Images That Injure Paul Martin Lester,2011-04-19 This expanded collection of new and fully revised explorations of media content identifies the ways we all have been negatively stereotyped and demonstrates how careful analysis of media portrayals can create more beneficial alternatives Not all damaging stereotypes are obvious In fact the pictorial stereotypes in the media that we don t notice could be the most harmful because we aren t even aware of the negative false ideas they perpetrate This book presents a series of original research essays on media images of groups including African Americans Latinos women the elderly the physically disabled gays and lesbians and Jewish Americans just to mention a few Specific examples of these images are derived from a variety of sources such as advertising fine art film television shows cartoons the Internet and other media providing a wealth of material for students and professionals in almost any field Images That Injure Pictorial Stereotypes in the Media Third Edition not only accurately describes and analyzes the media s harmful depictions of cultural groups but also offers creative ideas on alternative representations of these individuals These discussions illuminate how each of us is responsible for contributing to a sea of meaning within our mass culture The Moral Media Lee

Wilkins,Renita Coleman,2005-01-15 The Moral Media provides readers with preliminary answers to questions about ethical thinking in a professional environment Representing one of the first publications of journalists and advertising practitioners response to the Defining Issues Test DIT this book compares thinking about ethics by these two groups with the thinking of other professionals This text is divided into three parts Part I includes chapters that explain the DIT and place it within the larger history of three fields psychology philosophy and mass communication It also provides both a statistical quantitative and narrative qualitative analysis of journalists responses to the DIT Part II adds to scholarship theory building in these three disciplines and makes changes in the DIT that adds an element of visual information processing to the test Part III explores the larger meaning of this effort overall and links the results to theory and practice in these three fields The Moral Media pursues connections among various intellectual disciplines between the academy and the profession of journalism and among those who believe that what journalists do is essential As a result this book is appropriate for aspiring journalists scholars in journalism and mass communication psychologists particularly those interested in human development and behavior and philosophers

On Floods and Photo Ops Paul Martin Lester,2010 A close study of the visual record left by political visits following disasters Presidents Herbert Clark Hoover and George Walker Bush were challenged many times during their political careers On Floods and Photo Ops How Herbert Hoover and George W Bush Exploited Catastrophes focuses on the visual record of two such tests the relief efforts led by Commerce Secretary Hoover during the 1927 Mississippi River flood and the Bush team s response to Hurricane Katrina By concentrating on these two historic events Paul Martin Lester discusses political photography particularly the use of photo ops during catastrophes He illuminates the evolution of a genre and explores the differences and similarities between these two American politicians Hoover and Bush reached the pinnacle of political achievement only to lose in the court of popular opinion From two photo ops that occurred almost eighty years apart Lester offers a model for close readings and comparisons of images in practicing visual history Under Lester s examination these otherwise unremarkable photographs speak volumes about political response to natural disasters He offers readers not just a deeper appreciation of these pictures but a methodology for seriously studying photographs and what they can reveal about a historical moment Paul Martin Lester is a professor of communications at California State
