The Long Walk to Freedom Devon W. Carbado,2012-08-21 In this groundbreaking compilation of first person accounts of the runaway slave phenomenon editors Devon W Carbado and Donald Weise have recovered twelve narratives spanning eight decades more than half of which have been long out of print Told in the voices of the runaway slaves themselves these narratives reveal the extraordinary and often innovative ways that these men and women sought freedom and demanded citizenship Also included is an essay by UCLA history professor Brenda Stevenson that contextualizes these narratives providing a brief yet comprehensive history of slavery as well as a look into the daily life of a slave Divided into four categories running away for family running inspired by religion running by any means necessary and running to be free these stories are a testament to the indelible spirit of these remarkable survivors

The Long Walk to Freedom presents excerpts from the narratives of well known runaway slaves like Frederick Douglass and Harriet Jacobs as well as from the narratives of lesser known and virtually unknown people. Several of these excerpts have not been published for more than a hundred years. But they all portray the courageous and sometimes shocking ways that these men and women sought their freedom and asserted power often challenging many of the common assumptions about slaves' lack of agency. Among the remarkable and inspiring stories is the tense but triumphant tale of Henry Box Brown who with a white abolitionist's help shipped himself in a box over a twenty seven hour train ride part of which he spent standing on his head to freedom in Philadelphia. And there's the story of William and Ellen Craft who fled across thousands of miles with Ellen who was light skinned disguised as a white male slave owner so she and her husband could achieve their dream of raising their children as free people. Gripping, inspiring and captivating. The Long Walk to Freedom is a remarkable collection that celebrates those who risked their lives in pursuit of basic human rights. The Long Walk Home Scott C.

Anderson, 2017-09-25 This is a story of loneliness and fulfillment. A young man will leave the paradise of his blue water world and start a journey to find and save his people. An occupation could be called slavery depending on your viewpoint. Dhan Sokin will fight for his people so they in turn can fight for their own freedom. A young woman will discover that the leaders of her people place a finite price on personal value. During a negotiation a battleship captain will underestimate the value of Jasmine Jones freeing her from the bonds of one man's appraisal. Jasmine will thrive but not without hard work, persistence and the help of a few friends. A Long Walk Home James S. Kelly, 2022-06-06 Larry Stephens is an American airman serving in Vietnam while his beloved wife Jeanie patiently awaits his homecoming. The worst occurs when Larry is shot down over North Vietnam. He somehow manages to evade the enemy and return home. However Larry does not receive the hero's welcome he expected. Instead he is accused of desertion and collaboration with the enemy. To make matters worse Jeanie has taken a lover and filed for divorce and the Vietnamese have sent agents to bring Larry back to face trial. Seemingly betrayed and alone Larry fights to clear his name, win back his wife and escape the teams sent to kidnap him. He sought to serve his country with honor now all he wants is to return home to his family in peace. The Longest Walk George

He bargains to trade his life for that of his best friend Roberto, a terminally ill seven year old. But first the alcoholic coach must win the really big one. Ogilvie's challenge is to manage a team of dead Hall
