We Remember The Blitz:

We Remember the Blitz Frank Shaw, Joan Shaw, 2012-10-11 I went to the public baths and after I undressed I could hear someone whistling I looked round to see if I could see anybody about but I couldn't so I got into the bath and lay back to relax As soon as I did of course I looked up and saw a man putting in the glass windows that had been blown out the night before Joan Adams Lichfield On the night of 7 September 1940 bombs rained down on the defenceless and unprepared population of London for nine long hours In November raids spread to the rest of the country starting in Coventry and taking in everywhere from Portsmouth Cardiff Belfast and Hull During the nine months of the Blitz thousands of people were killed and injured and thousands of buildings and homes destroyed But with stoicism and humour life went on We Remember the Blitz is packed with vivid recollections from this important time in British history Waking up in a damp shelter to the sound of bombing Coming out of a cinema to discover that fires made night as bright as day And worst of all the shock of seeing individuals and whole families killed in an instant We hear from many who were there to pick up the pieces ARP wardens firemen even the bakers who would return to work under tarpaulin to ensure their neighbours had their daily loaf Filled with moving but often funny memories We Remember the Blitz is a celebration of the British spirit and clearly shows that the battle for Britain was won by the many

We Remember Dunkirk Frank Shaw, Joan Shaw, 2013-11-21 Yes we were scared It could be seen on the faces of the men No food didn't help We stopped to suck pebbles during the day as our tongues began to swell through lack of water We had an order come through to us one day Every man for himself And then the soldiers Belgian French and British were side by side in silent soddy ranks in columns zig zagged across the beaches I still believe this was done to minimise casualties We had to wade out up to our necks in water to get onto a boat ducking under the water when the Germans tried to mow us down Eventually I managed to grab a chain hanging off a Naval motorboat and it was fully loaded but I hung on Arthur Thomas Gunn Walsall Between 27 May and 4 June 1940 over 900 vessels rescued 338 226 people trapped at Dunkirk Cut off by the advancing German Army hundreds of thousands of Allied troops gathered on the beaches exhausted hungry and scarred by war Operation Dynamo saw British destroyers and the hundreds of little ships bring these men safely back to England where they were welcomed back by the locals with tea and sandwiches and hailed as heroes In We Remember Dunkirk we hear stories from the soldiers who made the perilous journey to Dunkirk and came under constant attack from Nazi aircraft as they boarded British ships and attempted to cross the Channel But we also hear from the nurses who tended the many returning wounded the young women who along with the rest of their communities rallied to make food and gather whatever they could to give the soldiers and what it was like witnessing all this through a child's eyes Above all we see how the solidarity of the British people gave rise to the unfailing Dunkirk Spirit

Weep No More My Lady Tom Cash, 2005-03-14 This collection contains essays short stories and poetry Tom detailed his war experiences mainly for those who haven't been there Much of the material is written in an informal style and does not fit into any single genre Some bits are serious Some are not at all serious and are laced with a feather touch of droll humor Old Eddyville Kentucky features prominently throughout A very small river town now almost drowned by Lake Barkley its main industry is the Kentucky State Penitentiary Local residents unsuccessfully attempt to ignore that imposing limestone edifice on the hill So does Tom He writes about the boy in the village

Manchester at War 1939-45 Graham Phythian,2014-02-03 This new book is a remarkable and moving account of life on the home front in Manchester during the Second World War Based on transcripts of recorded interviews with senior civilians and former members of the Armed Services this book provides a first hand narrative of what it was like to live under the shadow of war The everyday hardships and heroism are recalled the Blitz rationing the Home Guard evacuees war work and the American presence prior to D Day Despite all the tragedy and difficulties the Mancunian spirit shines through with the frequent dash of unquenchable humour Richly illustrated and filled with true accounts of local heroism and of the unbreakable spirit of the people of Manchester during these tumultuous years this book looks at how the city fared during the Second World War played her part in victory and how the day to day life of her people was affected Daddy was a

German Spy Brian Edwards,2008-09-29 This engaging memoir covers the first 25 years of Brian Edwards life in Northern Ireland during the 1940s and 1950s His father abandoned his wife and son in dramatic circumstances when Brian was still a baby He grew up in lodgings often cared for by landladies who were mad bad or simply sad while his mother was at work In his early teens Brian desperately tried to track down his mysterious father but to no avail Years later he discovered that he had at least one half sister and that his father may well have been a German spy a bigamist and a charming con man who embezzled funds from numerous employers While Brian s relationship with his parents and their extended families lies at the heart of this book Daddy was a German Spy is also a funny poignant and intriguing story about growing up in Northern Ireland Youth at War Mike Osborne,2023-09-17 The Second World War was the cause of more civilian casualties many of them young people than of military In Britain young people were on the front line facing the threat of enemy invasion and the fragmentation of daily life Their education was disrupted as their schools were taken over by government the military and ARP as pupils were evacuated and staff conscripted curriculum was diluted and part time schooling instituted and concerns over food and accommodation increased Along with the physical dangers of bombing and the increased disease caused by deprivation and social dislocation youngsters endured psychological and emotional pressure from anxieties over home and family Young people worked in industry and agriculture served in the Home Guard and ARP carried out voluntary activities in health and welfare and prepared for military service as cadets and in uniformed organisations School buildings aided the war effort as military HQs training centres research centres for weapons development and central to ARP especially in the cities were often at the forefront of the bombing This book attempts an overview of the circumstances under which youngsters grew up between 1939 and 1945 on the Home Front with particular emphasis on the 14 18 age group Paris Hollywood

Peter Wollen, 2002 Peter Wollen's book is based on the premise that there are no fixed ways of writing about film Polly Jeff Smith, 2011-11-30 Born in 1911 into a close knit family Mary Rebecca Chambers known to all as Polly spent her formative years in the heart of the East End This vivid account of life is told with passion and humour and is brimming with stories of how Londoners and Polly's family in particular lived through two world wars and the Great Depression Polly was a natural storyteller and this is a compilation of her heart warming stories arranged in chronological order to tell the tale of life as she witnessed it through adversity and danger excitement and fun The captivating anecdotes poignant and entertaining are suffused by the sights sounds and smells of the East End in the first half of the twentieth century This is a wonderful evocation of a bygone age and her affectionate memoirs will entrance anyone who reads them Records & Briefs New York State Appellate Division, Berry v.
