Rodríguez,Katy Swalwell,2025-03-12 Giving young people opportunities to grapple with injustices and complex social problems can inspire them to build a better world In this bestselling book two experienced social studies educators lay out their vision for an elementary social studies education that will help young people find value in learning about the world as they consider how to make their communities more just equitable and healthy Rodr guez and Swalwell unpack the problems that so often characterize the elementary curriculum normalization idealization heroification and dramatization and show how common pitfalls can be replaced with creative solutions This timely second edition discusses increasingly important topics like book bans and the rise of AI provides updated research and resources and includes strategies for teaching anti oppressive social studies even when circumstances are less than ideal Whether you re a classroom teacher methods student or curriculum coordinator this is a book that can transform your understanding of the social studies disciplines and their power to disrupt the narratives that maintain current inequities Social Studies for a Better World Noreen Naseem Rodríguez,Katy Swalwell,2023-09-01 Plan and deliver a curriculum to help your students connect with the humanity of others In the wake of 2020 we need today s young learners to be prepared to develop solutions to a host of entrenched and complex issues including systemic racism massive environmental problems deep political divisions and future pandemics that will severely test the effectiveness and equity of our health policies What better place to start that preparation than with a social studies curriculum that enables elementary students to envision and build a better world In this engaging guide two experienced social studies educators unpack the oppressions that so often characterize the elementary curriculum normalization idealization heroification and dramatization and show how common pitfalls can be replaced with creative solutions Whether you re a classroom teacher methods student or curriculum coordinator this is a book that can transform your understanding of the social studies disciplines and their power to disrupt the narratives that maintain current inequities

Wealth of Selves Edwina Barvosa,2008 Many of us have multiple identities says Edwina Barvosa We may view ourselves according to ethnicity marital or family roles political affiliation sexuality or any of several other identities we may use to organize our behavior and self understanding at any given time Various domains have offered nuggets of insight regarding the characteristics and political implications of seeing the self as made up of multiple identities but many questions remain In Wealth of Selves Edwina Barvosa constructs an ambitious interdisciplinary blend of these insights and crafts them into an overarching theoretical framework for understanding multiple identities in terms of intersectionality identity contradiction and the political potential that lies within the practices of self integration Grounded in Gloria Anzaldua s concept of mestiza consciousness as well as in Western political thought this reconsideration of the self promises to reshape our thinking on issues such as immigrant incorporation national identity political participation the socially constructed sources of will and political critique and the longevity of racial and gender conflicts With its accessible style and rich cross pollination among disciplines Wealth of Selves will reward readers in political science philosophy race ethnic and American studies as well as in borderlands sexuality and gender studies

What's Love Got to Do with It? Sam Hamstra,2016-08-18 In the past three plus decades a significant conversation has taken place among American Protestants about worship As a result countless books have been written on the subject We have read books on music and worship ancient future worship worship as spiritual formation worship and the arts worship and children even life as worship Listen to that conversation however and you will notice one word conspicuously absent While the heart and soul of the Christian life is love and while the apostle Paul I Corinthians 13 insists that worship without love fails to be worship recent conversations on worship fail to answer this simple question What s love got to do with it In this volume Sam Hamstra answers that question and more by identifying biblical principles that shape our love as worshipers The end result is an invaluable resource for worshipers and for those responsible for planning corporate worship

This Land Is Our Land Agnes Regan Perkins,Alethea K. Helbig,1994-09-26 How do you select the best recent works of fiction oral tradition and poetry about African American Asian American Hispanic American and Native American Indian experiences and traditions from the profusion of titles being published today This annotated bibliography of titles for children and young adults published from 1985 through the end of 1993 with 60% published since 1990 provides a one stop selection tool Appraisals of 559 titles as well as information about an additional 188 recent books and 90 earlier ones of importance are provided Each entry features a plot summary incorporating themes critical comments with a judgment of the book s value as an example of its genre suggestions of other books by that writer and related books of importance The authors who are recognized authorities in children s literature and an advisory board of librarians and teachers each of whom specializes in the literature of a particular ethnic group have provided insightful critical appraisals and expertise and guidance in the selection of titles Helpful subject grade level author title and illustrator indexes are organized for ease of use Titles in the grade level and subject indexes are also identified by ethnic group Index to Black Periodicals Gale Group,2001-08 Uncontained Elizabeth A. Wheeler,2001 In the post war era American urban fiction was dominated by the imagery of containment This book offers a critique of this familiar story evident in the noir narratives of James M Cain and in work by Ellison Roth Salinger Percy Capote and others Doing History Linda S. Levstik,Keith C. Barton,2015-01-30 Now in its fifth edition Doing History offers a unique perspective on teaching and learning history in the elementary and middle grades Through case studies of teachers and students in diverse classrooms and from diverse backgrounds it shows children engaging in authentic historical investigations often in the context of an integrated social studies curriculum The premise is that children can engage in valid forms of historical inquiry collecting and analyzing data examining the perspectives of people in the past considering multiple interpretations and creating evidence based historical accounts Grounded in contemporary sociocultural theory and research the text features vignettes in each chapter showing communities of teachers and students doing history in environments rich in literature art writing discussion and debate The authors explain how the teaching demonstrated in the vignettes reflects basic principles of contemporary learning theory Doing History emphasizes diversity of perspectives in two ways readers encounter students from a variety of backgrounds and students themselves look at history from multiple perspectives It provides clear guidance in using multiple forms of assessment to evaluate the specifically historical aspects of children s learning
