The Man Who Loved Dogs A Novel:

The Man Who Loved Dogs Leonardo Padura,2024-03-26 A gripping novel about the assassination of Leon Trotsky in Mexico City in 1940 In The Man Who Loved Dogs Leonardo Padura brings a noir sensibility to one of the most fascinating and complex political narratives of the past hundred years the assassination of Leon Trotsky by Ramon Mercader The story revolves around Iván Cárdenas Maturell who in his youth was the great hope of modern Cuban literature until he dared to write a story that was deemed counterrevolutionary When we meet him years later in Havana Iván is a loser a humbled and defeated man with a quiet unremarkable life who earns his modest living as a proofreader at a veterinary magazine One afternoon he meets a mysterious foreigner in the company of two Russian wolfhounds This is the man who loved dogs and as the pair grow closer Iván begins to understand that his new friend is hiding a terrible secret Moving seamlessly between Iván's life in Cuba Ramon's early years in Spain and France and Trotsky's long years of exile The Man Who Loved Dogs is Padura's most ambitious and brilliantly executed novel yet This is a story about political ideals tested and characters broken a multilayered epic that effortlessly weaves together three different plot threads Trotsky in exile Ramon in pursuit Iván in frustrated stasis to bring emotional truth to historical fact A novel whose reach is matched only by its astonishing successes on the page The Man Who Loved Dogs lays bare the human cost of abstract ideals and the insidious corrosive effects of life under a repressive political regime

Culture and the Cuban State Yvon Grenier,2017-11-08 Culture and the Cuban State examines the politics of culture in communist Cuba It focuses on cultural policy censorship and the political participation of artists writers and academics such as Tania Bruguera Jes s D az Rafael Hern ndez Kcho Reynier Leyva Novo Leonardo Padura and Jos Toirac The cultural field is important for the reproduction of the regime in place given its pretense and ambition to be eternally revolutionary and to lead a genuine cultural revolution Cultural actors must be mobilized and handled with care given their presumed disposition to speak their mind and to cherish their autonomy This book argues that cultural actors also seek recognition by the main for a long time the only sponsor and patron of the art in Cuba the curator state The curator state is also a gatekeeper state arbitrarily and selectively opening and closing the space for public expression and for access to foreign currencies and the global market The time when everything was either mandatory or forbidden is over in Cuba The regime seems to have learned from egregious mistakes that led to a massive exodus of artists writers and academics In a country where things change so everything could stay the same the controlled opening in the cultural field playing on the actors ambition and fear illuminates a broader phenomenon the evolving rules of the political game in the longest standing dictatorship of the hemisphere
