Fully Alive Dr. Larry Crabb,2013-06-01 What makes a man masculine A woman feminine Did God design the two genders so differently If so why The answers to these questions will free women and men to gladly embrace all that it means to be fully alive as gendered bearers of God s image who can profoundly impact others for good by the way they relate Author and psychologist Dr Larry Crabb presents a biblically grounded understanding of gender uniqueness His illustration of a bridge of connection shows how the two genders can relationally come together in God revealing harmony as they celebrate their God designed uniqueness Readers will discover that God created male and female to relate in gender specific ways to make a difference in others by displaying God s relational character Crabb clearly shows men and women what it means to live fully alive as feminine women and masculine men

Halfway House Liam Martin,2021-10-19 Halfway House draws on three and a half years of intensive ethnographic fieldwork to open a window on the little known web of organizations governing prisoner reentry at the frontier of mass incarceration It tells the story of Joe Badillo along with a small cast of connected characters by following the ups and downs of his unfolding experience as he leaves jail and searches for a place in the world outside while confronting overwhelming obstacles Joe s first stop after release is Bridge House and the author moves into the program as a researcher around the same time he arrives the beginnings of the long term collaboration at the heart of the book This deeply personal account is weaved into a larger analysis of the halfway house as an institution a site of punishment and carceral control as well as housing and social support With a national push underway for decarceration and alternatives to imprisonment it provides an opportunity to rethink the pitfalls and possibilities of using the halfway house to challenge the worst excesses of mass incarceration
