THE MAN WITH THE MAGIC SPECTACLES Manohar Bhatia ,2022-06-10 I was at the library one day browsing through some pictorial journals when my eye caught sight of a copy of National Geographic It contained some very exciting photographs of wild life the planets in the solar system and beautiful exotic plants I wanted to have a copy of these pictures but there was no way I could I had a camera with me but taking photographs was prohibited in the library To add to my woes the photocopy machine was out of order I was wearing my glasses and it was then that an idea struck me What if my reading glasses could copy these photos Would it be possible What if by reading the whole text of any publication a book magazine or even a film it could be recorded just like a voice on tape It would be a truly thrilling experience However such recording glasses would have to be specially manufactured These thoughts led me to writing The Man with The Magic

Spectacles I thought of a plot story line location and characters and quickly fitted all of these together My co writer Martha Jette has helped me by adding chapters developing characters and editing the entire manuscript

White Men's Magic Vincent L. Wimbush, 2014 Characterizing Olaudah Equiano's eighteenth century narrative of his life as a type of scriptural story that connects the Bible with identity formation Vincent L Wimbush's White Men's Magic probes not only how the Bible and its reading played a crucial role in the first colonial contacts between black and white persons in the North Atlantic but also the process and meaning of what he terms scripturalization By this term Wimbush means a social psychological political discursive structure or semiosphere that creates a reality and organizes a society in terms of relations and communications Because it is based on the particularities of Equiano's narrative Wimbush's theoretical work is not only grounded but inductive and shows that scripturalization is bigger than either the historical or the literary Equiano Scripturalization was not invented by Equiano he says but it is not quite the same after Equiano

Ruth and Tobias Emma Claude, 2001-11-15 Peru the 90's a historical romance from U S and native points of view In settings travelers will recognize as authentic Ruth and Tobias is traditional in having romantic and terrorist episodes newly traditional After a U S senator is kidnaped and his sons receive death threats Tobias the senator's oldest son travels in disguise to South America In a hostel in Arequipa Peru a Milquetoast compatriot amateur historian and expert botanist takes a prying interest in Tobias as he attempts to pass himself off as an archaeologist the first of a series of unexpected meetings for Tobias as he struggles to maintain his disguise This historical romance features interrelations among characters distinguished by the verve with which Peruvians live their lives and by the professionalism that earmarks the characters from the U S The interplay among the Peruvian and the U S characters seems like comic opera except for the consequences Zrate an archaeologist trained in Moscow and a professor at the state university at Arequipa exercises his anti Americanism against the masquerading Tobias Tobias is helped by Ruth an anthropologist writing a thesis on fetishes In turn Ruth is helped by Joyce a mestizo secretary And so on Ruth and Tobias features the voices the perspectives the expectations of a spectrum of personalities from strikingly dissimilar material circumstances and ethnic origins In addition to Zrate and

Joyce the Peruvian characters include a hostel manager a housewife a vamp a hacienda owner university students ranging from highland native to urban opportunist a handful of teenage terrorists and an Andean dog In addition to Tobias and Ruth the North American characters include a musicologist a biologist and an archaeologist from a private and privileged college in the Middle West The interaction among north and south Americans and among male and female reflects worlds wildly dissimilar in experience and expectation Radical adjustments to sudden changes in circumstance are imperative Neither Peruvians nor North Americans are free from sentiment and illusion Scenes in Ruth and Tobias include a river in flood a mudslide an archaeological expedition designed to test the mettle of someone hoping to pass himself off as what he is not a seduction a street demonstration an edenic retreat an effort at a purification rite The Place of Magic in the Intellectual History of Europe ... The ^AMagic Prism Howard Wettstein,2004-04-01 The late 20th century saw great movement in the philosophy of language often critical of the fathers of the subject Gottlieb Frege and Bertrand Russell but sometimes supportive of or even defensive about the work of the fathers Howard Wettstein s sympathies lie with the critics But he says that they have often misconceived their critical project treating it in ways that are technically focused and that miss the deeper implications of their revolutionary challenge Wettstein argues that Wittgenstein a figure with whom the critics of Frege and Russell are typically unsympathetic laid the foundation for much of what is really revolutionary in this late 20th century movement The subject itself should be of great interest since philosophy of language has functioned as a kind of foundation for much of 20th century philosophy But in fact it remains a subject for specialists since the ideas are difficult and the mode of presentation is often fairly technical In this book Wettstein brings the non specialist into the conversation especially in early chapters he also reconceives the debate in a way that avoids technical formulation The Magic Prism is intended for professional philosophers graduate students and upper division undergraduates
