An Account of the Isle of Man William Sacheverell, 1859

Postcolonial Criticism and Representations of African Dictatorship Cecile Bishop, 2017-07-05 The figure of the dictator looms large in representations of postcolonial Africa Since the late 1970s writers film makers and theorists have sought to represent the realities of dictatorship without endorsing the colonialist cliches portraying Africans as incapable of self government Against the heavily politicized responses provoked by this dilemma Bishop argues for a form of criticism that places the complexity of the reader s or spectator s experiences at the heart of its investigations Ranging across literature film and political theory this study calls for a reengagement with notions often seen as unwelcome diversions from political questions such as referentiality genre and aesthetics But rather than pit political approaches against formal and aesthetic procedures the author presents new insights into the interplay of the political and the aesthetic Cecile Bishop is a Junior Research Fellow in French at Somerville College Oxford Scottish cinema Christopher Meir, 2016-05-16 Over the last three decades Scottish cinema has seen an unprecedented number of international successes Films ranging from Local Hero to The Last King of Scotland have not only raised the profile of film making north of Hadrian's Wall but have also raised a number of questions about the place of cinema originating from a small historically marginalised as yet stateless nation within national and transnational film cultures By providing detailed case studies of some of the biggest films of contemporary Scottish cinema including Local Hero Mrs Brown Morvern Callar and others this volume will help readers to understand the key works of the period as well as the industrial critical and cultural contexts surrounding their creation and reception As the field of Scottish film studies has also grown and developed during this period this volume will also introduce readers to the debates sparked by the key works discussed in the book The West and China in Africa Alemayehu Mekonnen, 2015-11-13 The West and China in Africa Civilization without Justice is an outcome of Dr Alemayehu Mekonnen's personal intellectual struggle life experience and an attempt to understand Christ and his message within the cultural context of Africa The intellectual struggle has to do with the paradoxical reality of Africa's situation An attempt to reconcile the seemingly irreconcilable situation of Africa tests and stretches anyone's mind beyond limit According to archaeological and geological findings Africa is the first habitat of humanity and yet it is the least habitable place in the world today The continent is extremely rich with natural resources but it is known for poverty disease malnutrition and starvation As some Afrocentric scholars argue Africa is the birthplace of world civilization and yet it is known for destruction Social instability is rampant coup d'etat and counter coup d'etat is common Displacement and the number of refugees are ever increasing As a person of African origin and now a US citizen Mekonnen was able to see realities objectively in the eyes of an African and American This book explores the myth and reality of Western Eastern and African dictators role in the history of Africa
