Gender and Prestige in Literature Alexandra Dane,2020-07-10 Gender and Prestige in Literature Contemporary Australian Book Culture explores the relationship between gender power reputation and book publishing s consecratory institutions in the Australian literary field from 1965 2015 Focusing on book reviews literary festivals and literary prizes this work analyses the ways in which these institutions exist in an increasingly cooperative and generative relationship in the contemporary publishing industry a system designed to limit field transformation Taking an intersectional approach this research acknowledges that a number of factors in addition to gender may influence the reception of an author or a title in the literary field and finds that progress towards equality is unstable and non linear By combining quantitative data analysis with interviews from authors editors critics publishers and prize judges Alexandra Dane maps the circulation of prestige in Australian publishing addressing questions around gender identity literary reputation literary worth and the resilience of the status quo that have long plagued the field Literary Research and the Literatures of Australia and New Zealand Faye H. Christenberry,2010-11-19 Literary Research and the Literatures of Australia and New Zealand Strategies and Sources is a research guide to the literatures of the two major countries of Oceania Australia and New Zealand Covering over 200 years of these geographically and chronologically connected countries this guide contains references to many different types of resources illustrating how the researcher is best served by using the increasing variety of research tools in combination with each other The book emphasizes research methodology and outlines the best practices for the research process paying special attention to the unique challenges inherent in conducting research on the literatures of Australia and New Zealand specifically The book includes commentary on general literary reference materials library catalogs print and online bibliographies indexes and annual reviews scholarly journals contemporary reviews period journals and newspapers microform and digital collections manuscripts and archives and web resources It is an essential tool for anyone conducting research on Australia or New Zealand and it is a helpful guide for readers with a special interest in these countries literatures Contesting the Australian Way Paul Smyth,Bettina Cass,1998 Since the 1980s public policy has been perceived as being in a crisis of uncertainty Many argue that consolidating the market imperative in both economic and social policy is the way out of this crisis In this 1999 book a leading group of writers challenge this view calling for reassertion of a mixed rather than a market economy and a reaffirmation of the egalitarianism that has characterised past Australian social policy The book confronts key issues of our time particularly rising inequality and unemployment Attempting to look beyond familiar debates about economic rationalism it discusses the role of industry policy the impact of globalisation and the usefulness of competition models in the public welfare and community sectors Asking whether economic and social policy can be reintegrated in a shared vision this groundbreaking book argues the case for reinventing government rather than marginalising it The Australian Medical Journal ,1885 The Routledge Companion to Australian Literature Jessica Gildersleeve,2020-12-22 In recent years Australian literature has experienced a revival of interest both domestically and internationally The increasing prominence of work by writers like Christos Tsiolkas heightened through television and film adaptation as well as the award of major international prizes to writers like Richard Flanagan and the development of new high profile prizes like the Stella Prize have all reinvigorated interest in Australian literature both at home and abroad This Companion emerges as a part of that reinvigoration considering anew the history and development of Australian literature and its key themes as well as tracing the transition of the field through those critical debates It considers works of Australian literature on their own terms as well as positioning them in their critical and historical context and their ethical and interactive position in the public and private spheres With an emphasis on literature s responsibilities this book claims Australian literary studies as a field uniquely positioned to expose the ways in which literature engages with produces and is produced by its context provoking a critical re evaluation of the concept of the relationship between national literatures cultures and histories and the social function of literary texts International Companion Encyclopedia of Children's Literature Peter Hunt,2004-08-02 Children s publishing is a huge international industry and there is ever growing interest from researchers and students in the genre as cultural object of study and tool for education and socialization Patrick White's Fiction Carolyn Bliss,1986-08-18 This study examines all eleven novels of Patrick White the great Australian writer and Nobel Prize winner It begins from the observation that major characters in his novels undergo a necessary redemptive or facilitating failure This failure paradoxically enables their success within the context of what White has called the overreaching grandeur which circumscribes human existence Evolution of this theme is traced through forty years of White s fiction from his first novel Happy Valley 1939 to his most recent work The Twyborn Affair 1979 Comprehensive in its scope this book is informed by a thorough knowledge of White s poetry plays short stories and autobiography as well as his novels It is also unique in stressing that White s world view derives from a distinctly Australian experience It thus links him to a country in which he is deeply rooted and to a heritage he continued to affirm The Australian Journal of Dentistry ,1928 The Australian Library Journal ,2004 National Identity in Contemporary Australian Opera Michael Halliwell,2017-09-11 Opera has been performed in Australia for more than two hundred years yet none of the operas written before the Second World War have become part of the repertoire It is only in the late 1970s and early 1980s that there is evidence of the successful systematic production of indigenous opera The premiere of Voss by Richard Meale and David Malouf in 1986 was a watershed in the staging and reception of new opera and there has been a diverse series of new works staged in the last thirty years not only by the national company but also by thriving regional institutions The emergence of a thriving operatic tradition in contemporary Australia is inextricably enmeshed in Australian cultural consciousness and issues of national identity In this study of eighteen representative contemporary operas Michael Halliwell elucidates the ways in which the operas reflect and engage with the issues facing contemporary Australians Stylistically these eighteen operas vary greatly The musical idiom is diverse ranging from works in a modernist idiom such as The Ghost Wife Whitsunday Fly Away Peter Black River and Bride of Fortune to Voss Batavia Bliss Lindy Midnight Son The Riders The Summer of the Seventeenth Doll and The Children s Bach being works which straddle several musical styles A number of operas draw strongly on musical theatre including The Eighth Wonder Pecan Summer The Rabbits and Cloudstreet and Love in the Age of Therapy is couched in a predominantly jazz idiom While some of them are overtly political all at least tangentially deal with recent cultural politics in Australia and offer sharply differing perspectives

Suburban Space, the Novel and Australian Modernity Brigid Rooney, 2018-11-15 Suburban Space the Novel and Australian Modernity investigates the interaction between suburbs and suburbia in a century long series of Australian novels It puts the often trenchantly anti suburban rhetoric of fiction in dialogue with its evocative and imaginative rendering of suburban place and time Suburban Space the Novel and Australian Modernity rethinks existing cultural debates about suburbia in Australia and elsewhere by putting novelistic representations of suburbs suburban interiors homes streets forms and lives over time in dialogue with the often negative idea of suburbia in fiction as an amnesic and conformist cultural wasteland Suburban space the novel and Australian modernity shows in other words how Australian novels dramatize the collision between the sensory terrain of the remembered suburb and the cultural critique of suburbia It is through such contradictions that novels create resonant mental maps of place and time Australian novels are a prism through which suburbs as sites of everyday colonization defined by successive waves of urban development are able to be glimpsed sidelong
